13. According to the West Side Strategic Plan, the subject site is located within the Seven Bar Ranch Community. Policy 3.4 is hindered by this request because each neighborhood within the Seven Bar Ranch Community is to be served by a Neighborhood Activity Center. The elimination of this Activity Center would leave neighborhoods in this community without the desired commercial and employment opportunities.

14. According to the West Side Strategic Plan's Economic Development section, the West Side has not been very successful in attracting "base or export" jobs which are necessary to achieve this population to jobs ratio. The subject site currently has the necessary zoning to attract these types of jobs (Policy 3.91).

15. In his justification for zone map amendment R-270-1980 the applicant asserts that this request is more beneficial to the community. Because this request is in significant conflict with adopted elements, goals and policies of the Comprehensive Plan and the West Side Strategic Plan (Section 1.C.), it is not possible to show that the proposed zoning is more beneficial to the community as articulated by these Plans (Section 1.D.).

MR. BRITO: Mr. Chairman, Commissioners, this agenda item is project number 1002571, EPC case number 04EPC 00993 and 994. This is a request for annexation and establishment of M-1 zoning for an approximately 1.1 acre site located south of Montano Road immediately east of the Alameda Lateral. The subject site is contiguous to the existing city boundaries. The existing zone in the county is currently M-1; the applicant is requesting city M-1 zoning. The annexation policies of Resolution 54-1990 are met by this request. It is in an area designated established urban by the Comprehensive Plan and annexation of these areas is encouraged by Resolution 54-1990. The policies of Resolution 270-1980 to establish M-1 zoning are also met by this request. The annexation of the site would be a changed condition and also annexation of the site would be more advantageous to the community as articulated by the Comprehensive Plan and the North Valley Area Plan.

Gentlemen:

On August 6, 2004, I delivered to you the response of my client, Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co., to Felix Rabadi's appeal of the decision of the DRB. On page three of the response, I stated that Mr. Rabadi's attorney, Larry Montaño, "misled" the DRB when he testified that Manual Lujan would verify that my client, Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co., had agreed to honor the 1996 Agreement and sell Mr. Rabadi five acres of the Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co. land.

Mr. Montaño has advised me that he took exception to my allegation and interpreted my assertion that his testimony "misled" the DRB as an accusation that he lied. I assured him that it was not my intention to accuse him of lying, and I want the Commission to know that I am not accusing Mr. Montaño of lying or of intentionally misstating any facts. For the record, in my view, there is a big difference between lying and making a misleading argument.

Very truly yours,

RESPONSE OF BUILDERS INVESTMENT COMPANY OF NEW MEXICO LTD. CO. TO THE APPEAL FILED BY FELIX RABADI

A. Introduction

This Response is made by Builders Investment Company of New Mexico, Ltd. Co., a New Mexico limited liability company to the appeal filed by Felix Rabadi of the Development Review Board ("DRB") decision, dated June 16, 2004. The Decision approved the request of BIC for a Major Bulk Land Variance and a Minor Preliminary and Final Plat Approval.

Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co. ("BIC), is the owner of approximately 122 acres of undeveloped land located on Paradise Blvd. N.W., between Lyons Blvd. N.W. and Blanda Court N.W. The land is described as Lots 1 and 2 of Paragon Resources. BIC, through its agent, Tierra West, LLC, applied for a major bulk land variance (Application No. 04DRB-00760) and for a minor preliminary and final plat approval (Application No. 04DRB-00761). On June 16, 2004, the DRB approved both applications.

Felix Rabadi ("Rabadi"), an adjacent landowner, appealed the decision of the DRB on July 1, 2004. Rabadi contends that the DRB erred in approving the plat for two reasons. First, Rabadi alleges he is the "owner" of an "equitable interest" in BIC's land. Rabadi contends that since he is not listed on the plat as an equitable owner, the plat is not in compliance with the provisions of Article 14 of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. Rabadi also contends that the plat should not have been approved because BIC had yet to reach an agreement with AMAFCA regarding drainage issues affecting the BIC land.

B. Basis of Appeal.

BIC's applications arise under Article 14, Subdivision Regulations, of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. The scope of an appeal from a decision of the DRB is set forth in § 14-14-8-3. The EPC must determine if there was either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

If neither of these three criteria exist then the EPC must affirm the DRB.

Rabadi does not allege that the DRB acted arbitrarily or capriciously or manifestly abused its discretion when it approved the plat. Rabadi alleges that the DRB improperly applied city ordinances in arriving at its decision to approve the plat. This body should thus confine its inquiry to the issue of whether the DRB erred in applying city ordinances.

C. Response to Arguments Supporting the Appeal.

(1) Rabadi Owns No Equitable Interest in the BIC Land.

Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g) of the Subdivision Regulations, requires that a preliminary plat "list all legal and equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest." Rabadi claims that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land and that since the plat did not list him the DRB erred in approving it. Rabadi further contends that the consent and warranty of title on the plat is defective because he does not approve the plat and because BIC does not own indefeasible title.

The only evidence before the DRB on this issue came, not from Rabadi, but from statements by his attorney, Larry J. Montaño of the Rodey Law Firm. Rabadi, did not produce a written purchase agreement obligating BIC to sell him the 5 acres in question. Rabadi's attorney advised the DRB that he was relying on an oral agreement. BIC disputes that any such agreement and has disputed it since at least 1998. Thus Rabadi has a mere undetermined claim that BIC is obligated to sell him a portion of the BIC land. No court has ruled on his claim. Under no theory can Rabadi be said to have any cognizable interest in the land as of this date.

The only credible evidence before the DRB on the issue of land ownership was the Land America Albuquerque title Company Title Insurance Commitment. Nevertheless, Rabadi asked the DRB to determine his interest in title to the BIC land, and in this appeal he asks this body to make the same determination. Neither this body nor the DRB has the legal authority to make such a determination and to resolve Rabadi's property claim. See, Mechem v. City of Santa Fe, 96 N.M. 668, 671-72 (1981) (holding a "City . . . has no zoning authority beyond that provided by statute," concluding a zoning authority may not regulate personal rights of property ownership rather than use of property); Tevis v. McCrary, 72 N.M. 134, 136 (1963) ("The determination of priority of water rights ... is a judicial function, not administrative."). Rabadi's appeal must, therefore, fail on this point.

Because Rabadi does not have any interest in the title to the BIC land that is legally cognizable by the DRB and this body, Rabadi is not an equitable owner of the BIC land within the meaning of §§ 14-14-3-4 and 14-14-3-5. If this body reaches a different conclusion any person wanting to stop a subdivision could come before the DRB and EPC and simply assert the existence of an unrecorded interest in land, thereby thwarting the subdivision process.

Nevertheless, it is instructive to look closely at the merits of Rabadi's claim that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land. After close scrutiny it is apparent that Rabadi has no legitimate claim of ownership.

Rabadi's claim initially arose out of a written Agreement dated September, 1996, between Rabadi, Signature J Homes, Inc. and R.J. Schaefer. At the time it was contemplated that Signature J and Schaefer would acquire the land from Paragon Resources, Inc. Pursuant to the Agreement, Schaefer and Signature J Homes agreed, that if they acquired the land, they would sell to Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land if they were able to obtain an approved subdivision plat within 18 months. Rabadi crossed out the part of the Agreement relating to the 18 month limitation. At the DRB hearing, H. Griffin Pickard, Jr., president of Signature J Homes, and R.J. Schaefer both testified that they did not agreed to the alteration of the Agreement made by Rabadi. Thus, because there was no meeting of the minds, no binding agreement came into existence in 1996. By making his acceptance conditioned on a different term, Rabadi made a counteroffer to signature J and Schaefer, which was accepted by neither of them and thus there was no real estate contract between the parties. Corr v. Brasch, 97 N.M. 279 (1981).

Rabadi knew there was no agreement in 1998 as evidenced by a letter to Griff Pickard, dated May 14, 1998, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A".

Rabadi's attorney, Larry Montaño , testified that Rabadi was not relying on the September 1996 Agreement but on a later oral agreement that ratified and affirmed the 1996 Agreement. Mr. Montaño misled the DRB concerning the alleged oral agreement. First, his description of the alleged oral agreement led the DRB to believe that the discussions leading to the oral agreement were close in time to the original 1996 Agreement. He further misled the DRB when he testified that Manual Lujan would verify that BIC has agreed to honor the 1996 Agreement and sell Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land.

The discussions with Rabadi and Mr. Lujan took place between December 2003 and June of 2004. Mr. Lujan wrote to Griff Pickard on December 23, 2003, confirming a meeting and outlining Rabadi's offer. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "B." On January 6, 2004, Rabadi expanded the terms of a proposed agreement. At copy of Rabadi's letter to Mr. Lujan, dated January 6, 2004 is attached as Exhibit "C." By letter dated January 12, 2004, BIC responded to Rabadi's offers. A copy of BIC's January 12, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "D." Rabadi rejected the terms of BIC's response as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's January 19, 2004, letter, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "E." An agreement still had not been reached. The negotiations continued into March of 2004, as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's letter to Griff Pickard dated March 30, 2004, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "F." By letter dated April 5, 2004, BIC confirmed to Mr. Lujan that no agreement had been reached. A copy of the April5, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "G." BIC's letter of April 5, 2004, clearly belies any contention that the parties had reached an agreement. To further underscore this fact, in June Rabadi asserted a claim under the 1996 Agreement. BIC responded by letter of June 18, 2004, denying any such agreement existed and confirming that there was no agreement between the parties for the purchase of the 5 acres. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "H."

It is under these circumstances that Rabadi claims to be an "equitable owner" of 5 acres of the BIC land. Before his claim can ripen into an actual interest a court must rule on the merits of his claim. Based upon the foregoing, Rabadi will almost certainly fail, as Rabadi will never be able to establish the existence of any agreement with BIC..

The Subdivision Regulations do not define the terms legal and equitable owner." Assuming that the term includes the purchaser under a purchase agreement to purchase land (as opposed to a real estate contract or conditional sale contract), Rabadi claim must fail because he has no binding purchase agreement or legally cognizable right to purchase the 5 acres..

The DRB found that BIC is the fee simple owner of the BIC land, basing its finding on a Title Insurance Commitment issued by Land America Albuquerque Title Company, dated June 8, 2004. This finding is supported by substantial evidence and should be affirmed by the EPC.

(2) The DRB Did Not Err by Making the Plat Contingent on AMAFCA Approval.

Rabadi and his attorney have overlooked the fact that BIC's applications arose, not under Part 3 of the Revised Ordinances but under the bulk land variance provisions pursuant to Part 6 of the Subdivision Regulations, § 14-14-6-1 et seq. The purpose of Part 6 is to give the Development Review Board the authority to "vary the provisions of Part 3 [Procedures and Submission Requirements for Plats] of this article, Minimum Standards for the Design of Subdivision and the Development Process Manual." Section 2 of the Development Review Manual, Subdivisions, discusses variances under the heading "Subdivision Waiver or Variance." Clearly it is the policy and procedure of the City to allow variances, especially for bulk land plats. The Development Review Manual contemplates variances from AMAFCA requirements, even in the final plat.

The plat in question is a bulk-land plat. The actual use of the BIC land will not commence prior to further subdivision of the separately platted components of the BIC land under the approved plat. The DRB made the findings necessary to support its decision to grant the bulk land variance. The AMAFCA signature on the preliminary plat was never necessary and has not been waived on the final plat. Contrary to Rabadi's assertions AMAFCA signed the plat on July 14, 2004.

Rabadi's appeal on this issue must fail.

D. Conclusion.

Rabadi does not contend that either the bulk-land variance or the bulk land plat fail to meet the criteria of the Subdivision Regulations. He does not argue that the merits of the applications are defective. It is clear to BIC, and it should be clear to this body, that Rabadi's appeal is filed solely to delay BIC's use of the BIC land in an attempt to force BIC to sell Rabadi 5 acres of land at a below market price. This is made strikingly clear by Rabadi's statement that he "will not consent [to the AMAFCA plan] until the ownership issue is resolved." Reason's For Appeal, p. 4. This body should not countenance Rabadi's misuse of the appeal process.

Rabadi has not established and cannot establish that the DRB either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

The EPC should affirm the DRB's decision.

Respectfully submitted,

This is to inform you that I am not happy with our last meeting because you have changed your mind and decided not to honor the agreement which I made with you and R. G. Schaffer.

Based on that agreement I have released PNM and I proved the sale of the property to you.

I would like to remind you when I called you two weeks prior to the expiration of the sales agreement to renew as you promised. You said nobody could do anything now anyway. So let us wait when the time comes that we be able to develope the property.

I would like to ask you to reconsider your decision and honor the agreement. Please respond in 10 working days.

Sincerely Yours,

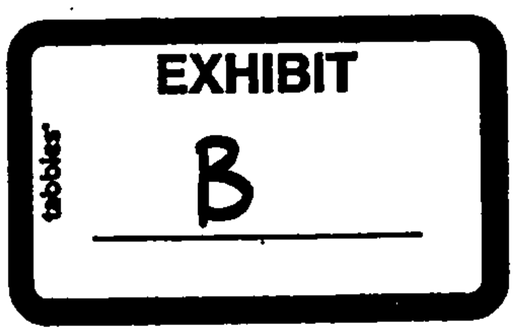
From: Manuel Lujan, Jr.

After our meeting in Santa Fe, I contacted Felix Rabadi regarding the 5 acres he wants to buy from you. What he agrees to do is as follows:

1. He will pay you $175,000 for the 5 acres ($35.00 per acre).
2. He will pay his share ($173,916.00) of the infrastructure development costs.
3. He will give you an option to buy all or part of the developed lots at a price which is acceptable to both of you. His intention is to see what another legitimate builder in the area (such as Fuller) and give you the option to match the price. The offer to see it in parts he defines as selling 20% or 25% of the lots each time.
4. He wants assurance that the utilities that you will construct on your property be built up to his property line so he can hook up to them.
5. Felix agrees to move the easement to the middle of his property and he tells me that your son and son-in-law had agreed to pay him $100,000.00.
6. He wants to enter this agreement before either party goes to the DRB.



January 6, 2004

To: Mr. Manuel Lujan, Jr.

From: Felix Rabadi

After discussing the sale agreement with my attorney, I outline the following items. If this is acceptable to Mr. Pickard, we will proceed.

* $40,000.00 purchase price for lots 45 by 105 square foot larger lots to be priced as per square foot.
* 5 closings as follows:
  a. 1st closing lot 1 through 30 with no lot selection
  b. 2nd closing lot 31 through 60 six months later with no lot selection
  c. 3rd closing lot 61 through 90
  d. 4th closing lot 91 through 120
  e. 5th closing lot 121 through 150

  This will give purchaser 21/2 years to close on all lots.
* If any lots sold to builder above the cost which the purchaser paid, the difference shall be paid to seller (Felix Rabadi). If seller found a higher price for the lots by any other builder, buyer must match that price.
* The purchase price shall increase by eight percent (8%) per annum.
* Buyer shall deposit with First American Title Company the sum of One hundred and twenty thousand dollars (120,000.00) as Earnest Money. The Earnest Money shall be in favor of the Buyer until substantial completion has been agreed upon. At such time, the Earnest Money shall be released to Felix Rabadi. The Earnest Money escrow deposit is Non-Refundable. The Earnest Money shall, however, be refunded to the Buyer as a One Thousand dollar ($1,000.00) credit against the Lot Sales Price of the each on the One hundred fifty (150) lots purchased under this agreement.
* Fences, Walls, and Sidewalks are the sole responsibility of Mr.Pickard.
* All walls and fences are to be built prior to construction.
* Felix will purchase five (5) acres or more at $35,000 per acre and will pay his share of 173,916.00 for the Infrastructure development costs. Which will be deducted from the first sale.
* All utilities will be constructed on the property and will be brought up to Felix's property line.
* Will trade land for easement from the West side to the Middle of the Property at no cost to M Pickard or M. Rabadi.
* Will enter this agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

RE: 5-Acre Paragon Property Purchase & Agreement to Purchase Finished Lots

In response to your memo dated January 6, 2004, Builders Investment Company agrees to the following deal points. This memo does not bind either party for both of the deals described herein; but is to be used as a good faith effort to construct both deals. Once the major deal points have been agreed upon, a final set of contracts will be written. With regard to earnest money on both deals, Builders Investment Company believes that because this whole deal has been done on good faith, and that there should be no earnest money requirement for either deal.

The deal shall be broken down into the following two separate agreements.

I. Rabadi to purchase 5 acres from Builders Investment Company
   A. Purchase Price: $35,000 per acre
   B. Closing: As Soon As Possible (To be clarified by Rabadi)
   C. Both parties agree to trade and record entrance easements off of Paradise. Any difference in land area shall be made up to the other party at $35,000 / acre.
   D. Rabadi to pay his pro-rata share of infrastructure costs through whatever method Ron Bohanan deems necessary. This amount is estimated to be no less than $173,916; but could be more.
   E. Closing on this transaction to take place at Albuquerque Title w/ Diana Stoneburger.
   F. The minimum amount of utilities will be brought to the new property line by Builders Investment Company in order to facilitate the development of the Rabadi subdivision. Builders Investment Company will eventually complete all of the final utilities and infrastructure as needed by our development-phasing plan for the whole tract and will not impede Rabadi's development.
   G. The lay out of this transaction is shown in the plat that is attached to this outline.
   H. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

(Builders Investment Company is wiling to do the deal listed above if Mr. Rabadi is willing to do the deal listed below.)

II. Builders Investment Company to purchase all of Rabadi's finished lots
   A. Purchase Price: To be determined by appraisal for each size lot. Once a contract for these lots has been signed the deal is done even if Rabadi finds a higher price for the lots from someone else.
   B. Takedown Schedule: 5 takedowns on fully completed lots, 30 lots each, every 6 months. Rabadi to carry / finance each take down for purchaser with financing acceptable to Builders Investment Company.
   C. The lot purchase price shall increase by the prevailing floating prime rate, which will be determined at the time of takedown.
   D. Builders Investment Company will buy the lots less fences, walls and sidewalks except those sidewalks that are off-lot that will be required by the city. The timing of when these will be constructed will be at Builders Investments Companies discretion.
   E. Closing on each of these takedowns will take place at First American Title Company.
   F. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

Re: Felix Rabadi

I visited with Mr. Rabadi and he believes the best way is for each to do their own development, although he still wants the 5 acres.

1. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre plus the $173,916.00 development costs and no easement on:

2. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre and Rabadi agrees to the exchange of easements and does not pay the $173,916.00.

Let me know if either of the above are acceptable to you.

Dear Griff:

I met with Felix Rabadi and he asked me to try one more time to see if an agreement can be worked out. The following is what should be a reasonable solution to the problem:

1- Exchange easement even.
2- BIC will sell Rabadi 5 acres at $35,000.00 each.
3- Rabadi will pay his share of infrastructure development costs.
4- Rabadi will build front wall on Paradise Blvd.
5- Rabadi will pay all cost required at front of property.
6- BIC will build the easement road.
7- BIC will bring utilities to Rabadi property line.
8- Rabadi will pay for the sign at entrance with name of subdivision.
9- Enter into an agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

I hope both parties can work it all out. I can be reached at 259-0517.

Very truly yours,

RE: Paragon Property

Dear Manuel:

We appreciate your willingness, at Mr. Rabadi's request, to facilitate a mutually acceptable solution between him and us. We feel we have tried in good faith to work out multiple solutions with Mr. Rabadi over the previous year, but to no resolve.

As stated in our letter to him dated March 24, 2004, we have no choice but to continue forward with the development of our property, and that is what we are planning to do. We cannot, for both of our benefits, continue to negotiate with Mr. Rabadi. Our experience with Mr. Rabadi tells us that even if we reach an agreement in principle, it will not be finalized in the details, hence causing further delays.

Our position is simple, we do not believe Mr. Rabadi has any legal right to the 5 acres in dispute, and thus anything we would agree to would be to primarily benefit him, and in your latest memo dated March 30, 2004, we do not see anything that would be to our advantage. Any agreement would have to be to the benefit of both parties.

We, again, thank you for your time and consideration; however, at this time we believe the matter to be closed. We wish Mr. Rabadi the best for his development. He has a valuable piece of property that will make a wonderful development.

Sincerely,

H. Griffin Pickard, Jr.

Hand Delivered

Dear Mr. Rabadi:

We are in receipt of a copy of what you have represented to be a fully executed copy of an Agreement, dated September 10, 1996 wherein Signature J Homes has agreed to sell to you a portion of Tract 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. You are demanding that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co, the owner of Tract 2, perform what you contend is a binding obligation to sell you approximately 5.1683 acres of land.

Please be advised that we reject your demand. We reject your claim that the September 10, 1996, Agreement was ever properly accepted by you and Mr. Schaefer. The Agreement was tendered to you on September 10, 1996, pursuant to a letter from Signature J Homes of that date. In was tendered as an offer, with the requirement that it be executed and returned to Signature J Homes by September 13, 1996. We have no record of ever receiving a fully executed document. Even had you returned the document by September 13, the Agreement was altered by you, (not dated) and there is no record that Signature J Homes ever agreed to the altered terms. As you know, an altered document becomes a counter-offer that must be fully accepted before a binding contract comes into existence.

A couple of other issues to consider are that the purchase agreement you presented as an "Exhibit A" the Signature J Homes contract, between yourself and Jim Green is not valid. Mr. Green was never in title to the property and therefore could not execute his contract. Second, the statute of limitations has expired for a binding written contract to be enforceable. Finally, Mr. Schaefer does not believe that the contract you produced is valid.

We would like to offer any assistance we can on you procuring this approximate five acres, but it will have to be through another means besides this invalid contract.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Watson

At the June 16, 2004, Development Review Board meeting, the Bulk Land Variance was approved subject to the Findings and Conditions of the Subdivision Ordinance as follows:

BULK LAND VARIANCE:

1. The variance will not be injurious to the public safety, health or welfare, or to adjacent property, the neighborhood or the community.

2. The variance will not conflict significantly with the goals and provisions of any City, County or AMAFCA adopted plan or policy; the applicable zoning ordinance, or any other City code or ordinance.

3. The variance will not permit, encourage or make possible undesired development in the 100-year floodplain.

City Engineer

Tract 8 is not big enough to qualify for the Bulk Land Variance. Roadway easement for Unser should be granted with this plat. Plat shows easements to be vacated but no vacation was requested.

Transportation Development

1) Ultimate alignment of Unser needs to be shown as right-of-way or easement. Lilenthal should also be shown connecting to Unser.
2) What is status of TIS?
3) What is status of connections to the West and South?
4) Concerns with vacating the public access easements.

Parks & Recreation

Future development will be subject to the park dedication ordinance. How many units will be built out in the ultimate condition?

Utilities Development

Parcels smaller than 5.0 acres do not qualify for a Bulk Land Variance.

Planning Department

This property lies within the Unser Boulevard Design Overlay Zone & the NW Mesa Escarpment Plan View Area.

The zoning in AGIS is currently RLT. If this is incorrect, please provide written documentation of the correct zoning. Be sure the bulk land plat has the correct zoning.

There are vacations shown on the bulk land plat. However, no application of vacations was made. The bulk plat cannot be approved without the vacations approved either simultaneously or before the plat is approved.

The Notice of Subdivision Conditions must be filed with the bulk plat.

Planning must file the plat. AGIS dxf approval is required.

EXISTING LEGAL DESCRIPTION PRIOR TO PLATTING ACTION

Following is a summary of PUBLIC/PRIVATE Infrastructure required to be constructed or financially guaranteed for the above development. This Listing is not necessarily a complete listing. During the SIA process and/or in the review of the construction drawings, if the DRC Chair determines that appurtenant items and/or unforeseen items have not been included in the infrastructure listing, the DRC Chair may include those items in the listing and related financial guarantee. Likewise, if the DRC Chair determines that appurtenant or non-essential items can be deleted from the listing, those items may be deleted as well as the related portions of the financial guarantees. All such revisions require approval by the DRC Chair, the User Department and agent/owner. If such approvals are obtained, these revisions to the listing will be incorporated administratively. ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING COMMISSION
APPEAL OF FELIX RABADI
OF DRB DECISION DATED JUNE 16, 2004
Project: #1–2632
04DRB-0067 (Major-Bulk Land Variance)
04DRB-00761 (Minor Preliminary and Final Plat Approval)

RESPONSE OF BUILDERS INVESTMENT COMPANY OF NEW MEXICO LTD. CO. TO THE APPEAL FILED BY FELIX RABADI

A. Introduction

This Response is made by Builders Investment Company of New Mexico, Ltd. Co., a New Mexico limited liability company to the appeal filed by Felix Rabadi of the Development Review Board ("DRB") decision, dated June 16, 2004. The Decision approved the request of BIC for a Major Bulk Land Variance and a Minor Preliminary and Final Plat Approval.

Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co. ("BIC), is the owner of approximately 122 acres of undeveloped land located on Paradise Blvd. N.W., between Lyons Blvd. N.W. and Blanda Court N.W. The land is described as Lots 1 and 2 of Paragon Resources. BIC, through its agent, Tierra West, LLC, applied for a major bulk land variance (Application No. 04DRB-00760) and for a minor preliminary and final plat approval (Application No. 04DRB-00761). On June 16, 2004, the DRB approved both applications.

Felix Rabadi ("Rabadi"), an adjacent landowner, appealed the decision of the DRB on July 1, 2004. Rabadi contends that the DRB erred in approving the plat for two reasons. First, Rabadi alleges he is the "owner" of an "equitable interest" in BIC's land. Rabadi contends that since he is not listed on the plat as an equitable owner, the plat is not in compliance with the provisions of Article 14 of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. Rabadi also contends that the plat should not have been approved because BIC had yet to reach an agreement with AMAFCA regarding drainage issues affecting the BIC land.

B. Basis of Appeal.

BIC's applications arise under Article 14, Subdivision Regulations, of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. The scope of an appeal from a decision of the DRB is set forth in § 14-14-8-3. The EPC must determine if there was either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

RECEIVED
HYDROLOGY SECTION

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

If neither of these three criteria exist then the EPC must affirm the DRB.

Rabadi does not allege that the DRB acted arbitrarily or capriciously or manifestly abused its discretion when it approved the plat. Rabadi alleges that the DRB improperly applied city ordinances in arriving at its decision to approve the plat. This body should thus confine its inquiry to the issue of whether the DRB erred in applying city ordinances.

C. Response to Arguments Supporting the Appeal.

(1) Rabadi Owns No Equitable Interest in the BIC Land.

Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g) of the Subdivision Regulations, requires that a preliminary plat "list all legal and equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest." Rabadi claims that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land and that since the plat did not list him the DRB erred in approving it. Rabadi further contends that the consent and warranty of title on the plat is defective because he does not approve the plat and because BIC does not own indefeasible title.

The only evidence before the DRB on this issue came, not from Rabadi, but from statements by his attorney, Larry J. Montaño of the Rodey Law Firm. Rabadi, did not produce a written purchase agreement obligating BIC to sell him the 5 acres in question. Rabadi's attorney advised the DRB that he was relying on an oral agreement. BIC disputes that any such agreement and has disputed it since at least 1998. Thus Rabadi has a mere undetermined claim that BIC is obligated to sell him a portion of the BIC land. No court has ruled on his claim. Under no theory can Rabadi be said to have any cognizable interest in the land as of this date.

The only credible evidence before the DRB on the issue of land ownership was the Land America Albuquerque title Company Title Insurance Commitment. Nevertheless, Rabadi asked the DRB to determine his interest in title to the BIC land, and in this appeal he asks this body to make the same determination. Neither this body nor the DRB has the legal authority to make such a determination and to resolve Rabadi's property claim. See, Mechem v. City of Santa Fe, 96 N.M. 668, 671-72 (1981) (holding a "City . . . has no zoning authority beyond that provided by statute," concluding a zoning authority may not regulate personal rights of property ownership rather than use of property); Tevis v. McCrary, 72 N.M. 134, 136 (1963) ("The determination of priority of water rights ... is a judicial function, not administrative."). Rabadi's appeal must, therefore, fail on this point.

Because Rabadi does not have any interest in the title to the BIC land that is legally cognizable by the DRB and this body, Rabadi is not an equitable owner of the BIC land within the meaning of §§ 14-14-3-4 and 14-14-3-5. If this body reaches a different conclusion any person wanting to stop a subdivision could come before the DRB and EPC and simply assert the existence of an unrecorded interest in land, thereby thwarting the subdivision process.

Nevertheless, it is instructive to look closely at the merits of Rabadi's claim that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land. After close scrutiny it is apparent that Rabadi has no legitimate claim of ownership.

Rabadi's claim initially arose out of a written Agreement dated September, 1996, between Rabadi, Signature J Homes, Inc. and R.J. Schaefer. At the time it was contemplated that Signature J and Schaefer would acquire the land from Paragon Resources, Inc. Pursuant to the Agreement, Schaefer and Signature J Homes agreed, that if they acquired the land, they would sell to Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land if they were able to obtain an approved subdivision plat within 18 months. Rabadi crossed out the part of the Agreement relating to the 18 month limitation. At the DRB hearing, H. Griffin Pickard, Jr., president of Signature J Homes, and R.J. Schaefer both testified that they did not agreed to the alteration of the Agreement made by Rabadi. Thus, because there was no meeting of the minds, no binding agreement came into existence in 1996. By making his acceptance conditioned on a different term, Rabadi made a counteroffer to signature J and Schaefer, which was accepted by neither of them and thus there was no real estate contract between the parties. Corr v. Brasch, 97 N.M. 279 (1981).

Rabadi knew there was no agreement in 1998 as evidenced by a letter to Griff Pickard, dated May 14, 1998, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A".

Rabadi's attorney, Larry Montaño , testified that Rabadi was not relying on the September 1996 Agreement but on a later oral agreement that ratified and affirmed the 1996 Agreement. Mr. Montaño misled the DRB concerning the alleged oral agreement. First, his description of the alleged oral agreement led the DRB to believe that the discussions leading to the oral agreement were close in time to the original 1996 Agreement. He further misled the DRB when he testified that Manual Lujan would verify that BIC has agreed to honor the 1996 Agreement and sell Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land.

The discussions with Rabadi and Mr. Lujan took place between December 2003 and June of 2004. Mr. Lujan wrote to Griff Pickard on December 23, 2003, confirming a meeting and outlining Rabadi's offer. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "B." On January 6, 2004, Rabadi expanded the terms of a proposed agreement. At copy of Rabadi's letter to Mr. Lujan, dated January 6, 2004 is attached as Exhibit "C." By letter dated January 12, 2004, BIC responded to Rabadi's offers. A copy of BIC's January 12, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "D." Rabadi rejected the terms of BIC's response as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's January 19, 2004, letter, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "E." An agreement still had not been reached. The negotiations continued into March of 2004, as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's letter to Griff Pickard dated March 30, 2004, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "F." By letter dated April 5, 2004, BIC confirmed to Mr. Lujan that no agreement had been reached. A copy of the April5, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "G." BIC's letter of April 5, 2004, clearly belies any contention that the parties had reached an agreement. To further underscore this fact, in June Rabadi asserted a claim under the 1996 Agreement. BIC responded by letter of June 18, 2004, denying any such agreement existed and confirming that there was no agreement between the parties for the purchase of the 5 acres. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "H."

It is under these circumstances that Rabadi claims to be an "equitable owner" of 5 acres of the BIC land. Before his claim can ripen into an actual interest a court must rule on the merits of his claim. Based upon the foregoing, Rabadi will almost certainly fail, as Rabadi will never be able to establish the existence of any agreement with BIC..

The Subdivision Regulations do not define the terms legal and equitable owner." Assuming that the term includes the purchaser under a purchase agreement to purchase land (as opposed to a real estate contract or conditional sale contract), Rabadi claim must fail because he has no binding purchase agreement or legally cognizable right to purchase the 5 acres..

The DRB found that BIC is the fee simple owner of the BIC land, basing its finding on a Title Insurance Commitment issued by Land America Albuquerque Title Company, dated June 8, 2004. This finding is supported by substantial evidence and should be affirmed by the EPC.

(2) The DRB Did Not Err by Making the Plat Contingent on AMAFCA Approval.

Rabadi and his attorney have overlooked the fact that BIC's applications arose, not under Part 3 of the Revised Ordinances but under the bulk land variance provisions pursuant to Part 6 of the Subdivision Regulations, § 14-14-6-1 et seq. The purpose of Part 6 is to give the Development Review Board the authority to "vary the provisions of Part 3 [Procedures and Submission Requirements for Plats] of this article, Minimum Standards for the Design of Subdivision and the Development Process Manual." Section 2 of the Development Review Manual, Subdivisions, discusses variances under the heading "Subdivision Waiver or Variance." Clearly it is the policy and procedure of the City to allow variances, especially for bulk land plats. The Development Review Manual contemplates variances from AMAFCA requirements, even in the final plat.

The plat in question is a bulk-land plat. The actual use of the BIC land will not commence prior to further subdivision of the separately platted components of the BIC land under the approved plat. The DRB made the findings necessary to support its decision to grant the bulk land variance. The AMAFCA signature on the preliminary plat was never necessary and has not been waived on the final plat. Contrary to Rabadi's assertions AMAFCA signed the plat on July 14, 2004.

Rabadi's appeal on this issue must fail.

D. Conclusion.

Rabadi does not contend that either the bulk-land variance or the bulk land plat fail to meet the criteria of the Subdivision Regulations. He does not argue that the merits of the applications are defective. It is clear to BIC, and it should be clear to this body, that Rabadi's appeal is filed solely to delay BIC's use of the BIC land in an attempt to force BIC to sell Rabadi 5 acres of land at a below market price. This is made strikingly clear by Rabadi's statement that he "will not consent [to the AMAFCA plan] until the ownership issue is resolved." Reason's For Appeal, p. 4. This body should not countenance Rabadi's misuse of the appeal process.

Rabadi has not established and cannot establish that the DRB either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

The EPC should affirm the DRB's decision.

Respectfully submitted,

This is to inform you that I am not happy with our last meeting because you have changed your mind and decided not to honor the agreement which I made with you and R. G. Schaffer.

Based on that agreement I have released PNM and I proved the sale of the property to you.

I would like to remind you when I called you two weeks prior to the expiration of the sales agreement to renew as you promised. You said nobody could do anything now anyway. So let us wait when the time comes that we be able to develope the property.

I would like to ask you to reconsider your decision and honor the agreement. Please respond in 10 working days.

Sincerely Yours,

After our meeting in Santa Fe, I contacted Felix Rabadi regarding the 5 acres he wants to buy from you. What he agrees to do is as follows:

1. He will pay you $175,000 for the 5 acres ($35.00 per acre).
2. He will pay his share ($173,916.00) of the infrastructure development costs.
3. He will give you an option to buy all or part of the developed lots at a price which is acceptable to both of you. His intention is to see what another legitimate builder in the area (such as Fuller) and give you the option to match the price. The offer to see it in parts he defines as selling 20% or 25% of the lots each time.
4. He wants assurance that the utilities that you will construct on your property be built up to his property line so he can hook up to them.
5. Felix agrees to move the easement to the middle of his property and he tells me that your son and son-in-law had agreed to pay him $100,000.00.
6. He wants to enter this agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

RE: 5-Acre Paragon Property Purchase & Agreement to Purchase Finished Lots

In response to your memo dated January 6, 2004, Builders Investment Company agrees to the following deal points. This memo does not bind either party for both of the deals described herein; but is to be used as a good faith effort to construct both deals. Once the major deal points have been agreed upon, a final set of contracts will be written. With regard to earnest money on both deals, Builders Investment Company believes that because this whole deal has been done on good faith, and that there should be no earnest money requirement for either deal.

The deal shall be broken down into the following two separate agreements.

I. Rabadi to purchase 5 acres from Builders Investment Company
   A. Purchase Price: $35,000 per acre
   B. Closing: As Soon As Possible (To be clarified by Rabadi)
   C. Both parties agree to trade and record entrance easements off of Paradise. Any difference in land area shall be made up to the other party at $35,000 / acre.
   D. Rabadi to pay his pro-rata share of infrastructure costs through whatever method Ron Bohanan deems necessary. This amount is estimated to be no less than $173,916; but could be more.
   E. Closing on this transaction to take place at Albuquerque Title w/ Diana Stoneburger.
   F. The minimum amount of utilities will be brought to the new property line by Builders Investment Company in order to facilitate the development of the Rabadi subdivision. Builders Investment Company will eventually complete all of the final utilities and infrastructure as needed by our development-phasing plan for the whole tract and will not impede Rabadi's development.
   G. The lay out of this transaction is shown in the plat that is attached to this outline.
   H. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

(Builders Investment Company is wiling to do the deal listed above if Mr. Rabadi is willing to do the deal listed below.)

II. Builders Investment Company to purchase all of Rabadi's finished lots
   A. Purchase Price: To be determined by appraisal for each size lot. Once a contract for these lots has been signed the deal is done even if Rabadi finds a higher price for the lots from someone else.
   B. Takedown Schedule: 5 takedowns on fully completed lots, 30 lots each, every 6 months. Rabadi to carry / finance each take down for purchaser with financing acceptable to Builders Investment Company.
   C. The lot purchase price shall increase by the prevailing floating prime rate, which will be determined at the time of takedown.
   D. Builders Investment Company will buy the lots less fences, walls and sidewalks except those sidewalks that are off-lot that will be required by the city. The timing of when these will be constructed will be at Builders Investments Companies discretion.
   E. Closing on each of these takedowns will take place at First American Title Company.
   F. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

Re: Felix Rabadi

I visited with Mr. Rabadi and he believes the best way is for each to do their own development, although he still wants the 5 acres.

1. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre plus the $173,916.00 development costs and no easement or:

2. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre and Rabadi agrees to the exchange of easements and does not pay the $173,916.00.

Let me know if either of the above are acceptable to you.

Dear Griff:

I met with Felix Rabadi and he asked me to try one more time to see if an agreement can be worked out. The following is what should be a reasonable solution to the problem:

1- Exchange easement even.
2- BIC will sell Rabadi 5 acres at $35,000.00 each.
3- Rabadi will pay his share of infrastructure development costs.
4- Rabadi will build front wall on Paradise Blvd.
5- Rabadi will pay all cost required at front of property.
6- BIC will build the easement road.
7- BIC will bring utilities to Rabadi property line.
8- Rabadi will pay for the sign at entrance with name of subdivision.
9- Enter into an agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

I hope both parties can work it all out. I can be reached at 259-0517.

Very truly yours,

RE: Paragon Property

Dear Manuel:

We appreciate your willingness, at Mr. Rabadi's request, to facilitate a mutually acceptable solution between him and us. We feel we have tried in good faith to work out multiple solutions with Mr. Rabadi over the previous year, but to no resolve.

As stated in our letter to him dated March 24, 2004, we have no choice but to continue forward with the development of our property, and that is what we are planning to do. We cannot, for both of our benefits, continue to negotiate with Mr. Rabadi. Our experience with Mr. Rabadi tells us that even if we reach an agreement in principle, it will not be finalized in the details, hence causing further delays.

Our position is simple, we do not believe Mr. Rabadi has any legal right to the 5 acres in dispute, and thus anything we would agree to would be to primarily benefit him, and in your latest memo dated March 30, 2004, we do not see anything that would be to our advantage. Any agreement would have to be to the benefit of both parties.

We, again, thank you for your time and consideration; however, at this time we believe the matter to be closed. We wish Mr. Rabadi the best for his development. He has a valuable piece of property that will make a wonderful development.

Sincerely,

H. Griffin Pickard, Jr.

Hand Delivered

Dear Mr. Rabadi:

We are in receipt of a copy of what you have represented to be a fully executed copy of an Agreement, dated September 10, 1996, wherein Signature J Homes has agreed to sell to you a portion of Tract 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. You are demanding that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co, the owner of Tract 2, perform what you contend is a binding obligation to sell you approximately 5.1683 acres of land.

Please be advised that we reject your demand. We reject your claim that the September 10, 1996, Agreement was ever properly accepted by you and Mr. Schaefer. The Agreement was tendered to you on September 10, 1996, pursuant to a letter from Signature J Homes of that date. In was tendered as an offer, with the requirement that it be executed and returned to Signature J Homes by September 13, 1996. We have no record of ever receiving a fully executed document. Even had you returned the document by September 13, the Agreement was altered by you, (not dated) and there is no record that Signature J Homes ever agreed to the altered terms. As you know, an altered document becomes a counter-offer that must be fully accepted before a binding contract comes into existence.

A couple of other issues to consider are that the purchase agreement you presented as an "Exhibit A" the Signature J Homes contract, between yourself and Jim Green is not valid. Mr. Green was never in title to the property and therefore could not execute his contract. Second, the statute of limitations has expired for a binding written contract to be enforceable. Finally, Mr. Schaefer does not believe that the contract you produced is valid.

We would like to offer any assistance we can on you procuring this approximate five acres, but it will have to be through another means besides this invalid contract.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Watson

BASIS FOR STANDING

Appeal of DRB decision dated June 16, 2004
Approving Project No. 1002632,
04DRB-00760 and 04DRB-00761

Felix Rabadi has standing to appeal the decision of the Development Review Board ("DRB") dated June 16, 2004, because:

(1) Mr. Rabadi owns property within 300 feet of the subject property, which includes all or a portion of Lots 1 & 2, PARAGON RESOURCES, (to be known as SUNDANCE ESTATES), zoned R-D residential and related uses zone, developing area FOR R-LT, located on PARADISE BLVD. NW, between LYONS BLVD. NW and BLANDA COURT NW, containing approximately 122 acres. [REF: 03EPC-00690, 03DRB-01306];

(2) Mr. Rabadi is an equitable owner to a portion of the subject property on account of an agreement to purchase a portion of the subject property; and

(3) Mr. Rabadi is imminently threatened with injury as a result of the DRB's June 16, 2004 decision.

See Albuquerque, N.M., Code of Ordinances ("Zone Code") § 14-16-4-4 (B)(2)(c) and De Vargas Savings & Loan Ass'n v. Campbell, 87 N.M. 469, 472-73, 535 P.2d 1320, 1323-24 (1975) (ruling that appellants must be injured in fact or imminently threatened with injury, economically or otherwise).

REASONS FOR THE APPEAL

Appeal of DRB decision dated June 16, 2004
Project No. 1002632,
04DRB-00760 (Major-Bulk Land Variance)
04DRB-00761 (Minor-Prelim & Final Plat Approval)

Introduction

Felix Rabadi, the owner of the 17-acre tract of property immediately north of the subject property and as an equitable owner in a portion of the subject property, hereby appeals the June 16, 2004 decision by the Development Review Board ("DRB") approving the Applicant's request for a Bulk Land Variance subject to certain findings and conditions and also approving the Applicant's request for preliminary and final plat with final plat being delegated to Planning for AGIS dxf file, the 15-day appeal period, and to the City Engineer for AMAFCA signature based on the finding that the Applicant "is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of SUNDANCE ESTATES, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico."

Both application No. 04DRB-00760 and application No. 04DRB-00761 pertain to a 122 acre tract of land located on Paradise Blvd. NW, between Lyons Blvd. NW and Blanda Court NW. The subject property is described as Lots 1 & 2, Paragon Resources, (to be known as Sundance Estates), zoned R-D residential and related uses zone, developing area for R-LT (hereinafter "Subject Property"). The Subject Property lies within the Unser Boulevard design overlay zone and the Northwest Mesa Escarpment plan view area.

The DRB's decision, as described above, is fully described in the Official Notice of Decision, a copy of which is attached to these materials.

B.
Reasons for the Appeal

1. The DRB erred by granting the Applicant's requests even though Mr. Rabadi is an equitable owner in a portion of the Subject Property.

The Subdivision Regulations of the City of Albuquerque's Zone Code mandate that before the DRB may grant its approval of a preliminary plat, the Applicant must submit a plat that, inter alia, lists "all legal or equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest." Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g). Those same Subdivision Regulations, in Section 14-14-3-5(C)(2)(e), mandate that before the DRB may grant its approval of a final plat, the Applicant must submit a final plat that includes:

> "consent, warranty of title, and dedication statements signed by the owner or an agent of the owner (as demonstrated by an authorizing document signed by the owner and recorded) that: (1) The subdivision is with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the owner of the land; (2) Those signing as owner(s) warrant that they hold among them complete and indefeasible title to the land subdivided . . . ."

In direct violation of the foregoing provisions, the Applicant has not listed "all legal or equitable owners of the real property in question", nor will it be able to warrant that the proposed subdivision is "with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the owner of the land", nor will it be able to warrant that it holds "complete and indefeasible title to the land subdivided". This is true because, as Mr. Rabadi argued at the hearing before the DRB, he has an equitable interest in the Subject Property; to wit:

Mr. Rabadi notified the DRB that he had the right to purchase approximately 5 acres of the Subject Property. In support therefore, Mr. Rabadi, through counsel, furnished to the DRB a copy of the agreement giving rise to his right to purchase the Subject Property along with oral testimony indicating that the parties, that is Mr. Rabadi and the Applicant, had agreed that Mr. Rabadi would retain that right beyond the limitations/conditional period provided in the agreement.[1]

Mr. Rabadi informed the DRB that because of the parties' agreement he had an equitable right in and to the Subject Property and that the DRB therefore could not grant the Applicant's requests. See Unofficial Transcript of Hearing at 7 (a copy will be provided). Critically, counsel for the City, Mr. Kevin Curran, agreed that if Mr. Rabadi had an equitable interest in the Subject Property, then he had to be a signatory or at least a disclosed party on the plat, stating:

> The fact that Mr. Rabadi isn't a legal owner or a title owner of tract 1 doesn't do the board a whole lot of good. This subdivision ordinance requires all legal and equitable owners to be, to be signatories, or at least disclosed on the plat, so if Mr. Rabadi is a contract holder to the property, he would, in my opinion, he would qualify as an equitable owner.

[1] Please note that in order to further corroborate his points, Mr. Rabadi, through counsel, asked both Mr. Horace Pickard (Applicant) and Mr. R.J. Shafer whether they would produce a clean copy of the parties' agreement. Interestingly, both Mr. Pickard and Mr. Shafer did not deny having a clean copy of the agreement, but only stated that they did not know if they had a copy. Mr. Rabadi hereby requests that Mr. Pickard and Mr. Shafer produce a clean copy of the subject agreement.

Id. at 25.

In spite Mr. Curran's remarks, the DRB went ahead and approved the Applicant's requests anyway without making any determination of whether Mr. Rabadi is or is not a contract holder and, therefore, an equitable owner of the Subject Property. To the contrary, the DRB made only one finding in support of its decision on the platting issue, stating:

> The Title Commitment issued by Land American Albuquerque Title Company dated June 8, 2004 in support of the applicants platting actions shows that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co., is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of SUNDANCE ESTATES, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico.

See Official Notice of Decision. The critical flaw with the DRB's finding is that it does not address, much less resolve, the point that Mr. Rabadi made and that Mr. Curran so eloquently stated—"The fact that Mr. Rabadi isn't a legal owner or a title owner of tract 1 doesn't do the board a whole lot of good." Transcript at p. 25.

The DRB had to, but did not, address whether Mr. Rabadi is a contract holder and, therefore, an equitable owner of the Subject Property. By failing to address the issue, the DRB acted arbitrarily and capriciously because the Subdivision Regulations of the City of Albuquerque's Zone Code mandate that the Applicant make assurances that, in this case, cannot be made. The matter, having been brought to the attention of the DRB, had to be addressed. Because it wasn't, Mr. Rabadi asks this Environmental Planning Commission to remand this matter to the DRB to make a determination on that issue.

The foregoing points are further complicated by the facts that the Applicant seeks to create a residential subdivision while Mr. Rabadi's property is subject to commercial development. In light of that fact, it is very likely that a landscape buffer will have to be erected between Mr. Rabadi's property and the Applicant's property. In the event that Mr. Rabadi is successful in obtaining a portion of the Subject Property this will require that whatever landscape buffer is erected will have to be torn down. It is a waste of precious resources to do that and it provides yet another reason why this body should reverse the DRB's decision and not permit the Applicant to go forward with his requests until the ownership issue is finally resolved.

2. The DRB erred by granting the Applicant's requests even though the Applicant will not obtain necessary AMAFCA approval without Mr. Rabadi's consent.

The DRB's decision provides that the Applicant's requests for plat approval were contingent upon, inter alia, the City Engineer obtaining AMAFCA signature. See Official Notice of Decision at 1. The DRB entered that contingency at the request of Mr. Brad Bingham, Hydrology, who stated "So, if you could state that on the plat, I also have no objection to a bulk land variance and I would request that AMAFCA sign the plat before I do, though." See Transcript at 27.

Critically, the Applicant will not obtain the prerequisite AMAFCA signature without Mr. Rabadi's approval. That point has been communicated both to the Applicant and his agents and to Mr. Rabadi and his agents by Mr. John Kelly, who is the Executive Engineer with AMAFCA. In particular, Mr. Kelly has stated that he will require both the Applicant and Mr. Rabadi to agree to the plans before he will sign off. Until the ownership issue raised in Point 1 is addressed, however, Mr. Rabadi is unwilling to agree to the AMAFCA plan as he needs to know what property is rightfully his and the impacts of the proposed plans on that property.

Thus, the Applicant cannot satisfy a condition precedent unless Mr. Rabadi consents and Mr. Rabadi will not consent until the ownership issue is resolved. Accordingly, Mr. Rabadi asks this Environmental Planning Commission to remand the matter to the DRB pending an agreement from Mr. Rabadi and the Applicant regarding the AMAFCA considerations.

Further, according to the applicable Subdivision Regulations referred to above, the Applicant cannot receive plat approval until the City Engineer signs off on a drainage plan or unless it is reviewed "concurrently with the consideration of the application for preliminary plat approval." Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1). In this case, the Applicant has not and will be unable to meet that condition because of the reasons provided in the foregoing paragraphs. Accordingly, Mr. Rabadi asks this Environmental Planning Commission to remand the matter to the DRB pending an agreement from Mr. Rabadi and the Applicant regarding the AMAFCA considerations.

C.

Conclusion

For these reasons, Mr. Rabadi respectfully asks the Environmental Planning Commission to reverse the decision of the DRB.

Project # 1002632 - Bulk Land Variance Revisions

DATE: June 14, 2004

As discussed at the DRB hearing last Wednesday, the bulk land plat has been revised to show the correct 156-ft Unser right-of-way and also to show the 68' easement along the west edge of the proposed Tract 3 ending at the south boundary of the proposed Tract 1. Lilenthal does connect to the proposed Unser Right of Way along the proposed 50-ft public access easement as noted. The plat does show all easements of record to remain and does not show any easements to be vacated with this plat. Access to properties south of the subject site is maintained.

All tracts do comply with the 5-acres minimum size requirement for a bulk land variance. Documentation of the current zoning was forwarded to Sharon Matson's office last week. The current zoning is RD for R-LT.

Information as to the ownership of the proposed Tract 1 will be forwarded under separate cover prior to the scheduled DRB hearing.

RE: Bulk Land Plat Approval
Tracts 1 & 2, Paragon Resources
Zone Atlas Page B-10 and B-11
DRB Project #1002632

Dear Ms. Matson:

Tierra West LLC, on behalf of Builders Investment Company of New Mexico, requests approval of the Bulk Land Plat for the above-referenced tracts. The site is located along Paradise Boulevard NW between Lyons Boulevard NW and Blanda Court NW. The property is zoned RD for R-LT and consists of 122 ± acres. We are not requesting infrastructure or wall design approval at this time. The area is divided into 8 tracts of land, which will be developed in phases. The infrastructure and wall design will be submitted as the phases are to be developed and preliminary plat is established. We submitted a Master Grading and Drainage Report to Hydrology for review and approval. All water and sewer infrastructure lies within the NMUI jurisdiction. We have attached the Form DRWS with the NMUI's availability statement for your records.

If you have any questions or need additional information regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,

The City and AMAFCA (with reference to drainage) may require and/or permit easements to be added, modified, or removed when future plats and/or Site Development Plans are approved.

SIGN POSTING REQUIREMENTS

POSTING SIGNS ANNOUNCING PUBLIC HEARINGS

All persons making application to the City under the requirements and procedures established by the City Zoning Code or subdivision Ordinance are responsible for the posting and maintaining of one or more signs on the property, which the application describes. Vacations of public rights-of-way (if the way has been in use) also require signs. Waterproofed signs will be provided at the time of application. If the application is mailed, you must still stop at the Planning Division to pick up the sign.

The applicant is responsible for ensuring that the signs remain posted throughout the 15-day period prior to public hearing. Failure to maintain the signs during this entire period may be cause for deferral or denial of the application. Replacement signs for those lost or damaged are available from the Planning Division at a charge of $3.00 each.

1. LOCATION

   A. The sign shall be conspicuously located. It shall be located within twenty feet of the public sidewalk (or edge of public street). Staff may indicate a specific location.
   B. The face of the sign shall be parallel to the street, and the bottom of the sign shall be two to seven feet from the ground.
   C. No barrier shall prevent a person from coming within five feet of the sign in order to read it.

2. NUMBER
   A. One sign shall be posted on each paved street frontage. Signs maybe required on unpaved street frontages.
   B. If the land does not abut a public street, then in addition to a sign placed on the property a sign shall be placed on and at the edge of the public right-of-way of the nearest paved City street. Such a sign must direct readers toward the subject property by an arrow and an indication of distance.

3. PHYSICAL POSTING

   A. A heavy stake with two crossbars or full plywood backing works best to keep the sign in place, especially during high winds.
   B. Large headed nails or staples are best for attaching signs to a post or backing; the sign tears out less easily.

4. TIME

   Signs must be posted from May 25th To June 9th 04.

5. REMOVAL

   A. The sign is not to be removed before the initial hearing on the request.
   B. The sign should be removed within five (5) days after the initial hearing.

I have read this sheet and discussed it with the Planning Division staff. I understand (A) my obligation to keep the sign(s) posted for fifteen (15) days and (B) where the sign(s) are to be located. I am being given a copy of this sheet.

Parks and Recreation Comments:

This request will be subject to the City Park Dedication and Development Ordinance:

Prior to sign-off on the final plat, a park dedication of an approximate 2 acres will need to be made.

The park development requirement will be met via the payment of a fee prior to issuance of building permit for each new dwelling unit or the developer could enter into a park development agreement and build the park or a portion of the park instead of paying the fee.

The R-D zone requires 2,400 square feet of open space for each dwelling unit. With submittal of the Preliminary Plat/Site Development Plan, provide an Open Space Calculation Table showing the lot number, lot size, building & driveway area, provided open space, remaining open space requirement (this table can be separate from the plat itself). Provide a dimensioned Typical Lot Plan, which shows a typical lot with the building footprint and driveway (this should be on the Site Development Plan rather than the plat). Include one of the following notes on the Preliminary and Final Plats indicating how the total remaining open space requirement will be met:

All open space requirements are met on the lot with the dwelling per the provisions of Section 14-16-3-8 (A) (1).

Total remaining open space requirements are met via a cash payment to the City of Albuquerque per the provisions of Section 14-16-3-8 (A) (2).

Total remaining open space requirements are met via the provision of detached open space per the provisions of Section 14-16-3-8 (A) (3). *Note: This option is only applicable to land covered by a Sector Development Plan.

RE: Sketch Plat Review and Comments
Tracts 1 & 2, Paragon Resources Inc.
Zone Atlas Pages: B10 & B11

Dear Ms. Matson:

Tierra West LLC, on behalf of Builders Investment Company of NM, requests review and comments for the sketch plat on the above referenced property. The property is located along Paradise Boulevard NW, between Universe Boulevard NW and Lyon Boulevard NW. The property will consist of single-family residences and town homes. Development is proposed in approximately three phases, beginning with the property east of Unser Boulevard, and consisting of approximately 600 homes. Access will be from Unser Boulevard. A second minor arterial is shown north of the adjoining property owner.

NMUI will provide water and sewer and we are in the process of negotiating these services to the site. A drainage management plan was submitted to both AMAFCA and the City for their review. A scoping meeting was scheduled with a traffic study being prepared by Terry O. Brown. EPC approved the zone change to R-D for R-LT. The Petroglyph National Park, identified by Matt Schmader, will be left undeveloped and the drainage flow will be diverted away from the area.

If you have any questions or need additional information regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,

Ronald R. Bohannan, P.E.

The bulk land plat will need amendment. However, that can't occur until the appeal is settled one way or the other.

Subject: Sundance Estates Bulk Land Plat - Revision

Sheran,

Ron Bohannan previously discussed with you if the bulk land plat could be revised to break out the exact 5 acres owned by Builders Investment that Felix claim's to have some legal interest in. Since that conversation the planned Unser alignment has shifted from the easement shown on the approved plat. This occurred after discussions with Wilfred and after negotiations with the adjacent landowner who just this week received approval on his bulk land plat, which shows the modified alignment. Given the fact that the plat has been held up by the protest and that the appeal process has been extended by the recent 30-day deferral, what would be the best way to handle the change to the roadway easement on the plat? Can the alignment be adjusted under this action or will it have to be modified at the preliminary plat stage when Tract I is brought in for further subdivision?

Dear Board Members:

Mr. Rabadi respectfully requests that the Environmental Planning Commission postpone the hearing now scheduled in this matter on August 19, 2004 until its September 2004 setting. This request is made for two reasons. First is the fact that the parties are diligently attempting to settle the matters at issue in Mr. Rabadi's appeal, but it now appears to Mr. Rabadi that they may be unable to finalize the details of any agreement until after August 19. And second is the fact that Mr. Rabadi's counsel, Larry J. Montaño, is scheduled to be at an out-of-state deposition in an unrelated matter on August 19. Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

SUNDANCE ESTATES APPEAL

TRACT 1, A 5 ACRE PARCEL, IS THE SUBJECT OF A PROPERTY OWNERSHIP DISPUTE BETWEEN APPELLANT AND APPLICANT.

APPELLANT CLAIMS HE IS AN EQUITABLE OWNER OF TRACT I THROUGH A CONTRACTUAL AGREEMENT WITH THE APPLICANT AND, AS SUCH, SHOULD HAVE SIGNED THE BULK LAND PLAT. APPLICANT DISAGREES.

THIS IS THE BASIS FOR DRB'S DECISION TO APPROVE THE BULK LAND PLAT & VARIANCE DESPITE THE APPELLANT'S OBJECTIONS:

- "The Title Commitment issued by LandAmerica Albuquerque Title Company dated June 8, 2004 in support of the Applicant's platting actions shows that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co., is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of Sundance Estates, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico." ~~SEE EXHIBIT E. This statement appears on the last page of the June 16, 2004, DRB Meeting minutes as the DRB's finding to support its approval of the requested platting actions~~.

- Counsel for the Appellant did not appear to dispute the DRB finding that Appellant is not a property owner through title. He asserted that Appellant would qualify as an equitable owner because of the September 6, 1996 contractual agreement Appellant entered into with the Applicant. The written agreement had an 18 month sunset clause. The only copy provided to the DRB had the language referring to an 18 month clause interlined. Appellant admitted that he had interlined this language. However, no initials or other indication appeared by the two interlined clauses indicating approval of all parties to the agreement.

  In addition, Mr. H. Grifin Pickard, Jr. and Mr. R.J. Schaefer testified they had not agreed to the alteration of the written Agreement made by the appellant. Therefore, the DRB determined that all parties signing the contract had not agreed to take this term limit out of the language. Accordingly, the DRB determined the contract term had expired terminating whatever equitable interest Appellant may have had in the subject property.

- Appellant claimed that a verbal extension of that contract occurred. The Applicant expressly denied that claim as did Mr. R.J. Schaeffer, also one of the signatories of the contract.

- The bulk plat approved on June 16, 2004 has delineated the disputed parcel of land as Tract 1.

2. The DRB erred by granting the Applicant's requests even though the Applicant will not obtain necessary AMAFCA approval without Mr. Rabadi's consent.

Rodey Law Firm, John P. Salazar and Larry J. Montano, agent(s) for Felix Rabadi, appeals the Development Review Board's approval of the above action(s) for all or a portion of Lot(s) 1 & 2, PARAGON RESOURCES, (to be known as SUNDANCE ESTATES) zoned R-D residential and related uses zone, developing area FOR R-LT, located on PARADISE BLVD. NW, between LYONS BLVD. NW and BLANDA COURT NW containing approximately 122 acre(s). [REF: 03EPC-00690, 03DRB-01306] [Deferred from 6/9/04] (B-11)

DEVELOPMENT REVIEW BOARD'S COMMENTS TO THE ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING COMMISSION AUGUST 19, 2004:

Request Summary:

This is an appeal of the June 16, 2004, Development Review Board (DRB) approval of the bulk land variance and preliminary and final plat . The appellant, Felix Rabadi, is an adjacent property owner and is represented in this matter by Larry J. Montano and John P. Salazar of the Rodey Law Firm.

Background/Analysis:

Builders Investment Company of New Mexico, represented by Tierra West, LLC, sought and obtained DRB approval for a bulk land variance and bulk plat. The subdivision name is Sundance Estates. The property is zoned RD for RLT, consists of 122± acres and is located along Paradise Boulevard NW between Lyons Boulevard, NW and Blanda Court, NW.

The plat divides the property into eight tracts for development in phases through major subdivision platting action. SEE EXHIBIT A. One of the eight tracts, Tract 1, an approximately six acre linear parcel, is the subject of a property ownership dispute between the Appellant and Applicant..

Appellant, through his attorney, claims he is an "equitable owner" of Tract 1 through a contractual agreement with the Applicant for the bulk land platting action. He did not sign the plat presented to DRB for approval. Appellant claims, as an equitable owner, he should have signed the plat.

Response to Appeal:

Appellant lists two reasons for his appeal. The DRB's response is listed after each reason.

1. The DRB erred by granting the Applicant's requests even though Mr. Rabadi is an equitable owner in a portion of the Subject Property.

The Appellant cites two sections of the Subdivision Ordinance in making this claim, Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g): "1.Preliminary Plat. The plat shall be prepared in accordance with the Development Process Manual and shall include: (g) a list of all legal or equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest, (SEE EXHIBIT B.) and Section 14-14-3-5(C)(2)(e): "(2) Final Plat. The final plat shall be prepared in accordance with city requirements as specified in the Development Process Manual and shall include the following: (e)"consent, warranty of title, and dedication statements signed by the owner or agent of the owner(as demonstrated by an authorizing document signed by the owner and recorded) that: (1) The subdivision is with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the owner of the land: (2) Those signing as owner(s) warrant that they hold among them complete and indefeasible title to the land subdivided...". SEE EXHIBIT C.

The substance of Appellant's claim that he has an equitable right in and to the Subject Property (Tract 1) is that he had a written contractual agreement with the Applicant to purchase the property in dispute. SEE EXHIBIT D. He further claims that this contractual agreement was extended through a verbal agreement between himself and the Applicant.

In New Mexico, decisions that determine how a particular piece of property can be used are quasi-judicial. Quasi-judicial is a term that is applied to the action of a public administrative body which is required to investigate facts, or ascertain the existence of facts, hold hearings, and draw conclusions from them, as a basis for their official action. Dugger v. City of Santa Fe 114 NM 47, 834 P2d. 424 (Ct. App.1992). The Development Review Board (DRB), acting as a public administrative body, acts in a quasi-judicial capacity to ascertain facts on which it bases its decision to approve or disapprove subdivision plats under the City's Subdivision Regulations (Section 14-14-1-1 et Seq. R.O. Albuquerque 1994.) As a quasi-judicial body, the DRB is the finder of fact. As the finder of fact, if the DRB's decision is supported by substantial evidence it must be upheld. Muller v. City of Albuquerque 92 NM 264, 587 P2d 42 (1978). Furthermore, formal findings are not required. City of Roswell v. New Mexico Water Quality Con. Com'n. 84 NM 561, 505 P2d 1237 (Ct. App. 1972). However, the record must indicate the reasoning and the basis for the decision.

The record and the testimony indicates the basis for the DRB's decision in concluding that appellant was not an equitable owner of the property and in approving the bulk land variance and bulk land plat is supported by the following substantial evidence:

- "The Title Commitment issued by LandAmerica Albuquerque Title Company dated June 8, 2004 in support of the Applicant's platting actions shows that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co., is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of Sundance Estates, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico." SEE EXHIBIT E. This statement appears on the last page of the June 16, 2004, DRB Meeting minutes as the DRB's finding to support its approval of the requested platting actions.

- Counsel for the Appellant did not appear to dispute the DRB finding that Appellant is not a property owner through title. He asserted that Appellant would qualify as an equitable owner because of the September 6, 1996 contractual agreement Appellant entered into with the Applicant. The written agreement had an 18 month sunset clause. The only copy provided to the DRB had the language referring to an 18 month clause interlined. Appellant admitted that he had interlined this language. However, no initials or other indication appeared by the two interlined clauses indicating approval of all parties to the agreement.

In addition, Mr. H. Grifin Pickard, Jr. and Mr. R.J. Schaefer testified they had not agreed to the alteration of the written Agreement made by the appellant. Therefore, the DRB determined that all parties signing the contract had not agreed to take this term limit out of the language. Accordingly, the DRB determined the contract term had expired terminating whatever equitable interest Appellant may have had in the subject property.

- Appellant claimed that a verbal extension of that contract occurred. The Applicant expressly denied that claim as did Mr. R.J. Schaeffer, also one of the signatories of the contract.
    - The bulk plat approved on June 16, 2004 has delineated the disputed parcel of land as Tract 1.

2. The DRB erred by granting the Applicant's requests even though the Applicant will not obtain necessary AMAFCA approval without Mr. Rabadi's consent.

In approving the bulk plat, the DRB delegated the plat to the City Engineer's representative on the DRB. The representative will not sign the final plat until AMAFCA signs. This means the plat cannot be recorded with the County Clerk until these two signatures are on the plat.

Appellant states in his appeal that "the Applicant will not obtain the prerequisite AMAFCA signature without Mr. Rabadi's approval" because John Kelly, AMAFCA Executive Engineer has stated Applicant and Appellant must agree to drainage plans before he will sign the plat. This situation is actually to the Appellant's advantage.

DRB sees no need to remand the matter back to DRB until Appellant and Applicant agree on the drainage plans because the plat cannot be recorded until this occurs. The plat is still under the control of DRB until the signatures are on the plat and it is recorded.

DRB did not require a drainage plan with this bulk plat because there is already an existing drainage easement sufficient in size to satisfy the drainage needs of this plat and affected surrounding property as it exists today. So Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1) of the Subdivision Ordinance as mentioned by Appellant is satisfied.

Findings:

1. The DRB acted according to Sections 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g) and 14-14-3-5-(C)(2)(e) of the Subdivision Ordinance in concluding that Appellant was not an equitable owner of the property and in approving the bulk land variance and the bulk land plat because: (1) the title commitment provided at the hearing showed the only owner of the property at issue was Builders investment Company of New Mexico. (2) The September 10, 1996 contractual agreement between Appellant and Applicant presented at the hearing had expired according to the terms of that agreement as written. (3) The claim that the Appellant had a verbal agreement with the Applicant to extend the written agreement beyond the eighteen month period was refuted by the testimony of two witnesses and, therefore, was not considered credible evidence.

2. The DRB acted according to Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1) of the Subdivision Ordinance in approving the bulk land variance and bulk land plat. No drainage plan was required prior to approval of this bulk land plat as there is already an existing drainage easement on the property to satisfy drainage requirements of the bulk land plat property as it currently exists.

At the June 16, 2004, Development Review Board meeting, the Bulk Land Variance was approved subject to the Findings and Conditions of the Subdivision Ordinance as follows:

BULK LAND VARIANCE:

1. The variance will not be injurious to the public safety, health or welfare, or to adjacent property, the neighborhood or the community.

2. The variance will not conflict significantly with the goals and provisions of any City, County or AMAFCA adopted plan or policy; the applicable zoning ordinance, or any other City code or ordinance.

The preliminary and final plat were approved with final plat delegated to Planning for AGIS dxf file and the 15-day appeal period and to City Engineer for AMAFCA signature and with the following finding:

The Title Commitment issued by Land American Albuquerque Title Company dated June 8, 2004 in support of the applicants platting actions shows that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. BASIS FOR STANDING

Appeal of DRB decision dated June 16, 2004
Approving Project No. 1002632,
04DRB-00760 and 04DRB-00761

Felix Rabadi has standing to appeal the decision of the Development Review Board ("DRB") dated June 16, 2004, because:

(1) Mr. Rabadi owns property within 300 feet of the subject property, which includes all or a portion of Lots 1 & 2, PARAGON RESOURCES, (to be known as SUNDANCE ESTATES), zoned R-D residential and related uses zone, developing area FOR R-LT, located on PARADISE BLVD. NW, between LYONS BLVD. NW and BLANDA COURT NW, containing approximately 122 acres. [REF: 03EPC-00690, 03DRB-01306];

(2) Mr. Rabadi is an equitable owner to a portion of the subject property on account of an agreement to purchase a portion of the subject property; and

(3) Mr. Rabadi is imminently threatened with injury as a result of the DRB's June 16, 2004 decision.

See Albuquerque, N.M., Code of Ordinances ("Zone Code") § 14-16-4-4 (B)(2)(c) and De Vargas Savings & Loan Ass'n v. Campbell, 87 N.M. 469, 472-73, 535 P.2d 1320, 1323-24 (1975) (ruling that appellants must be injured in fact or imminently threatened with injury, economically or otherwise).

REASONS FOR THE APPEAL

Appeal of DRB decision dated June 16, 2004
Project No. 1002632,
04DRB-00760 (Major-Bulk Land Variance)
04DRB-00761 (Minor-Prelim & Final Plat Approval)

A.
Introduction

Felix Rabadi, the owner of the 17-acre tract of property immediately north of the subject property and as an equitable owner in a portion of the subject property, hereby appeals the June 16, 2004 decision by the Development Review Board ("DRB") approving the Applicant's request for a Bulk Land Variance subject to certain findings and conditions and also approving the Applicant's request for preliminary and final plat with final plat being delegated to Planning for AGIS dxf file, the 15-day appeal period, and to the City Engineer for AMAFCA signature based on the finding that the Applicant "is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of SUNDANCE ESTATES, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico."

Both application No. 04DRB-00760 and application No. 04DRB-00761 pertain to a 122 acre tract of land located on Paradise Blvd. NW, between Lyons Blvd. NW and Blanda Court NW. The subject property is described as Lots 1 & 2, Paragon Resources, (to be known as Sundance Estates), zoned R-D residential and related uses zone, developing area for R-LT (hereinafter "Subject Property"). The Subject Property lies within the Unser Boulevard design overlay zone and the Northwest Mesa Escarpment plan view area.

The DRB's decision, as described above, is fully described in the Official Notice of Decision, a copy of which is attached to these materials.

B.
Reasons for the Appeal

1. The DRB erred by granting the Applicant's requests even though Mr. Rabadi is an equitable owner in a portion of the Subject Property.

The Subdivision Regulations of the City of Albuquerque's Zone Code mandate that before the DRB may grant its approval of a preliminary plat, the Applicant must submit a plat that, inter alia, lists "all legal or equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest." Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g). Those same Subdivision Regulations, in Section 14-14-3-5(C)(2)(e), mandate that before the DRB may grant its approval of a final plat, the Applicant must submit a final plat that includes:

> "consent, warranty of title, and dedication statements signed by the owner or an agent of the owner (as demonstrated by an authorizing document signed by the owner and recorded) that: (1) The subdivision is with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the owner of the land; (2) Those signing as owner(s) warrant that they hold among them complete and indefeasible title to the land subdivided . . . ."

In direct violation of the foregoing provisions, the Applicant has not listed "all legal or equitable owners of the real property in question", nor will it be able to warrant that the proposed subdivision is "with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the owner of the land", nor will it be able to warrant that it holds "complete and indefeasible title to the land subdivided". This is true because, as Mr. Rabadi argued at the hearing before the DRB, he has an equitable interest in the Subject Property; to wit:

Mr. Rabadi notified the DRB that he had the right to purchase approximately 5 acres of the Subject Property. In support therefore, Mr. Rabadi, through counsel, furnished to the DRB a copy of the agreement giving rise to his right to purchase the Subject Property along with oral testimony indicating that the parties, that is Mr. Rabadi and the Applicant, had agreed that Mr. Rabadi would retain that right beyond the limitations/conditional period provided in the agreement.[1]

Mr. Rabadi informed the DRB that because of the parties' agreement he had an equitable right in and to the Subject Property and that the DRB therefore could not grant the Applicant's requests. See Unofficial Transcript of Hearing at 7 (a copy will be provided). Critically, counsel for the City, Mr. Kevin Curran, agreed that if Mr. Rabadi had an equitable interest in the Subject Property, then he had to be a signatory or at least a disclosed party on the plat, stating:

> The fact that Mr. Rabadi isn't a legal owner or a title owner of tract 1 doesn't do the board a whole lot of good. This subdivision ordinance requires all legal and equitable owners to be, to be signatories, or at least disclosed on the plat, so if Mr. Rabadi is a contract holder to the property, he would, in my opinion, he would qualify as an equitable owner.

[1] Please note that in order to further corroborate his points, Mr. Rabadi, through counsel, asked both Mr. Horace Pickard (Applicant) and Mr. R.J. Shafer whether they would produce a clean copy of the parties' agreement. Interestingly, both Mr. Pickard and Mr. Shafer did not deny having a clean copy of the agreement, but only stated that they did not know if they had a copy. Mr. Rabadi hereby requests that Mr. Pickard and Mr. Shafer produce a clean copy of the subject agreement.

Id. at 25.

In spite Mr. Curran's remarks, the DRB went ahead and approved the Applicant's requests anyway without making any determination of whether Mr. Rabadi is or is not a contract holder and, therefore, an equitable owner of the Subject Property. To the contrary, the DRB made only one finding in support of its decision on the platting issue, stating:

> The Title Commitment issued by Land American Albuquerque Title Company dated June 8, 2004 in support of the applicants platting actions shows that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co., is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of SUNDANCE ESTATES, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico.

See Official Notice of Decision. The critical flaw with the DRB's finding is that it does not address, much less resolve, the point that Mr. Rabadi made and that Mr. Curran so eloquently stated—"The fact that Mr. Rabadi isn't a legal owner or a title owner of tract 1 doesn't do the board a whole lot of good." Transcript at p. 25.

The DRB had to, but did not, address whether Mr. Rabadi is a contract holder and, therefore, an equitable owner of the Subject Property. By failing to address the issue, the DRB acted arbitrarily and capriciously because the Subdivision Regulations of the City of Albuquerque's Zone Code mandate that the Applicant make assurances that, in this case, cannot be made. The matter, having been brought to the attention of the DRB, had to be addressed. Because it wasn't, Mr. Rabadi asks this Environmental Planning Commission to remand this matter to the DRB to make a determination on that issue.

The foregoing points are further complicated by the facts that the Applicant seeks to create a residential subdivision while Mr. Rabadi's property is subject to commercial development. In light of that fact, it is very likely that a landscape buffer will have to be erected between Mr. Rabadi's property and the Applicant's property. In the event that Mr. Rabadi is successful in obtaining a portion of the Subject Property this will require that whatever landscape buffer is erected will have to be torn down. It is a waste of precious resources to do that and it provides yet another reason why this body should reverse the DRB's decision and not permit the Applicant to go forward with his requests until the ownership issue is finally resolved.

2. The DRB erred by granting the Applicant's requests even though the Applicant will not obtain necessary AMAFCA approval without Mr. Rabadi's consent.

The DRB's decision provides that the Applicant's requests for plat approval were contingent upon, inter alia, the City Engineer obtaining AMAFCA signature. See Official Notice of Decision at 1. The DRB entered that contingency at the request of Mr. Brad Bingham, Hydrology, who stated "So, if you could state that on the plat, I also have no objection to a bulk land variance and I would request that AMAFCA sign the plat before I do, though." See Transcript at 27.

Critically, the Applicant will not obtain the prerequisite AMAFCA signature without Mr. Rabadi's approval. That point has been communicated both to the Applicant and his agents and to Mr. Rabadi and his agents by Mr. John Kelly, who is the Executive Engineer with AMAFCA. In particular, Mr. Kelly has stated that he will require both the Applicant and Mr. Rabadi to agree to the plans before he will sign off. Until the ownership issue raised in Point 1 is addressed, however, Mr. Rabadi is unwilling to agree to the AMAFCA plan as he needs to know what property is rightfully his and the impacts of the proposed plans on that property.

Thus, the Applicant cannot satisfy a condition precedent unless Mr. Rabadi consents and Mr. Rabadi will not consent until the ownership issue is resolved. Accordingly, Mr. Rabadi asks this Environmental Planning Commission to remand the matter to the DRB pending an agreement from Mr. Rabadi and the Applicant regarding the AMAFCA considerations.

Further, according to the applicable Subdivision Regulations referred to above, the Applicant cannot receive plat approval until the City Engineer signs off on a drainage plan or unless it is reviewed "concurrently with the consideration of the application for preliminary plat approval." Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1). In this case, the Applicant has not and will be unable to meet that condition because of the reasons provided in the foregoing paragraphs. Accordingly, Mr. Rabadi asks this Environmental Planning Commission to remand the matter to the DRB pending an agreement from Mr. Rabadi and the Applicant regarding the AMAFCA considerations.

C.
Conclusion

For these reasons, Mr. Rabadi respectfully asks the Environmental Planning Commission to reverse the decision of the DRB.

plat submittal and advise the subdivider as to suggested changes. The Development Review Board will advise the subdivider as to any special analyses or other materials which must be submitted with a preliminary plat.

(3) The Development Review Board may permit the subdivider to prepare a combined preliminary and final plat where no significant construction of infrastructure is required in connection with the proposed subdivision. Public notice must still be given as specified in § 14-14-3-4(B)(3) of this article.

(C) Required Submittals. A sketch plat and supporting data shall be prepared in accordance with city requirements as specified in the Development Process Manual and shall include the following.

(1) Proposed subdivision name.

(2) Location map. A location map shall show the relationship of the proposed plat to existing community facilities which serve it.

(3) Sketch. A sketch, on a current topographic survey, shall show in simple form the proposed plat boundary, the proposed layout of streets, lots, and other features in relation to existing conditions.

(4) Written Information. General sketch plat information shall list the name and address of the subdivider and his agent, if any, the total area of the proposed plat, the area of each proposed use, and a description of the existing conditions of the site and the proposed development as necessary to supplement the sketch plat.
('74 Code, § 7-16-4C)

§ 14-14-3-4 PRELIMINARY PLAT.

(A) Purpose and Intent. The preliminary plat details the development concept worked out as a result of the sketch plat review. Approval of the preliminary plat is a commitment on the part of the city that a final plat conforming to the approved preliminary plat and any conditions will be approved and on the part of the subdivider that the approved preliminary plat and any conditions will be adhered to as agreed. The preliminary plat stage is the substantive decision point in the subdivision approval process. Any changes from the approved preliminary plat shall be submitted as for preliminary plat review and approval.

(B) Procedure.

(1) Application. The application to the Development Review Board shall be accompanied by the number of copies of a preliminary plat together with plans and other supplementary material as specified in Part 3 of this article and in the Development Process Manual.

(2) Review. The Development Review Board shall review the preliminary plat and supplemental material submitted. The Development Review Board may request comments from city departments, other governmental agencies and franchised utilities as may be appropriate.

(3) Hearing and Notice.

(a) Public Hearing. Decision upon a completed and filed application for preliminary plat approval shall be rendered after a public hearing thereon, which public hearing shall be held not later than 30 days after the city has received subdivider's completed application materials.

(b) Public Notice.

1. Publication and Mailed Notice. Public notice of the hearing shall be placed in a newspaper of general circulation in the city by the Planning Director. The notice shall be published at least 15 days before the date of the hearing. At least six days prior to the date of the hearing, notice shall be sent by first class mail to the owners of abutting property by the Planning Director; the mailing shall use the ownership records of the County Assessor. The notice shall indicate:

a. The location of the proposed subdivision, the size of the subdivision, the approximate number of proposed lots, and the fact that a grading plan is proposed for approval;

b. Where interested persons may examine the preliminary plat; the same time;

c. Where interested persons may file written comment; and

d. The time and place of the public hearing.

2. Sign Posting. The applicant shall post and maintain one or more signs in locations specified by the Planning Director. The applicant is responsible for posting and maintaining such signs for at least 15 days before the date of the public hearing and shall remove them within five days after the hearing is completed. Failure to properly post signs is grounds for deferral of the request. No one except the applicant or the city shall remove or tamper with any required sign during the period it is required to be maintained.

(4) Decision.

(a) A decision on the preliminary plat shall be made by the Development Review Board within 80 days of receipt by the city of an application complete with plat and other required data, unless the subdivider agrees in writing to a deferral.

(b) A written decision shall be made a part of the record, along with any conditions or findings necessary to make clear any agreement or policy interpretation. A conditional approval shall state the conditions and a disapproval shall state the reason therefor. A copy of the decision shall be sent to the subdivider and other persons requesting a copy of the decision.

(c) Approval of a preliminary plat constitutes approval to proceed with design of any required master plan city utilities or facilities, unless stated otherwise in the preliminary plat approval.

(d) The decision of the Development Review Board on a preliminary plat may be appealed to the Environmental Planning Commission. Decisions of the Development Review Board must be unanimous and failure of the Development Review Board to reach consensus on a plat is grounds for appeal. See appeal procedures, Part 8 of this article.

(C) Required Submittals.

(1) Preliminary Plat. The plat shall be prepared in accordance with the Development Process Manual and shall include:

(a) Name or title of the proposed subdivision;

(b) Plat boundary lines;

(c) Existing conditions of the site and its environs;

(d) Zoning on and adjacent to the site;

(e) Location map;

(f) Proposed subdivision layout, including all dedications and easements and proposed street names;

(g) A list of all legal or equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest; and

(h) Size and location of any detached open space and/or off-site public park which will be conveyed by the subdivider in connection with the proposed plat.

(2) Grading Plan. The grading plan for the subdivision shall show existing and proposed topography and shall include cross-sections at the points of maximum proposed cut or fill. It shall show how this compares with the grade of land abutting the subdivision. It shall also note that infrastructure design, including vertical alignments and street grades, must be prepared in accordance with the criteria of the Development Process Manual. Approval of the grading plan shall be by the Development Review Board, concurrently with the Board's action on the application for preliminary plat approval. Grade changes within 50 feet of the boundary of a subdivision, which grade changes are greater than 18 inches between the preliminary-plat grading plan and the final grading plan, will require Development Review Board approval at a meeting with public notice equal to that of the preliminary plat hearing.

(3) Drainage Report and Erosion Control Submittal. The appropriate drainage submittal shall be prepared in accordance with §§ 14-5-2-1 et seq. Drainage Control and the Development Process Manual and shall be either approved by the City Engineer before submittal of the preliminary plat or be reviewed concurrently with the consideration of the application for preliminary plat approval.

(4) Construction Schedule. The subdivider shall provide an estimated schedule of infrastructure construction and lot development.

(5) Proposed solar access provisions, see § 14-14-4-2(B) of this article.

(6) Statement of water and sanitary sewer availability.

(D) Right of Subdivider After Approval. Until such approval shall have expired as provided in division (E) below, a preliminary plat which has been approved shall be exempt from any subsequent amendments to city rules, ordinances, plans, or policies which would affect the terms and conditions under which the preliminary plat was approved.

(E) Expiration of Approval.

(1) Approval of a preliminary plat is effective for one year from the date of the Development Review Board decision to approve, unless a request for extension is made by the subdivider and granted by the Development Review Board. A decision to grant an extension shall be based on the finding that the extension is not detrimental to the public interest and that the preliminary plat, as approved, is not in significant conflict with current city and County policies. The time of any extension must be set by the Development Review Board, but in no case may each extension exceed one additional year.

(2) Preliminary plat approval is null and void if final plat approval and filing with the Bernalillo County Clerk are not both accomplished within the period of one year plus any approved extensions, as provided in division (1) above.
('74 Code, § 7-16-4D)

§ 14-14-3-5 FINAL PLAT.

(A) Purpose and Intent.

(1) The final plat when recorded is the legal instrument which will allow transfer of land within the subdivision to take place. Legal commitments, dedications, assurances, and any other special agreements must be explicitly stated either upon the plat or by separate instrument to which reference is made on the subdivision plat. All agreements between the subdivider and the city shall be in writing and recorded as appropriate.

(2) The final plat must be approved by the Development Review Board if it substantially conforms to the preliminary plat as approved, including any modifications and conditions specified in the preliminary plat approval.

(B) Procedure.

(1) Application. Final plat approval is initiated by application to the Development Review Board. The application shall be accompanied by an original and the specified number of copies of the final plat together with an executed subdivision improvements agreement and lien or financial guaranty or a certificate of completion and acceptance of infrastructure signed by the City Engineer, and other supplementary material as specified in this article, the Development Process Manual, and other material as may be required by the Development Review Board.

(2) Notice.

(a) Public notice of plat approval will not generally be required, but may be required by the Development Review Board where the public interest warrants such notice.

(b) Plats submitted as conforming to a valid previously approved preliminary plat will be considered by the Development Review Board at the next available regular meeting.

(c) Plats of major subdivisions submitted as final plats for which no preliminary plat was required will be considered by the Development Review Board at a public hearing. Public notice shall be given as specified in § 14-14-3-4(B)(3) of this article.

(3) Decision. The Development Review Board shall:

(a) Review the final plat and other material submitted for consistency with the preliminary plat as approved, including any conditions specified, and for conformity to this article and related rules and regulations.

(b) If the final plat is substantially in conformance with the preliminary plat as approved, conforms with this article, and the Development Process Manual, and if infrastructure improvements have either been accepted by the city or a satisfactory subdivision improvements agreement, together with either a completed lien form or financial guaranty, has been executed by the subdivider and the city, the final plat shall be approved by the Development Review Board.

(c) The Development Review Board shall report to the subdivider in writing of its decisio that the final plat is approved or disapproved. If the final plat is not approved, the Development Review Board shall state the reasons for such disapproval. The approval or disapproval shall be within 21 days of the date of submission of the final plat unless a deferral, in writing, is requested by the subdivider and accepted by the Development Review Board. If the final plat is approved, approval shall be recorded on the original drawing of the final plat and shall be dated and verified by the signatures of members of the Development Review Board.

(4) Acceptance of Dedications. All parks and other public areas shown on the final plat, within which construction of improvements by the subdivider is not required, are accepted by the Development Review Board on behalf of the city by approval of the final plat. All streets and other public areas shown on the plat, within which construction of improvements by the subdivider is required, are not accepted until the City Engineer issues a certificate of completion and acceptance pursuant to § 14-14-5-9 of this article. Streets and other public areas requiring infrastructure improvements are not accepted for maintenance and public use until the issuance of such certificate and approval of the final plat (if the certificate is issued prior to such approval). After acceptance, dedicated land is public property and the fee or other property interest dedicated vests in the appropriate governmental entity.

(C) Required Submittals.

(1) Assurance of Improvements. A subdivision improvements agreement shall be provided as specified in Part 5 of this article and the Development Process Manual.

(2) Final Plat. The final plat shall be prepared in accordance with city requirements as specified in the Development Process Manual and shall include the following.

(a) Name of subdivision.

(b) Location and description of all monuments found or set, or to be set within the plat area.

(c) Plat boundary lines, subdivision layout including all dedications, easements, rights of way, and street names.

(d) Location map.

(e) Consent, warranty of title, and dedication statements signed by the owner or an agent of the owner (as demonstrated by an authorizing document signed by the owner and recorded) that:

1. The subdivision is with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the owner of the land;

2. Those signing as owner(s) warrant that they hold among them complete and indefeasible title to the land subdivided;

3. The public rights of way and other public areas shown on the plat are dedicated to the city (if the subdivision is within the city boundaries) or the county (if the subdivision is not within the city boundaries) or to another appropriate governmental entity as specified on the plat; and

4. The easements as shown on the plat are granted for the specified use, showing to whom they are granted and any conditions associated therewith.

(f) A statement by the preparer of the plat that he/she is currently a registered Land Surveyor in the State of New Mexico.

(g) Certifications by the:

1. Land surveyor who prepared the plat that the plat is in accordance with the laws of the State of New Mexico and applicable subdivision ordinances;

2. Authorized representatives of the local water and sanitary sewer, electric, gas, and telephone utilities certifying that their systems' needs have been met (for minor subdivisions the Utility Council Location System Log acknowledgement in lieu of signatures will be used); this requirement may be waived for subdivisions when the Development Review Board determines that the requirements of such utilities are found to be unreasonable or not in the public interest;

3. City Surveyor certifying that all monuments and minimum survey requirements have been met as provided in the Development Process Manual; and

"NOTICE OF SUBDIVISION PLAT CONDITIONS"
Tracts 1 and 2
Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc.

The plat of Tracts 1 and 2 Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. has been granted a variance or waiver from certain subdivision requirements pursuant to Section 7 of the City of Albuquerque Subdivision Ordinance.

Future subdivision of lands within this plat, site development plan approvals, and development permits may be conditioned upon dedication of rights-of-way and easements, and/or upon infrastructure improvements by the owner for water, sanitary sewer, streets, drainage, grading and parks in accordance with current resolutions, ordinances and policies in effect at the time for any specific proposal.

Certain easements for access, utilities and drainage control may be modified, replaced or removed, at the option of the City of Albuquerque, pending future platting and submittals which conform to a more complete or improved routing of those facilities. The rights as granted, however, are to remain until such subsequent modification of location and purpose, if any.

By its approval of this subdivision the City makes no representation or warranties as to availability of utilities, or final approval of all requirements including (but not limited to) the following items; Water and sanitary sewer availability; future street dedications and/or improvements; park and open space requirements; drainage requirements and/or improvements; and, excavation, filling, or grading requirements. Any person intending development of lands within this subdivision is cautioned to investigate the status of these items.

At such time as all such conditions have been satisfactorily met, the City Engineer shall approve a recordable document, removing such conditions from all or from a portion of the area within the subject subdivision.

AFFIDAVIT

Robert L. Swartwout, President of New Mexico Utilities, Inc., ("NMU") formerly known as Paradise Community Services, Inc. and successor-in-interest to Paradise Services Corporation ("Paradise Services") and Western Pacific Sanitation Co. ("Western Pacific"), in order to clarify the purpose of a Water Service Agreement dated January 20, 1961 executed by Paradise Services and a Sewer System Agreement executed by Western Pacific dated January 14, 1961, both recorded in the real property records of Bernalillo County and which impose certain obligations on developers, states upon his oath as follows:

WATER SERVICE AGREEMENT

1. NMU provides water and regulated sewage collection and disposal service to consumers living within the area generally known as Paradise Hills within Bernalillo County, New Mexico.

2. Paradise Services, a New Mexico corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Pacific, and predecessor in interest to Paradise Community Services, Inc. entered into a Water System Agreement with Horizon-Albuquerque Properties Corp. and Paradise International Corp. (sometimes referred to herein as "Developer") dated January 20, 1961 and recorded on September 20, 1961 in Book 35, page 559 of the real property records of Bernalillo County (the "Water Agreement").

3. Under the terms of the Water Agreement, Paradise Services, (sometimes referred to herein as the "Water Company") agreed to construct, operate, manage and maintain a water system for land which was being developed by Developer, its successors and assigns which land is further described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and is referred to herein as the "Property."

4. The Water Agreement obligates Developer, its successors and assigns, to (1) prohibit by deed restriction, the installation, maintenance or use of a private water system on any of the Property unless the owner constructs his own residence on a lot of 40 acres or more; (2) provide water rights and (3) provide easements, at no cost to the Water Company, for installing distribution and supply lines and pump stations

5. Most of the terms of the Water Agreement relating to the construction of a water system and the acquisition of necessary water rights have been satisfied. However, the Water Agreement continues to obligate the Developer, its successors and assigns, to provide easements, at no cost to the Water Company, to be used exclusively for the purpose of installing distribution and supply mains and pump stations and to prohibit, by proper tract or deed restriction, the installation, maintenance or use of a private water system on any of the Property except on a temporary basis with the written approval of the Water Company.

6. The obligations on Developer described in Paragraphs 3 and 4 have now been incorporated into the Water and Wastewater Agreement to be entered into by and between NMU and a developer of the Property or any other property in NMU's service territory which may be obtained at the offices of New Mexico Utilities, Inc., 4700 Irving Blvd., N.E., Suite 201, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87114.

7. NMU succeeded to the rights and obligations of Paradise Services Corporation as discussed in Paragraphs 12, 13 and 14 herein.

SEWER SERVICE AGREEMENT

8. Western Pacific, a Nevada corporation, entered into a Sewer System Agreement with Horizon-Albuquerque Properties Corp. and Paradise International Corp. dated January 14, 1961 and recorded on September 20, 1961 in Book MS35, page 527 of the real property records of Bernalillo County (the "Sewer Agreement").

9. Under the terms of the Sewer Agreement, Western Pacific (sometimes referred to herein as the "Sewer Company") agreed to design, construct, operate and maintain a complete sewer system for the use and benefit of the Property. The Sewer Agreement obligates Developer, its successors and assigns, to (1) prohibit by deed or tract restriction, the installation or use of any cesspool, septic tank, or similar disposal of sewage methods on any of the Property unless the owner constructs his own residence on a lot of 40 acres or more and desires to maintain thereon a cesspool, septic tank or similar disposal sewage method for the exclusive use of such residents; and (2) provide easements, at no cost to the Sewer Company, for installing and maintaining sewage lift stations and sewer mains, and trunk and collection lines.

10. Most of the terms of the Sewer Agreement relating to the construction of a sewer system have been satisfied. However, the Sewer Agreement continues to obligate the Developer, its successors and assigns, to provide easements, at no cost to the Sewer Company, to be used exclusively for the purpose of installing and maintaining sewage lift stations and sewer mains and to prohibit, by proper tract or deed restriction, the installation, maintenance or use of cesspools, septic tanks or similar disposal of sewage methods on any of the Property except on a temporary basis with the written approval of the Sewer Company.

11. Western Pacific was the parent company of Paradise Services Corporation. On July 1, 1961 Western Pacific by bill of sale assigned all of its right, title and interest in and to all of the facilities useful and necessary to provide water service and waste water disposal service to Paradise Services Corporation and appointed Paradise Services Corporation as operating agent of all the facilities and instructed Paradise Services Corporation to comply with the terms and conditions of the Sewer Services Agreement. Paradise Services Corporation agreed to comply.

12. On July 25, 1961, Developer agreed that the operation of the water and sewer systems should be conducted by Paradise Services Corporation. Developer further agreed that Paradise Services Corporation could exercise any of the rights, privileges, powers, or immunities contained in both the Sewer Agreement as supplemented and amended and the Water System Agreement.

13. In 1969, Paradise Services Corporation conveyed all of its assets, certifications and rights to Paradise Community Services, Inc. and on February 18, 1969, the New Mexico Public Service Commission in NMPSC Case No. 936 approved the sale.

14. On May 31, 1979, Paradise Community Services, Inc. changed its name to New Mexico Utilities, Inc.

15. The obligations of the Sewer Company have been assumed by NMU.

16. The obligations on Developer described in Paragraphs 9 and 10 have now been incorporated into the Water and Wastewater Agreement to be entered into by and between NMU and a developer of the Property or any other property in NMU's service territory which may be obtained at the offices of New Mexico Utilities, Inc., 4700 Irving Blvd., N.E., Suite 201, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87114.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

POSTING SIGNS ANNOUNCING PUBLIC HEARINGS

All persons making application to the City under the requirements and procedures established by the City Zoning Code or subdivision Ordinance are responsible for the posting and maintaining of one or more signs on the property, which the application describes. Vacations of public rights-of-way (if the way has been in use) require signs. Waterproofed signs will be provided at the time of application. If the application is mailed, must still stop at the Planning Division to pick up the sign.

The applicant is responsible for ensuring that the signs remain posted throughout the 15-day period prior to public hearing. Failure to maintain the signs during this entire period may be cause for deferral or denial of the application. Replacement signs for those lost or damaged are available from the Planning Division at a charge of $3.00 each.

1. LOCATION

   A. The sign shall be conspicuously located. It shall be located within twenty feet of the public sidewalk (or edge of public street). Staff may indicate a specific location.
   B. The face of the sign shall be parallel to the street, and the bottom of the sign shall be two to seven feet from the ground.
   C. No barrier shall prevent a person from coming within five feet of the sign in order to read it.

2. NUMBER
   A. One sign shall be posted on each paved street frontage. Signs maybe required on unpaved street frontages.
   B. If the land does not abut a public street, then in addition to a sign placed on the property a sign shall be placed on and at the edge of the public right-of-way of the nearest paved City street. Such a sign must direct readers toward the subject property by an arrow and an indication of distance.

3. PHYSICAL POSTING

   A. A heavy stake with two crossbars or full plywood backing works best to keep the sign in place, especially during high winds.
   B. Large headed nails or staples are best for attaching signs to a post or backing; the sign tears out less easily.

TIME

Signs must be posted from May 25th To June 9th 04.

5. REMOVAL

   A. The sign is not to be removed before the initial hearing on the request.
   B. The sign should be removed within five (5) days after the initial hearing.

I have read this sheet and discussed it with the Planning Division staff. I understand (A) my obligation to keep the sign(s) posted for fifteen (15) days and (B) where the sign(s) are to be located. I am being given a copy of this sheet.

We are not requesting infrastructure or wall design approval at this time. The area is divided into 8 tracts of land, which will be developed in phases. The infrastructure and wall design will be submitted as the phases are to be developed and preliminary plat is established. We submitted a Master Grading and Drainage Report to Hydrology for review and approval. All water and sewer infrastructure lies within the NMUI jurisdiction. We have attached the Form DRWS with the NMUI's availability statement for your records.

If you have any questions or need additional information regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,

Ronald R. Bohannan, PE

The plat of TRACTS 1 & 2, PARAGON RESOURCES, has been granted a variance or waiver from certain subdivision requirements pursuant to Section 7 of the City of Albuquerque Subdivision Ordinance.

Future subdivision of lands within this plat, Zoning, Site Development Plan approvals, and Development permits may be conditioned upon dedication of rights-of-way and easements, and/or upon infrastructure improvements by the owner for water, sanitary sewer, streets, drainage, grading and parks in accordance with current resolutions, ordinances and policies in effect at the time for any specific proposal.

The City and AMAFCA (with reference to drainage) may require and/or permit easements to be added, modified, or removed when future plats and/or Site Development Plans are approved.

Any person intending development of lands within this subdivision is cautioned to investigate the status of these items.

At such time as all such conditions have been satisfactorily met, the City Engineer shall approve a recordable document, removing such conditions from all or from a portion of the area within the subject subdivision.

CITY STAFF PRESENT:
Kevin Curran, Assistant City Attorney

CHAIR MATSON: Should I ask that all the parties involved in Agenda Item #4 come forward so that you can be sworn in and sit up here in case you have any testimony you'd like to give. Okay, we're on Agenda #4, Project # 1002632.

MS. SENOVA: If you'd all raise your right hands, please. Do you swear and affirm to tell the truth?

ALL WERE SWORN IN

CHAIR MATSON: All I'm going to ask is that as each one of you speaks that you'll please identify yourselves. If you're an attorney, from which firm; if you're a property owner, etc., just put that into the record. Whenever you're ready, just go ahead.

MR. BOHANNAN: Madam Chair, thank you. This is a continuance of the hearing last week on a bulk land plat for Sundance Estates. We had asked for a week deferral to make some additional comments to the bulk land plat which we have done. We have also provided to the staff a copy of a Title Commitment with copies of the deeds for the property that show that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico is the sole ownership of this. I also would like to enter into the record a copy of a letter from Mr. Larry Medrano, who's our surveyor on that, indicating that he has looked at both parcels and has not found any encroachments with the adjoining parcels on this property as well. With that, we'll be more than happy to answer any questions that the staff may have.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. BOHANNAN: I'm going to provide this letter to Claire to put in the file.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, would you make copies for us, please. Now, so that we can look at it. Would you also just go over the project a little bit again so we're clear.

MR. BOHANNAN: The project is a bulk land plat project. We have created 5-parcels. Parcel tract labeled number 1 is in approximately a 5-acre tract that is adjoining to the lands that Felix Rabadi owns. That tract was created in anticipation of a land dispute, so it actually is disputed land that Felix Rabadi raised last week.

What we have then is four other parcels that roughly match the phase boundaries that we have on the property that we will begin with various tracts in further subdivisions as we move forward. We have also shown the existing public roadway easements and drainage easements of record. We have not altered those. We will alter those as we go into the development and as the final drainage solution between the overall drainage master plan and the phase developments warrant moving and modifying those easements accordingly.

We've also identified the Unser Boulevard right of way through the property, based on Long Range Major Street Plan and working with the various departments. So, we've handled that. Lastly, Tract 5 that's on the plat is the parcel that the National Park Service is anticipating acquiring for their project as well.

CHAIR MATSON: All right. Did you, I don't recall you stating what the findings were of the title company who did this.

MR. BOHANNAN: The title company has issued a Title Commitment to the property, along with copies of the deeds for the project and it is their opinion that title is insured in Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Limited.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. BOHANNAN: Which we have provided to your office and Kevin Curran, City Attorney's Office.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. We have several people here that are signed up to speak. Does anyone have a preference as to what order I take you in?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: I'll go first.

CHAIR MATSON: You want to be first. Okay. And you are?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: My name is Deacon Steve Rangel from St. Jude Thaddeus Parrish located at 5712 Paradise, and we're the property that's there and we're just concerned about the – any development around us to make sure that the Madam Chair and the board take in consideration our church in any decision that you make for the development around us, to be sensitive to that.

Some of the concerns that are, first of all, was that we weren't aware of what was going on around us. Thank God for Benson and Felix, they've been trying to get me up to speed on what their plans were. Tierra West, Benson's engineer, met with the archdiocese and myself to inform us of what their plans were because we did not have that information.

The things that we brought up that might affect our church, obviously, is the traffic. If you live on the west side, or drive on the west side, it's a major concern and unfortunately, it seems like we're growing faster than the roads are being able to be developed. So, we're asking that you keep that in consideration for the safety of, not just our parishioners, but everybody located around that.

They proposed a road to go through – to not go through Felix's property, which we are all for. If you look at the plans, it stops on his property and does not go all the way to Paradise Hills. We definitely would like to see that stay that way because of the 600 homes; I guess they're planning on building, feeding into that which is right next to our church. We have services there four times.

One on Saturday, three on Sunday and it gets jammed up now. Backed up real bad, almost all the way to Ventana Ranch, which is a nice distance from our entrance.

The other issue would be a wall around our property. I don't know what the regulations are, if they're 5-feet or 6-feet. We obviously prefer 6-feet to protect our property.

The other concern was a gate so anybody that goes to our church, our service, instead of driving their car, will have access to our service by walking.

CHAIR MATSON: You're talking about a pedestrian gate, then? Is that correct?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: Exactly, so that they could have, and hopefully reduce, some of the parking and traffic. The other issue would be decelerated lanes. I think that's the terminology used, and turning lanes into it again for safety issues, turning in and out of our church during service. So, we just ask the Board to keep that in mind on your decisions on development around our property.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: With regard to the wall, the wall in the front of the church would be limited to 3-feet, but the side and the back are limited to 6-feet now, and what you'll need to do is, if you decide to proceed with that, is to submit a wall design and have it approved and then they'll issue your wall permit for you. And we do have – there is some zone code amendments that you need to comply with in terms of the designing, etc., and we have those available upstairs at the front counter, whenever you decide you want to proceed with that.

MR. BOHANNAN: Madam Chair, if I may.

CHAIR MATSON: Yes.

MR. BOHANNAN: Could – are you – do you have any concerns with the bulk land plat as presented today?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: No.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay. Madam Chair, all of these issues that were raised, as you are well aware, we will address appropriately when we develop that parcel immediately adjacent to the church.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, but it's good that you are here to let everybody know.

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: I was trying to keep up to speed on what's going on. Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, Mr. Rabadi. You're the next one that's signed up. If you will go over to the microphone, if you have anything you'd like to say now.

MR. RABADI: (Indicated he did not wish to speak.)

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. MONTANO: Good morning, Madam Chair and other members of the DRB. I'm Larry Montano with the Rodey Law Firm, and I'm appearing on behalf of Mr. Rabadi. I'm also appearing on behalf of Mike Vabresian and Sayid Bandi. They are not going to speak, but they are present and they do own property that's adjacent to the subject property.

One of the issues that is before the DRB is whether Mr. Pickard owns the subject property free and clear. Notwithstanding the fact that the title company has provided its opinion. In fact, Mr. Rabadi does have a property interest in, I believe it's been identified as Lot 5, which is the 5 acres that is adjacent to Mr. Rabadi's existing land. I believe that the DRB has a copy of an agreement between Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard's company, which is Signature J. Homes. If you do not have copy of that, I'd be glad to get you a copy. What this agreement says is that Mr. Rabadi is entitled to purchase the 5 acres that are in dispute once Mr. Pickard moves toward subdivision of his property.

Now, there is a condition in this agreement to the effect that Mr. Pickard must obtain or move forward with subdivision approval within 18-months and it's our understanding that Mr. Pickard and his counsel are relying upon that term to imply, to state, that Mr. Rabadi does not have a property interest. However, as I have explained to Mr. Pickard's counsel, Jack Campbell, this agreement has been modified by the verbal agreement of Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard and the nature of the verbal modification is that Mr. Pickard verbally agreed to move forward with this agreement on its conditions once he moved toward subdivision irrespective of the 18-month conditional period that exists in the written agreement.

I personally spoke with Manuel Lujan, who has had dealings with both Mr. Rabadi and with Mr. Pickard and Mr. Lujan confirmed to me that, in fact, he was present during some of these meetings, as recently as less than a year ago and that, in fact, that confirmation was made by Mr. Pickard. I also have provided to Kevin Curran, a copy of a Court of Appeals decision that is captioned, Diversified Development and Investment Incorporated v. Hill, and that is 889 P.2d. 1212, Actually, it's a Supreme Court opinion that was promulgated in 1995. What this opinion says is that notwithstanding the Statute of Frauds which some of you may be familiar with that requires that. When you are going to exchange real property, that you must document the exchange in writing.

That is a requirement of our state statutes. However, what this opinion says is, that when you have a writing that is set to expire after a term of years, that writing can be modified by oral agreement. And so, what we would ask this DRB to do is to take notice of the fact that there is, in fact, a dispute as to whether Mr. Pickard owns the 5- acres that are identified as Lot 5. That, in fact, Mr. Rabadi has a property interest in those 5-acres. It's certainly my hope. It's Mr. Rabadi's hope, that we can work something out with Mr. Pickard and with his counsel. Of course, we have been on a very short timeline to do that.

Mr. Rabadi contacted my firm late last week and we've been trying to do what we can do, but thus far we haven't been able to make any movement in that regard. The implications of Mr. Rabadi's property interest in terms of what is before the DRB and in terms of what this DRB can do are manifold. Ultimately, because Mr. Rabadi has this property interest in the 5-acres, that implicates of what Mr. Pickard can and cannot due, certainly in regard to the 5-acres at issue and then certainly in terms of the property that is adjacent to those 5-acres.

In particular, I would cite to the ordinance of, and of course there are a lot of numbers here, 14-14-3-5 (C)(2)(E)(1) and (2). When Mr. Pickard moves forward with final plat approval, he is going to have to go on the record and say unequivocally that he owns this property outright, that he has an indefeasible interest, that it's free and clear if you will, and he cannot say that. So, based on that fact alone, we believe that Mr. Pickard cannot move forward with final plat approval.

Furthermore, Mr. Rabadi, the property that he now owns without question, is subject to a C-1 approval. He has that opportunity to move forward with commercial development. Again, the implications of that are that, should Mr. Pickard move forward with the residential development, than what he is going to have to do is place a landscape buffer along his property and along Mr. Rabadi's property so as to subdivide commercial from residential. The problem with that is, is that if we were unable to resolve the dispute amongst ourselves, this will have to be litigated, in all likelihood, and what will happen then is that Mr. Rabadi will have an impairment, a physical encroachment on his property, should he be successful. Of course, one can see that if Mr. Rabadi is successful, as we believe he will be, then it will require the removal of this obstruction.

So, in terms of the property interest, in terms of the implications for this body, we think that at this time the DRB ought to deny the application. At the very least, it ought to defer. You know, the DRB meets very frequently and I think at the very least we ought to be given an opportunity to try and work this out with Mr. Pickard. In the event that we are unsuccessful, then obviously this DRB is put in the precarious position of having to take a stance as to whether Mr. Rabadi's claim to property interest in fact is sustained by the agreement based on the representation that there's been a verbal modification of the agreement and based on the implications to Mr. Pickard's application.

So we have that, we also have several other concerns that have already been expressed. One is that, in terms of the vacation of the existing roads, the property owners that own property adjacent to the subject property have all taken the stance that they are opposed to the vacation of the existing road system. I think that the people who live there certainly have a very good understanding of what it will mean to them and to the existing traffic patterns to have the existing roadways vacated in favor of some alternative arrangement. Certainly, and this is from Mr. Rabadi's perspective. It's certainly our impression that what Mr. Pickard is doing here is taking a piecemeal approach. So that initially he goes in and says all I want to do is replat. All I want to do is, you know, it's very simple, you don't have to worry about property interests. You don't have to worry about all of these other issues that have been raised. We'll address those later. The problem with addressing those problems later is that the very likely possibility is that a road will be forced upon Mr. Rabadi in the event that the exiting roadways are vacated. Where are they going to have access to this new development? What they are going to have to do, in effect, is run a road through Mr. Rabadi's property and feed into Paradise Boulevard. Well, certainly, that's a concern of ours and I think that needs to be addressed.

Finally, in terms of the lack of a grading and drainage plan, I mean, I think that alone ought to keep this body from moving forward at this point. This is going to be an issue given the magnitude of the development. The implications of not having an approved grading and drainage plan are very serious. So, for all of those reasons, we would ask that this body deny the application or, at the very least, defer.

CHAIR MATSON: Could I ask you a few questions?

MR. MONTANO: Please do.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, first of all, you were referring to Lot 5; I believe you meant Tract 1. If you look at the copy of the plat there, or Mr. Rabadi could, it was our understanding that it was Tract 1.
MR. MONTANO: I'm sorry. I stand corrected. You are right.

CHAIR MATSON: I just wanted to make sure we were talking about the same thing. Okay, this agreement that you refer to that was signed by Mr. Rabadi, Mr. Schaefer, and J Homes. There are a couple of clauses that have a line drawn through them. Do you know how that happened?

MR. MONTANO: Yes I do, Madam Chair and other members of the DRB. Mr. Rabadi has explained to me that, when the agreement was presented to him on his own, he marked the agreement. He was uncomfortable with those terms and so he marked them out and he presented that to both Mr. Schaefer and Mr. Pickard.

They did not agree to those terms and so the writing that you have before you should not include those markings. We certainly are not taking the position that as of the date the agreement was executed, that the parties agreed to terms not including the 18-month period. So, please exclude that. Notwithstanding that fact, we do have these other matters I've discussed.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. CURRAN: Madam Chair, can I interject here? Do we have a clean copy of this purchase agreement without the markings? Or is that the only one that exists?

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair, Mr. Curran, I personally do not have a clean copy of this agreement. It's my understanding that Mr. Schaefer and Mr. Pickard do.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, so notwithstanding the fact that the copy in the file is stricken through, those clauses are intended or were intended to remain in the agreement?

MR. MONTANO: That is correct, Madam Chair and I am representing to you that Mr. Rabadi has always understood that in the original agreement, Mr. Pickard and Mr. Schaefer were not agreeing to the exclusion of those terms.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, and then you mentioned Manuel Lujan. Was his interest in this whole thing just as a witness or did he have some other interest?

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair, members of the DRB, Mr. Lujan does not have a property interest in this 5-acres. He has had dealings with both Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard extensive contacts. It was just yesterday that I spoke to Mr. Lujan and that's when he informed me. Of course, Mr. Rabadi had also informed me of the same thing, but Mr. Lujan confirmed that there were these verbal modifications.

CHAIR MATSON: So if this agreement doesn't have that language crossed out, then there wasn't a timeline on this? Or actually there would have been an 18-month timeline on it.

MR. MONTANO: That is correct, Madam Chair. Once you remove those markings, what your left with is this condition that the property be subdivided within an 18-month period from the date of the agreement. So that condition does appear in the agreement in terms of the mental processes of the signators to this agreement. That was, those were the terms of the original agreement that there was this 18-month condition.

Now, in the event that there was not this subsequent oral modification then clearly on the face of it, this agreement would dictate that Mr. Rabadi does not have a property interest in Lot 1. However, once you consider the fact that there are these subsequent discussions involving a verbal modification of that term. Then, what our Supreme Court has said is that is sufficient to bring this agreement within what we commonly refer to as the Statutes of Frauds.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. You mentioned a landscape buffer. Is that what would be put on Tract 1? Is that what you were referring to that would need to be taken down later?

MR. MONTANO: Yes, Madam Chair. That is what I'm referring to.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. MONTANO: Furthermore, you know, there's going to come a point where, if Mr. Pickard moves towards final plat, as I said, he is going to have to make the representation that there's not a cloud on title and he cannot do that at this time.

CHAIR MATSON: You gave a citation in the Subdivision Ordinance. Could you repeat that for me, please?

MR. MONTANO: Yes, it is 14-14-3-5, Paragraph (C), (2), (E), (1) and then (2). One and two.

CHAIR MATSON: One and two.

MR. MONTANO: Yes.

CHAIR MATSON: All right, and then the last question that I have for you is when you were talking about a deferral, how long were you asking for or wanting considered, anyway?

MR. MONTANO: You know, I think that, if we had two weeks to actually try and work something out, that might be a sufficient amount of time. I literally have only had since Thursday of last week to try and make arrangements with Mr. Campbell, and through Mr. Campbell with Mr. Pickard.

I will say that, in talking to Mr. Campbell, he indicated that Mr. Pickard at this point is unwilling to try and resolve this amongst ourselves and I understand that may be Mr. Pickard's position and if he sticks to that position after today, then we will have to live with that, I mean, unfortunately, that's why matters are sometimes litigated. I think that at the very least, as a matter of good faith amongst ourselves, that we ought to be allowed an opportunity to articulate as fully as we can to Mr. Pickard our positions.

We've articulated them to the DRB, now obviously this is typically an administrative function ensuring, if you will, that all of the boxes can be marked as having been fulfilled. But in this particular situation where Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard have had dealings, these individuals are not strangers to one another and I think both of them are reasonable individuals and they have good reputations that there's always that possibility of being able to work something out.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, I guess the last comment I had is that the vacations are not one of the applications today, but I think you realize that also.

MR. MONTANO: I do, Madam Chair.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, Mr. Bohannan. Did you have anything you wanted to add?

MR. BOHANNAN: Yes, I would like to ask a couple of questions and then make a couple of responses. Madam Chair, if you could ask Counsel Montano if he's aware of State Statute in New Mexico that only transfer of property has to occur by plat and that actually would this would actually create the plat the parcel in question.

CHAIR MATSON: Do you have a response to that?

MR. MONTANO: I'm sorry, would you repeat the question?

MR. BOHANNAN: Under New Mexico State Statute, the only way that property can be transferred is by subdivision plat and that this action would actually create the parcel in dispute. Are you aware of that?

MR. MONTANO: What section are you referring to?

MR. BOHANNAN: I'm not really sure, I don't have that ready. But, in other words, we could not transfer a property interest in a larger piece without creating the subdivided tract.

MR. MONTANO: I'm sorry, I didn't understand the question initially. I believe I know what Mr. Bohannan is referring to and that may very well be the case, but the problem here is that, at least under this agreement that exists between Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard and also because of the Supreme Court opinion, there is a cloud on this tract, on Tract 1. So notwithstanding the fact that there might be relief somewhere down the road, does not mean that Mr. Rabadi is not going to be damaged today in the event that this is approved.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. BOHANNAN: The other comments that I'd just like to make is, one is that I'd like to reiterate that we are not vacating any easements at this time. The other one is this is actually the first step in a long process of the subdivision process that we have been working. The drainage, the bulk land plat will actually facilitate the drainage improvements in this area, as well as further development in this area and is actually the very first step moving forward and that's all I'd like to say at this time.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. All right, then we'll go onto Mr. Schaefer. If you'll come up to a microphone, please. State your name please and your address and your interest.

MR. SCHAEFER: R. J. Schaefer. I'm the one that bought the property and probably should be hung. I started on this in 1994. It took me two years to get PNM to the table. The Rabadi problem came up when I was dealing with PNM. Mr. Rabadi, I guess, was talking to a Mr. Jimmy Green who was trying to buy the property before me. He claimed he had an agreement with PNM Company on 5-acres. PNM Company finally got with their attorneys and they said the title is clear on the property. I either bought it or didn't buy it. I got a title binder and the property had nothing of record in agreement with Mr. Rabadi on the 5-acres so I purchased the property. We then purchased the property and shortly thereafter Mr. Pickard joined in with me on the property.

We immediately got an offer from the City of Albuquerque to try and do a 15-acre site for a Petroglyph National Monument Visitor Center and we could not subdivide the property because the City would not allow it because of the drainage and a few other problems and PNM said the same thing that they could not break the property up if we bought it. We ought to buy it in the 81-acre tract and the 41-acre tract that exists because they couldn't do a bulk land plat to get it divided.

Mr. Rabadi had come to us and asked about the 5-acres. At the time we bought it, it was zoned I-P, industrial, and we did not know for sure what we were going to do with it. Had no idea of subdividing it into houses or anything like that. We bought it for the commercial aspect. Mr. Pickard said that if we could subdivide it, he didn't have a problem with the 5-acres to Mr. Rabadi if it could be done in a timely manner. That's how the agreement came about.

We realized after we got into it that the drainage was a very big issue and several other problems and the property could not be replatted and therefore you could not sell any property to either the City for their visitor's center, or to Mr. Rabadi for his subdivision. We are not, never had a road on the property and there's an 85-foot strip that comes out to Paradise. People keep talking about vacating a road and I've checked the title and I've never seen any road there.

Also, the property everybody's been working on it adjoining the area to try to get the drainage worked out and finally reached an agreement after many, many years and, as far as I'm concerned, the agreement had a timetable on it for a reason. It didn't work, it couldn't work, it ran out. We've had several offers on the property. The fact that we couldn't replat it was a major issue and now the drainage. So, as far as I'm concerned, in my humble opinion, the agreement is null and void. I don't know what Mr. Lujan has to do with this deal. I never seen him come up to the table and put any money up on it, but, and I don't know about all these other meetings. I've never been involved in any of those, but as far as I'm concerned, the issue of the 5-acres died when the time ran out.

Since then, Mr. Pickard has decided to replat the property and do the subdivision. I've never heard about any commercial property. I've always been referred to Mr. Rabadi's property as being zoned for R-1 for 117 houses, I believe it was and that's just my statement.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you. Yes?

MR. CURRAN: Madam Chair, I have just one question of Mr. Schaefer if that's okay. Mr. Schaefer, my name is Kevin Curran. I'm an Assistant City Attorney and counsel to the DRB. You are a principal in what entity now?

MR. SCHAEFER: I was the principal in the original entity that bought the property.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, and that was? Which company were you a principal in, that bought the property?

MR. SCHAEFER: Well, I made the offer and then I sold out to Mr. Pickard and Mr. Pickard put it in, I think, the Signature J? I'm not sure of the name, sir.

MR. CURRAN: Are you a principal in Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Limited Company or are you a principal in Signature J?

MR. SCHAEFER: I'm a principal in neither. Mr. Pickard bought me out and I'm not involved in this.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, so you were an interim titleholder. Is that correct?

MR. SCHAEFER: I was the one that started it. I signed the purchase agreement with PNM.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, do you have any involvement in Paragon?

MR. SCHAEFER: No, Paragon was owned by PNM Company and that's who I bought it from.

MR. CURRAN: Okay.

MR. SCHAEFER: PNM had bought it for a substation and a service yard out there and then they changed their plans.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, my second question is in your testimony you constantly refer to the property, the property. All right, when you say the property, are you referring to Tract 1 as shown on the plat that's under consideration today?

MR. SCHAEFER: I'm referring to the 121 acres that I bought from PNM Company, so that would consist of Tracts 2, 3, 4 and 1 through 7.

MR. CURRAN: Is it fair to say that would consist of all the property that's being, that's under consideration today then?

MR. SCHAEFER: With the exception of Mr. Rabadi's

MR. CURRAN: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: So, it's all the property that's shown on this bulk land plat?

MR. SCHAEFER: Yes.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you.

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair?

CHAIR MATSON: Yes, Mr. Montano.

MR. MONTANO: May I ask Mr. Schaefer a question.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. MONTANO: Two questions. One, Mr. Schaefer, I'm Larry Montano. Do you have a copy, a clean copy of the agreement?

MR. SCHAEFER: I don't know. I'd be glad to look in my file.

MR. MONTANO: Okay, thank you, Mr. Schaefer, and the other question that I have is, did you originally enter an agreement with Mr. Rabadi because PNM represented to you that was required?

MR. SCHAEFER: No. The reason we entered into was because we were trying to sell the property as a whole and it really didn't make that much difference if we sold 5-acres to one person, and 116-acres to someone else. At the time, it wasn't a problem if it could be done.

MR. MONTANO: Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. We'll move on then. I assume that Vince does not want to speak at this time? (Indicated No.) Okay. Mr. Pickard? Good morning.

MR. PICKARD: Good morning.

CHAIR MATSON: Would you state your name for the record please, then your address?

MR. PICKARD: Horace Griffin Pickard, Jr., 237 Tano Road in Santa Fe, NM.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, just proceed with whatever you'd like to tell us.

MR. PICKARD: I would just like to add that I've had numerous conversations with Mr. Rabadi and he is using this, ah, forum, as pressure to try to make me do things that he doesn't have a contract for. We have physically had that conversation and he is using AMAFCA and the DRB and it doesn't matter whether it's two weeks or two years, I think this is going to end up in another forum and we're just asking for a bulk land plat of which we have taken out the 5-acres and we're going to leave it alone and we will not attempt to further develop that tract until we have legal resolution. But he is trying to tie up 121 acres over this 5-acres and using you as a forum. Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you.

MR. CURRAN: Madam Chair, I'd like to ask Mr. Pickard one or two questions.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Sure.

MR. CURRAN: Mr. Pickard, Mr. Rabadi through counsel has alleged that you verbally extended what I'll refer to as the September 10, 1996 purchase agreement between Mr. Rabadi and Signature J. Do you have any response to that allegation?

MR. PICKARD: I do. We did not have a verbal agreement. We have numerous written proposals back and forth that covered lots of items besides just this 5-acres. Why in the world we would have had those back and forth and to have a verbal one that he is relying on baffles me.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, that's really my only question.

CHAIR MATSON: Thank you. Mr. Montano, did you have a question?

MR. MONTANO: Just one question and that is whether Mr. Pickard has a clean copy of the agreement?

MR. PICKARD: I'm not sure, but the way we came across the altered one was a fax from Mr. Rabadi to our office. It's my opinion, and I'm not an attorney, but if he's relying on the changes, it was never initialed and we don't even have the initial agreement, the illegal document.

CHAIR MATSON: Thank you. Okay, Mr. Campbell. Morning.

MR. CAMPBELL: Good morning.

CHAIR MATSON: State your name for the record, please and who you represent.

MR. CAMPBELL: John Campbell and I represent Builders Investment Company.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. CAMPBELL: I'm a lawyer here in Albuquerque.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. CAMPBELL: And, as you can imagine, two lawyers never agree with one another and I couldn't disagree with Mr. Montano more about his analysis of what Mr. Rabadi may or may not have legally.

One thing that I am 100% certain of is Mr. Rabadi owns no interest in real property. If anything, he has a contract claim that he is asserting against Mr. Pickard's entity, Builders Investment Company of New Mexico to acquire a piece of property. It's just a naked, disputed contract claim. That claim doesn't give him any interest in real property. He has a claim that may affect, ultimately, when a court resolves it, title to this disputed 5-acres of land but as of this date he has no interest in real property.

As to the agreement, I can tell you that I have conferred with Mr. Pickard's staff trying to find an unmarked copy of the agreement. It happened in 1996 and Mr. Rabadi was not heard of for many, many years and I have no doubt that the Builders Investment and Signature J files have been purged.

I've tried to get a copy of the agreement from Mr. Schaefer, I've tried to get it from Mr. Schaefer's former counsel, John Meyers, haven't been able to successfully do so.

What I can tell you is that the way that this transaction came is that the signed, unmarked agreement was submitted to Mr. Rabadi for his signature. He signed it with the interlined markings. I can't recall the name of the case, but the Supreme Court of New Mexico has said that when one alters a contract, as to a material term, and certainly the term of this agreement is a material term, it becomes a counter offer and it doesn't mature into a binding contract unless and until it's accepted by the parties, generally by initial. It's convenient to say that we'll just ignore these marks and we're going to assert our rights under the original 18-month contract with a verbal amendment. The truth is, and I think a court will ultimately find, that no contract came into existence because Mr. Rabadi interlined it and, in that sense, made a counter offer that was never accepted in any way that could mature into a written contract. Even had that been the case, this contract occurred in 1996.

It is also clear in New Mexico that when a contract doesn't have a term, as this contract wouldn't have had there been a verbal extension of that 18-month period, that it has to be performed within a reasonable time and I don't think that any person could conclude that 8-years, when it becomes convenient for Mr. Rabadi to do so because he perceives there to be profit in it for him, that is a reasonable time. The contract is arguably not valid on that ground. Moreover, there would have been a statute of limitations that applies to this contract and that has long since run. This dispute is a legal dispute. It shouldn't involve this Board. It is simply a bold attempt to try and deflect the arguments about the bulk plat to a legal dispute between the parties. Mr. Rabadi has no interest in this property. He may ultimately acquire an interest after a court rules, one way or another. But at the present time, he has no interest and I just would respectfully suggest that this Board shouldn't become a court to try to arbitrate or decide who's right and who's wrong.

It should act on the plat and the application that is before it, and either approve it or deny it on the merits of that application and leave the dispute of the parties to another forum. Mr. Bohannan is absolutely correct. If Mr. Rabadi wins, this land's going to have to be subdivided to convey him the 5-acres and there's no dispute that the 5-acres that's been separately platted out as, I don't recall, Tract 1 is the 5-acres that he's interested in and I can't see how approving this bulk plat. That establishes a tract that ultimately can be conveyed to him if he prevails in his legal claims against Builders Investment Company in any way prejudices him. It's a legal dispute. It's one that's hotly contested and I couldn't disagree with Mr. Montano more that Mr. Rabadi has an interest in real property. He simply has a contract claim.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you. Lastly is David Soule. Good morning. Would you please state your name for the record and what you interest is, please?

MR. SOULE: Yes, my name is David Soule. My family owns property in the area and I just want to speak out in support of this bulk land plat. I believe Tierra West and Ron Bohannan and Vince Carrica have done an excellent job and the developer is trying to accommodate the neighbors and I strongly support this approval.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you. Mr. Bohannan, did you have any closing comments?

MR. BOHANNAN: No, other than I think that we would ask that the Board go ahead and grant the bulk land approval for this plat.

CHAIR MATSON: Thank you. Mr. Curran, did you have anything you wanted to say?

MR. CURRAN: I think I have one final question concerning this contract dispute. I guess this is addressed to everyone who has spoken, in the hope that someone can answer the question or at least address it. It seems like the 1996 purchase agreement between Signature J and Mr. Rabadi referred to an earlier 1993 purchase agreement between, I hope I've got my notes correct, Tajas 5 and Mr. Rabadi. Is there anything in that 1993 agreement that would shed some light on if and when this 1996 purchase agreement terminated? Anybody have any, shed any light on that?

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair, if I may address that. In regard to Mr. Curran's question, the 1996 agreement does incorporate by reference the 1993 agreement. Now, naturally, the 1996 agreement to the extent that it has different terms, it would be my opinion that it would rule on those terms. However, I think that the one thing that can be gathered from the 1993 agreement and the fact that it was incorporated into the 1996 agreement is the common thread that exists here and that is that whoever owned the subject property had to deal with Mr. Rabadi and there was a reason for that and the reason is that Mr. Rabadi has always had the option to purchase that 5-acres.

CHAIR MATSON: Mr. Cambell, if you'll come up to the microphone.

MR. CAMPBELL: Yes.

CHAIR MATSON: And state your name again.

MR. CAMPBELL: Madam Chair and members of the Board, what that 1993 agreement demonstrates is that Mr. Rabadi has been trying for some time to tie up this property. I would point out that the seller in the 1993 agreement never had any title to the property. He was simply a contract purchaser that never closed, never owned the land, never acquired any interest in the land.

Mr. Rabadi has been trying to acquire the property and he's simply trying to pick and choose to his benefit the time that he's going to try to acquire the property. He's had 8-years to litigate this had he wanted to litigate it and that 1993 agreement, Mr. Curran, has no real effect at all on this dispute.

CHAIR MATSON: Did you get your answer?

MR. CURRAN: Yes, thank you. Well, I'd like to make some closing comments. I think the DRB as a quasi-judicial body is the finder of fact. I think there's substantial evidence in the record, one of the findings I believe the Board needs to make is who is the owner of Tract 1.

Now, to address some of Mr. Campbell's comments. The fact that Mr. Rabadi isn't a legal owner or a title owner of Tract 1 doesn't do the Board a whole lot of good. This Subdivision Ordinance requires all legal and equitable owners to be signatories, or at least disclosed on the plat, so if Mr. Rabadi is a contract holder to the property, he would, in my opinion, he would qualify as an equitable owner. Now, that being said, in my opinion, there's substantial evidence in the record to find either way. You've got a title commitment showing that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Limited Company is entitled to Tract 1. You've also got testimony in the record saying that in essence Mr. Rabadi has a legal contract right to purchase Tract 1. You've also got testimony refuting that from Mr. Pickard saying that there is no verbal extension agreement, which would lead to the conclusion that Builders Investment is entitled to the property. It is not an easy decision, but I believe there is evidence in the record to find either way.

CHAIR MATSON: I think the Board will take a 5-minute break.

MEETING RESUMED

CHAIR MATSON: All right, we're going to proceed with what we were originally here to do, temporarily anyway, and that is to get comments from the other Board members on the bulk land plat that is before us. So, Parks, if you'll go ahead please.

MS. SANDOVAL: Parks has no objection to the bulk land variance or platting action.

CHAIR MATSON: Hydrology?

MR. BINGHAM: I just want to state for the record that most bulk land plats don't require a grading and drainage plan. This plan does have a solution, in concept already, not necessarily agreed to formally, but the concept's been worked on with myself and AMAFCA for, oh man, probably a year's worth of back and forth dialog between the two agencies and the engineer and this plat matches what will be part of that solution.
So, but generally a bulk land plat, I mean a drainage plan is not necessarily required for bulk land plat. With that said, I did have a question for the engineer. Do you have a public drainage easement granted on Tract 6? Which agency is going to inherit that easement?

MR. BOHANNAN: That will be the surge pond that will connect the upland flows and then from there be drained down to the AMAFCA facility, and we're proposing that to be the City of Albuquerque.

MR. BINGHAM: That's going to be City ponds?

MR. BOHANNAN: Yes.

MR. BINGHAM: Okay. Can you put granted to the City of Albuquerque, then?

MR. BOHANNAN: Yes.

MR. BINGHAM: I think it could be easier to modify through this Board than through the AMAFCA Board anyway, when subsequent development comes in. So, if you could state that on the plat. I also have no objection to a bulk land variance and I would request that AMAFCA sign the plat before I do, though.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay.

CHAIR MATSON: In terms of Planning's comments, a couple of the original comments have been addressed. The zoning question is now cleared up. The vacations were originally shown on the Bulk Land Plat However, on the current one we have, those vacations have been removed to be taken care of later.
The property does lie within the Unser Boulevard Design Overlay Zone and the Northwest Mesa Escarpment Plan View Area. The Notice of Subdivision Conditions must be filed with the bulk plat and Planning must file the plat. AGIS dxf approval is required before Planning can sign, as well as we need to get past the 15-day appeal period.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay.

CHAIR MATSON: Utilities.

MR. GREEN: I have no objection to the bulk land variance or approval of the plat.

CHAIR MATSON: Transportation

MR. GALLEGOS: I think all my issues have been resolved with the granting of the 156 Easement for Unser. Internal roadways within Tracts 2, 3 and 7 will be looked at as the platting actions occur, and we're probably going to have to take a look again at some of the concerns that were raised today.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay.

CHAIR MATSON: Is that it?

MR. BOHANNAN: That's it.

CHAIR MATSON: DRB is going to go ahead and approve the applications. So, Claire, if you're ready, we'll go through those. We'll approve the bulk land variance for waiver of infrastructure. Approval of this variance is subject to the provisions of the DPM and the Subdivision Regulations. We'll approve the preliminary and final plat and delegate final plat to Planning for approval of the AGIS dxf and the 15-day appeal period, and to City Engineer for …

MR. BINGHAM: AMAFCA'S signature.

CHAIR MATSON: The one finding we're going to have is that – in this case – the title binder shows that Builder's Investment is the legal owner of Tract 1, and I'd like to read part of that into the record. It says "the estate or interest in the land described or referred to in this commitment and covered herein is fee simple and is at the effective date hereof vested in Builder's Investment Company of New Mexico Limited Company " Corporation maybe? C-O "a New Mexico Limited Liability Company, and that the land referred to in this commitment is situated in the County of Bernalillo, State of New Mexico, and described as followed: Tract No. 1 of the Bulk Land Plat of Sundance Estates, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico."

MR. BOHANNAN: Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: You're welcome.

THE FOLLOWING ACTION WAS TAKEN:

The Bulk Land Variance was approved subject to the Findings and Conditions of the Subdivision Ordinance as follows:

BULK LAND VARIANCE:

1. The variance will not be injurious to the public safety, health or welfare, or to adjacent property, the neighborhood or the community.

2. The variance will not conflict significantly with the goals and provisions of any City, County or AMAFCA adopted plan or policy; the applicable zoning ordinance, or any other City code or ordinance.

3. The variance will not permit, encourage or make possible undesired development in the 100-year floodplain.

4. The variance will not hinder future planning, public right-of-way acquisition, or the financing or building of public infrastructure improvements.

The preliminary and final plat were approved with final plat delegated to Planning for AGIS dxf file and the 15-day appeal period and to City Engineer for AMAFCA signature and with the following finding:

The Title Commitment issued by LandAmerica Albuquerque Title Company dated June 8, 2004 in support of the applicant's platting actions shows that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co., is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of SUNDANCE ESTATES, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico.

Protest Items to Project No. 1002632, Sundance Estates

04DRB-00761 Minor – Preliminary & Final Plat Approval

I, Felix Rabadi, owner of the 17-acre tract north of the subject project, protest the DRB action based on the following items:

1. Drainage – Drainage easements should not be vacated until replacement easements are provided for storm water outlets.

2. West and South Public Road – Road easements should not be vacated. They are required for access to Southern Lots and developer should build ½ street per City of Albuquerque negotiations.

3. Connecting Road/Paradise to Unser – Similar connections should be provided at Paradise & Unser as the existing easements provide before vacation.

4. Landscape Easements – Should not be vacated. It is needed as a buffer between developments (17 acres could still be commercial) [SU-1 PRD].

5. The 5-acres adjacent to the Rabadi tract is a disputed area and should not be platted until legal issues are resolved.

DIVERSIFIED DEVELOPMENT & INVESTMENT, INC., Plaintiff-Appellant,
v.
Helga HEIL and Dorothy S. Holmberg, co-personal representatives of the Estate of Anne Pickard, deceased, and the Estate of Anne Pickard, Defendants/Third-Party-Plaintiffs-Appellees,
and
Patrick Hurley and Lee Welsh, Defendants/Third-Party-Defendants-Appellees.
No. 21320.
Jan. 25, 1995.

Holder of option to purchase real estate brought suit against vendor's estate and representatives and their agent for breach of contract, misrepresentation, and prima facie tort, for breach regarding sale of property after expiration of option's original deadline. The District Court, Bernalillo County, Gerald R. Cole, D.J., granted summary judgment for defendants before ruling on plaintiff's motion to compel discovery, and plaintiff appealed. The Supreme Court, Ransom, J., held that: (1) plaintiff preserved issue regarding propriety of summary judgment before discovery; (2) discovery regarding instructions and authority given to agent should have been granted; (3) agent did not have apparent authority to grant extension of option deadline; (4) agent was not liable for misrepresentation; (5) material issues as to whether agent had actual authority to grant extension, and whether agent had actual or apparent "speaking authority" to bind vendor on extension, precluded summary judgment; (6) material issue as to vendor's intent precluded summary judgment for vendor on tort claim; and (7) agent was not liable on tort claim.
Affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded.

OPINION

RANSOM, Justice.

Diversified Development & Investment, Inc., sued the estate of Anne Pickard and its personal representatives, Helga Heil and Dorothy Holmberg, (collectively, "the Estate") for breach of contract, misrepresentation, and prima facie tort in connection with a contractual option to purchase real estate. After the Estate filed a third-party claim for indemnification and legal malpractice against its attorney, Patrick Hurley, Diversified Development filed a claim against Hurley for breach of contract, misrepresentation, and prima facie tort, and asked for punitive damages. Before ruling on a motion filed by Diversified Development to compel discovery, the district court granted summary judgments in favor of the Estate and Hurley.

Diversified Development appeals pursuant to SCRA 1986, 12- 102(A)(1) (Repl.Pamp.1992) (count sounding in contract). We find that the court erred in granting summary judgment before ruling on the motion to compel discovery. We therefore reverse the judgment in favor of the Estate on Diversified Development's claim that Hurley had actual authority to grant an extension of the purchase option. Further, we hold that the trial court should compel discovery of certain communications between the Estate and Hurley. Finally, we find that Diversified Development raised a genuine issue as to Hurley's actual or apparent authority to communicate whether the Estate agreed to an extension of the option deadline. We therefore hold that, on remand, Diversified Development may pursue its theory that Hurley's statements thus could bind the Estate.

Facts. In March 1990 Diversified Development executed an agreement with New Jersey residents Heil and Holmberg in which Diversified Development was given a six-month option to purchase approximately sixteen acres of unimproved Albuquerque real estate for $575,000. The agreement empowered Diversified Development to extend the purchase option for an additional six months upon written notification to the Estate. Diversified Development exercised this right to an extension in a letter delivered to Hurley from Diversified Development's attorney, Ray Baehr. This extension gave Diversified Development until March 31, 1991, to exercise the purchase option.

In February 1991 Diversified Development asked Lee Welsh, a real estate agent for the Estate, to determine whether the Estate would consider modifications to the agreement's financing terms. Diversified Development's president, Chester Hearn, testified that Welsh assured him he had talked to Heil and Holmberg and that they were receptive to "some modifications of the financing arrangements." Diversified Development emphasized to Welsh that it wished to retain the right to exercise the original purchase option if financing modifications could not be worked out.

In a letter sent to Welsh, Heil, Hurley, and Baehr dated March 22, 1991, Diversified Development put its financing modification request in writing. In this letter Hearn reaffirmed Diversified Development's intent to purchase the parcel of land and requested a ninety-day extension of the existing option pending execution of the modified agreement. Baehr testified that during the week of March 25 he telephoned Hurley to inquire about the status of the March 22 extension request and to set up a meeting before the March 31 option deadline to discuss whether the Estate would accept the alternative financing proposal. He testified that Hurley was not able to meet with him but assured him that "a few days one way or another [will] not make any difference" and "these =1216 *294 ladies are not going to hold [Diversified Development] to the [option deadline.]" Hurley conceded only that on March 29 he told Baehr he had talked to Heil and that the Estate "probably [would] agree to an extension--possibly more." He stated that Heil told him it would be after the March 31 deadline before she could say whether the Estate was amenable to accepting an alteration of the option. Heil insisted that Hurley had no authority to tell Baehr that the Estate "probably [would] agree to an extension" but acknowledged that Hurley did have authority to discuss an extension.

Baehr and Hurley agreed to meet on April 4. At this meeting Diversified Development and Baehr discussed the March 22 financing proposal with Hurley and Welsh and inquired whether the option would have to be exercised as written. Hearn testified that at the conclusion of the meeting he asked for a written extension but Hurley insisted that one was not necessary because Diversified Development would get an answer on the financing proposal in a few days. Hearn also stated that Hurley assured Diversified Development it could exercise the original purchase option if the Estate did not agree to financing modifications.

Between April 4 and April 25 Hurley had several conversations with Heil about the proposed modifications. Hurley did not know that the Estate would not extend the option, however, until either April 25 or May 2. On May 1 Heil and Holmberg faxed a letter directly to Baehr rejecting the proposed financing modifications and stating that the Estate was "reviewing [its] options" and would attempt to obtain a better price for the land. On May 8 Welsh told Hearn that the Estate considered the purchase option to have expired.

On May 9 Diversified Development deposited earnest money in the amount called for by the option agreement into escrow and notified Hurley, Welsh, and Heil that it was exercising the original purchase option. On May 11 the Estate instructed the escrow agent to return the earnest money to Diversified Development and to record a termination statement. Approximately three months later the Estate accepted a purchase offer for $800,000 from another buyer.

Proceedings. On February 25, 1993, following minimal pretrial discovery, Diversified Development filed a motion to compel production of memos written by Hurley detailing his conversations with Heil about the March 22 extension request. Hurley refused to produce these memos, claiming attorney-client privilege. The motion to compel also sought production of withheld portions of Heil's telephone diary detailing conversations with Welsh and Hurley. Hurley joined in Diversified Development's motion, arguing that Heil had waived the attorney-client privilege by bringing an action against him and by offering evidence of some of the communications. The court held a motion hearing on March 11 but did not rule.

The Estate and Hurley filed motions for summary judgment on February 15 and 19 respectively. On March 26 and 29 those motions were heard and on April 6 the court issued a letter decision ruling in favor of the Estate and Hurley. The court stated that it assumed Diversified Development's motion to compel discovery to be moot as a result of its ruling. The trial court found it undisputed that Hurley lacked actual or apparent authority either to make final decisions for the Estate or to grant an extension. Based on this finding, the court determined that there was no support for the contract claim. The court also determined that "Hurley made no misrepresentations for which his principals could be held liable." Finally, the court found as a matter of law that the facts of the case did not support the prima facie tort claim.

With regard to Diversified Development's claims against Hurley, the court determined that Diversified Development could not state a contract claim because Hurley was not a principal and commented that the nature of the extension was too nebulous to represent a "meeting of the minds as to what the duties and obligations of the parties were." The court also determined that recovery against Hurley for prima facie tort was not supported by the facts, and that Hurley's representations were unactionable opinions upon which Diversified Development could not reasonably 295 *1217 have relied. Finally, the court found that Hurley had no duty to disclose to Diversified Development his lack of authority to grant an extension.

The motion to compel discovery. The major issue in this case is whether Hurley had actual or apparent authority to bind the Estate to an extension of time within which Diversified Development could exercise the purchase option. Diversified Development argues that because it was denied the opportunity to discover facts defining the nature and scope of Hurley's authority, it did not have the ability to defeat summary judgment motions by the Estate and Hurley. The Estate counters that Diversified Development waived any objection to the court's decision by failing to object to the court's mootness ruling when summary judgment was granted. On the merits, the Estate claims an attorney- client privilege against discovery.

[1] --Diversified Development preserved the issue. To preserve an issue for appeal, "it must appear that a ruling or decision by the district court was fairly invoked." SCRA 1986, 12-216(A) (Repl.Pamp.1992); see also SCRA 1986, 1-046 (Repl. Pamp.1992). The purpose of requiring a party to invoke a ruling or decision by the district court is to alert the trial judge to a claim of error and give the judge an opportunity to correct any mistake. Madrid v. Roybal, 112 N.M. 354, 356, 815 P.2d 650, 652 (Ct.App.), cert. denied, 112 N.M. 308, 815 P.2d 161 (1991); see also Cockrell v. Cockrell, 117 N.M. 321, 323-24, 871 P.2d 977, 979-80 (1994) (holding that challenge to sufficiency of evidence was not brought to the attention of trial court and thus was not preserved).

In its response to the Estate's motion for summary judgment Diversified Development requested "that the Court's decision on Summary Judgment be continued pursuant to SCRA 1986, 1-056(F) [(Repl.Pamp.1992) (allowing a trial judge to deny a motion for summary judgment when it appears that the party opposing the motion needs more discovery to obtain facts supporting his position)], until such time as the Motion to Compel Discovery is decided." Diversified Development further argued, as it had done previously and more extensively in a memorandum in support of the motion to compel, that its "ability to fully demonstrate the extent of the dispute as to Hurley's authority [had] been hampered" by the Estate's claim of attorney-client privilege. Thus Diversified Development argued that a decision on summary judgment should be delayed until the motion to compel was decided.

[2] By requesting the trial judge to stay his ruling on the motions for summary judgment until he had ruled on the motion to compel, by citing Rule 1-056(F), and by incorporating its prior argument that further discovery was essential to support its claims that Hurley had authority to bind the Estate, Diversified Development presented the judge with all the information necessary to make an informed decision whether the motion to compel should be decided prior to the motions for summary judgment. Diversified Development thus preserved the discovery issue.

--Attorney-client privilege does not extend to a client's grant of actual authority. Although appellate courts generally do not address the merits of a discovery motion before the trial court has had an opportunity to do so, see Garrett v. City of San Francisco, 818 F.2d 1515, 1519 n. 4 (9th Cir.1987), for purposes of judicial economy and because the parties have briefed the issue, we will address the merits of the Estate's claim of privilege. Diversified Development and Hurley urge that no privilege existed between Hurley and the Estate. Alternatively, they urge that the Estate waived any privilege by bringing a third-party claim against Hurley. The Estate counters that communications between itself and Hurley should be exempt from discovery under the attorney-client privilege set out in SCRA 1986, 11- 503(B) (Repl.Pamp.1994).

Rule 11-503(B) states that "[a] client has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent any other person from disclosing confidential communications made for the purpose of facilitating the rendition of professional legal services to the client." Rule 11-503(A)(4) defines a "confidential communication" as one "not intended to be disclosed to third 1218 *296 persons." It follows from the unambiguous definition of confidential communications and from Rule 11-503 that the Estate may refuse to disclose only those communications made for the purpose of facilitating legal services and not intended to be disclosed to others.

[3] Diversified Development seeks to discover the instructions given to Hurley by the Estate and the nature and scope of his authority in regard to the purchase option deadline. "[C]ourts have held that the [attorney-client] privilege does not protect the instructions or authority given by the client to his attorney...." Paul R. Rice et al., Attorney-Client Privilege in the United States § 6:22, at 467-68 (1993); see id. § 6:22, at 468 n. 35 (citing cases that have held that a client's instructions to his or her attorney and the scope of the authority granted are not protected by attorney-client privilege). Explaining the reason for this rule, one federal court has stated that "the client's grant of authority to the attorney to settle [is not protected by the attorney-client privilege] since this must be communicated to the other party to the settlement." Willard C. Beach Air Brush Co. v. General Motors Corp., 118 F.Supp. 242, 244 (D.N.J.1953), aff'd 214 F.2d 664 (3d Cir.1954). Thus the attorney-client privilege does not prohibit Hurley from disclosing what the Estate authorized him to agree upon with or communicate to Diversified Development.

[4] --Incomplete discovery precluded summary judgment on actual authority claim. Generally, "a court should not grant summary judgment before a party has completed discovery, ... particularly when further factual resolution is essential to determine the central legal issues." Sun Country Sav. Bank of N.M. v. McDowell, 108 N.M. 528, 534, 775 P.2d 730, 736 (1989) (citations omitted). Diversified Development may have been able to discover material facts in Hurley's memos and in the withheld portions of Heil's telephone diary defining the nature and scope of Hurley's authority. The court should have examined those documents and allowed Diversified Development to discover those portions detailing the Estate's instructions to Hurley and the scope of his authority in connection with the extension of the option deadline. See Garrett, 818 F.2d at 1519 ("It was error for the trial court to have granted defendants' motion for summary judgment without first having determined the merits of plaintiff's pending [motion to compel discovery]."); Snook v. Trust Co. of Georgia Bank of Savannah, 859 F.2d 865, 871 (11th Cir.1988) ("By failing to rule on the motion to compel, the district court deprived the plaintiffs' of their right to utilize the discovery process to discover the facts necessary to justify their opposition to the [summary judgment] motion."). Summary judgment was therefore improper on Diversified Development's claim that Hurley had actual authority to grant an extension of the option deadline.

[5] [6] Hurley did not have apparent authority to agree upon an extension. In Romero v. Mervyn's, 109 N.M. 249, 253, 784 P.2d 992, 996 (1989), we stated that "a principal ... is responsible for the acts of the agent when the principal has clothed the agent with the appearance of authority." Apparent authority arises from manifestations by the principal to the third party "and can be created by appointing a person to a position that carries with it generally recognized duties." Id. Because the facts necessary to prove apparent authority would be known by Diversified Development without further discovery, we decide whether summary judgment was appropriate on the issue of Hurley's apparent authority to grant an extension of the option deadline.
The record establishes that the purchase agreement could be modified only in writing. The record further establishes that the Estate did not communicate directly with Diversified Development or its attorney prior to the May 1 letter rejecting the proposed financing modifications. As an attorney himself, Baehr knew or should have known that an attorney does not have implied authority to approve the modification of an agreement. See Augustus v. John Williams & Assoc., Inc., 92 N.M. 437, 438-39, 589 P.2d 1028, 1029-30 (1979) (stating rule that attorney does not have implied authority to compromise client's cause of action (quoting Nenleber v. Anzalone, 345 So.2d 822, 822-23 (Fla.Dist.Ct.App.1977))); see, e.g., 1219 *297 Torrao v. Cox, 26 Mass.App.Ct. 247, 525

N.E.2d 1349, 1353 (1988) (stating that attorney has no power, absent express authority, to bind principal by his assent to modification of principal's contract). Hurley's assertion that "these ladies are not going to hold [Diversified Development] to [the purchase option deadline]," without more, did not indicate Hurley was authorized to make the decision and did not absolve Baehr and Diversified Development of the duty to make further inquiry as to the extent of Hurley's authority. See Warren A. Seavey, Handbook of the Law of Agency § 22(B), at 44 (1964) ("Persons dealing with an agent ... cannot hold the principal liable for unauthorized acts of an agent which are not normally permitted to an agent in such a position."); Comstock v. Mitchell, 110 N.M. 131, 132, 793 P.2d 261, 262 (1990) (stating that third party has duty to "use reasonable diligence and prudence to ascertain whether the agent is acting within the scope of his powers" (quoting 3 Am.Jur.2d Agency § 82 (1986))). Therefore summary judgment on the issue of apparent authority to agree to an extension was appropriate.

[7] For similar reasons, it was unreasonable for Diversified Development to infer from Hurley's above-quoted assertion that it could place any reliance on an implied representation by Hurley that he was binding the Estate. Thus summary judgment was appropriate on Diversified Development's misrepresentation claim against Hurley.

Diversified Development may pursue whether Hurley's statements bound the Estate to an extension. Diversified Development argues that the facts it has adduced raise a question whether Hurley could bind the Estate by representing to Diversified Development that the Estate itself agreed to an extension. As we understand the facts, Hurley's authority to bind the Estate may spring from two sources. First, it may be argued that Hurley could bind the Estate because he had actual or apparent authority to perform discretionary acts on behalf of the Estate such as granting an extension of the option deadline. We have held that summary judgment on the issue of Hurley's actual authority to grant an extension was premature in light of the pending motion to compel discovery. Further, we have held that the Estate did not place Hurley in such a position that he had apparent authority to grant an extension.

[8] Second, it may be argued that Hurley had actual or apparent authority to make binding statements representing the position of the Estate. It is unclear whether Diversified Development actually argued this issue below, and consequently it is also unclear whether the trial court, as part of its grant of summary judgment, ruled that Hurley did not have speaking authority. In response to questions from this Court, the parties have supplied us with briefs on this issue. Because we have ruled that summary judgment was premature and are remanding this case for further discovery, and because we find that the trial court could not rule against Diversified Development as a matter of law on the issue of speaking authority under the facts presented here, Diversified Development would not be prohibited from claiming on remand that Hurley had speaking authority. We therefore take this opportunity to clarify the law on this issue for purposes of aiding the trial court.

[9] [10] An agent's statements may bind the principal if the agent is authorized to speak. When a principal gives a person authority (either actual or apparent) to do certain acts, those acts become binding on the principal because they are treated as the acts of the principal. Cf. Albuquerque Concrete Coring Co. v. Pan Am World Servs., Inc., 118 N.M. 140, 146, 879 P.2d 772, 778 (1994) (holding corporation liable for act of managing agent because acts of agent are acts of corporation). In the case of speaking authority, an agent who actually has been authorized to speak, or has been cloaked with the authority to speak, may bind his or her principal to perform the acts about which he or she speaks. Speaking authority differs from authority to do acts within one's discretion such as entering into a binding modification of the principal's contract with a third party. Thus an agent with speaking authority may not agree to a modification of the principal's contract but may represent the principal's position on the modification of the 1220 *298 contract and thereby bind the principal to that modification.

[11] For the statements, representations, or admissions of a purported agent to be binding on the principal, the fact of agency must first be established. 2 Floyd R. Mechem, A Treatise on the Law of Agency § 1774, at 1348 (2d ed. 1914). "[T]he unauthorized statements of an agent to the third party concerning the existence or extent of his authority cannot be relied upon to establish apparent authority." Comstock v. Mitchell, 110 N.M. 131, 134, 793 P.2d 261, 264 (1990) (Ransom, J., specially concurring). Once the principal has manifested to a third party that another individual is his or her agent, however, statements by that agent regarding the extent of authority may bear upon whether, without further inquiry of the principal, the third party reasonably relied upon a belief about the extent of the agent's authority. Even then, before the agent's extrajudicial statements concerning the extent of authority may be relied upon to excuse further inquiry, the principal first must have placed the agent in a position that would give rise to a belief in a reasonably prudent third party that the authority of the agent would extend as far as represented by the agent. Thus once agency has been established, the statements, representations, or admissions made by the agent to a third party will bind the principal only if the agent was actually or apparently authorized to make the particular statements or was actually or apparently authorized to make statements on the particular subject. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 286 (1957).

In this case Hurley's agency is not disputed. Hence the only question remaining is whether the facts presented an issue regarding the existence of actual or apparent speaking authority. Even if the trial court was to be the finder of fact, it could not have used the summary judgment procedure to resolve a disputed issue of fact. See Bergerson Plumbing & Heating, Inc. v. Poole, 111 N.M. 525, 528, 807 P.2d 223, 226 (1991) (holding that "[a] trial court should not summarily cut to a dispositive issue without trial on the merits, even when the trial court believes the ultimate disposition is foreseeable"). If Diversified Development raised facts that, if proven, might have been interpreted in such a way as to entitle it to judgment, the court must have conducted a trial on the merits. See id.

[12] [13] [14] --Actual authority to speak. Actual speaking authority may be express or implied. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 7 cmt. c (1957). Express speaking authority will exist when the principal has told the agent that he or she may make certain statements, representations, or admissions. Id. Implied speaking authority will exist when the principal appoints the agent to a position that normally carries with it the authority to make certain statements and from which position the agent reasonably believes that he is authorized to make such statements. Similarly, implied speaking authority will exist when the principal expressly authorizes the agent to do an act that necessarily requires the making of statements. See Warren A. Seavey, Handbook of the Law of Agency § 105(C), at 190 (1964) ("To the extent that statements are made as part of an authorized transaction, ... a statement is authorized if the agent has reason to believe that the principal desires him to make it.").

Heil testified that Hurley had actual authority to discuss an extension of the purchase option deadline. By informing Hurley that it would not make the decision whether to agree to the financing modifications until after the March 31 purchase option deadline, the Estate gave Hurley reason to believe that it was authorizing a "grace period" during which the original option could be exercised. On remand the factfinder thus should determine whether Hurley reasonably believed Heil and Holmberg desired him to communicate to Diversified Development a temporary extension of the option agreement. If Hurley had such a reasonable belief, the Estate would be bound by Hurley's statement that "these ladies are not going to hold [Diversified Development] to the [option deadline]" regardless of whether the Estate intended Hurley to grant an extension. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 26 cmt. a (1957) ("[T]he manifestation and not the intention of the principal is important; hence, 1221 *299 whenever the principal manifests to the agent that the agent is to act on his account, [actual] authority exists although the principal is not in fact willing that he should do so.").

[15] [16] --Apparent authority to speak. Whether an agent has apparent speaking authority is a question that must be determined by the trier of fact in light of the agent's duties and responsibilities. See Hartman v. Port of Seattle, 63 Wash.2d 879, 389 P.2d 669, 673-74 (1964); cf. Kasper v. Buffalo Bills, 42 A.D.2d 87, 345 N.Y.S.2d 244, 250-51 (1973) (adopting rule that statements made by agent will bind principal if agent had authority to speak and remanding for determination of agent's authority and responsibilities). Further, evidence of the appearance of authority as created by the actions and words of the principal is always admissible to show that the agent has authority to speak. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 286 cmt. b (1957); see also Sigel v. Boston & M.R.R., 107 N.H. 8, 216 A.2d 794, 806-07 (1966) (finding sufficient evidence of speaking authority to create a jury question when negotiations over proposed railroad crossing repair were initiated by defendant, defendant's representatives were vice presidents in charge of purchasing, and duties of defendant's representatives included resolving matters in relation to the company negotiated with).

[17] As an attorney and negotiator for the Estate, Hurley had apparent authority to communicate the position of the Estate in terms of offer and acceptance. Further, prior to the negotiations over the extension of the option deadline, the Estate always had communicated its wishes to Diversified Development through Hurley, and, prior to the May 1 letter faxed directly to Baehr, the Estate never had communicated directly with Diversified Development. Finally, the Estate did not reject Diversified Development's proposed financing modifications or respond to Diversified Development's extension request, other than through Hurley, prior to the expiration of the option. Thus because of Hurley's position, and because of the Estate's behavior toward Diversified Development in relation to the option deadline, we conclude that there was an issue of fact whether Hurley had apparent authority to speak.

[18] Even if the evidence discloses that Hurley's representations that the Estate would not hold Diversified Development to the option deadline were not correct, his misrepresentations could still be binding on the Estate. Seavey, Handbook of the Law of Agency § 60, at 109; cf. Wallo v. Rosenberg, 331 S.W.2d 8, 13-14 (Mo.Ct.App.1960) (holding that agent's fraudulent representations about the occupancy rates and expenses of a hotel were binding on the principal in an action to rescind a real estate contract). The question is whether Hurley's statements reasonably could be understood as representations of the Estate's position. When a speaking agent makes a statement that is susceptible to more than one reasonable interpretation, the principal cannot complain that a third party relied on one reasonable interpretation over another. Thus, if the Estate placed Hurley in a position from which Diversified Development could reasonably conclude that he had authority to communicate the Estate's position on the proposed extension request, the Estate cannot complain to the third party that its agent acted contrary to its wishes.

[19] Reasonableness of interpretation is a question of fact. We have discussed the binding nature of a representation by an agent with speaking authority. We hasten to distinguish that issue from the issue whether Diversified Development reasonably interpreted Hurley's statements as representations of the Estate's extension of a grace period for exercise of this purchase option. From statements such as "a few days one way or another would not make any difference" and "[t]hese ladies are not going to hold you to the line" there is raised a genuine issue of material fact whether Diversified Development did reasonably rely on Hurley's statements as a representation of the Estate's position.

[20] Statute of frauds not a bar. As a contract for the sale of land, the contract between Diversified Development and the Estate is governed by the statute of frauds and must be in writing. See Robinson v. Black, 73 N.M. 116, 118-19, 385 P.2d 971, 973 300 *1222 (1963). The Estate argues that because the contract falls within the statute of frauds, the oral modification of the option agreement, to be enforceable, had to be in writing. We disagree and conclude that Hurley could bind the Estate to an extension of the option deadline by orally conveying the Estate's agreement to an extension.

Relying on this Court's prior decisions in Dave Zerwas Co. v. James Hamilton Construction Co., 117 N.M. 724, 876 P.2d 653 (1994), and Yrisarri v. Wallis, 76 N.M. 776, 418 P.2d 852 (1966), the Estate argues that an oral modification of the option deadline is unenforceable because of the statute of frauds. In Yrisarri this Court held that parole evidence was not admissible to "contradict, vary, modify, or add to a written agreement." 76 N.M. at 779, 418 P.2d at 854 (quoting Maine v. Garvin, 76 N.M. 546, 550-51, 417 P.2d 40, 43 (1966)). In Zerwas we stated that "a modification to an agreement within the Statute of Frauds must be in writing ... because it is, in essence, a new agreement." 117 N.M. at 726, 876 P.2d at 655.

While we believe Yrisarri and Zerwas correctly stated the general law, we must reconcile those cases with other New Mexico law. In Kingston v. Walters, 16 N.M. 59, 64, 113 P. 594, 595 (1911), we held that "a subsequent verbal modification of the time of performance fixed by a written agreement for the sale of real estate will be regarded ... as valid." This holding recognized that parties to a written contract controlled by the statute of frauds may orally modify the contract and the modification will be enforced if one of the parties materially changes its position in reasonable reliance on the subsequent oral agreement. Id. at 64-65, 113 P. at 595; see Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 150 (1979) (stating that statute of frauds does not bar enforcement of subsequent oral modification if enforcement of original terms would be unjust in view of one party's material change in position). We believe these holdings may be reconciled insofar as the extension of the option agreement in Kingston did not so alter the real estate sale agreement as to create, in effect, a new agreement. As in Kingston, the oral modification between Diversified Development and the Estate, if authorized, would be enforceable notwithstanding the statute of frauds.

[21] [22] [23] The court erred in dismissing Diversified Development's prima facie tort claim against the Estate. In recognizing prima facie tort as a cause of action in Schmitz v. Smentowski, 109 N.M. 386, 394, 785 P.2d 726, 734 (1990), we stated that the cause of action was intended to provide "a remedy for plaintiffs who have been harmed by a defendant's intentional and malicious acts" and who have no other legal remedy. For liability under this cause of action to attach, a defendant's conduct must be both wrongful and unjustifiable. Id. at 394-95, 785 P.2d at 734-35. Because the court entered judgment before ruling on the motion to compel, the evidence of intent was not fully developed. The withheld portions of Heil's telephone diary may have established the Estate's knowledge and intent; therefore dismissal of the cause of action before ruling on the motion to compel was premature. There being no genuine issue of material fact in this regard on the part of Hurley, however, summary judgment was properly granted in his favor on this issue. Conclusion. We reverse the judgments in favor of the Estate except the judgment based on Hurley's lack of apparent authority to grant an extension. We affirm the judgments in favor of Hurley. The case is remanded to the trial court for further proceedings consistent with this opinion.
IT IS SO ORDERED.

RE: COA Project number is 1002632-Sundance Estates

Dear Ms. Matson,

I prepared the Bulk Land plat for the referenced project. This work included performing a boundary survey on the ground and reviewing supporting documents for the subject property as well as for the adjoining properties. This plat meets the Minimum Requirements for Land Surveys as adopted by the New Mexico Board of Licensure for Engineers and Surveyors. The boundary of the survey was based on the plat of Tracts numbered One (1) and Two (2), Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc., as the same are shown and designated on the plat thereof, filed in the office of the County Clerk of Bernalillo County, New Mexico on April 28, 1989 in Volume C39, Folio 28.

I also reviewed and plotted the property described in the Quitclaim Deed from Sharif A. and Samia Rabadi to The Star Trust of which the Rabadis are the initial trustee. The deed was filed in the Office of the County Clerk on April 20, 1998, in Book 9808, Page 5684. Based on the Metes and Bounds Legal Description provided in this deed, there are no overlaps of the Rabadi property onto the subject property.

Please call me if you have any questions or if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Larry W. Medrano, PS

RE: APPLICATION FOR ZONE CHANGE

On May 24, 1994, application to change the zone on approximately 17 acres of land was filed with the City of Albuquerque. The subject land is located adjacent to Paradise Boulevard across from the County Park that is used for a storm water retention pond (see attached zone map).

Currently, the land is zoned SU-1 PRD. I have inclosed a copy of the definition of this zone as found in the City of Albuquerque Comprehensive City Zoning Code. The request for zone change is made to change the zone to R-1 (see attached definition).

The request for the zone change is made to allow for the approval of a proposed subdivision that is planned for this site. I have enclosed a copy of the proposed subdivision layout for your inspection.

We feel that the proposed subdivision will be very compatible with the surrounding developments.

If you have any questions or if a meeting would be helpful to discuss the application or the subdivision, please let me know.

Re: Portions of Tract 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Rabadi:

Robert J. Schaefer has relinquished to Signature "J" Homes, Inc. ("Signature "J"), his rights to purchase Tracts 1 and 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. A new contract has been signed by Paragon Resources, Inc. and Signature "J".

We are aware that you had entered into an agreement with the prior contract purchaser of the Paragon property, Tejas 5 Partnership, to purchase a portion of Tract 2. Within the last few days, R. J. Schaefer presented to you a proposal whereby we would honor that prior agreement subject to certain modifications. It is my understanding that you found that proposal unacceptable.

Enclosed is a revised agreement which responds to some, but not all of your suggested changes. If the terms of this revised agreement are acceptable to you, please sign it and return it to this office on or before the end of the business day on Friday, September 13, 1996. If we have not received an executed copy of the Agreement by that date, then any offer that Signature "J" or Schaefer have made to sell the property to you is withdrawn.

Please understand that we are of the opinion that we have no legal obligation to negotiate with you or to sell you this property. We are doing so simply as an accommodation to you in light of the efforts that you have into your project.

Sincerely,

RE: 5-Acre Paragon Property Purchase & Agreement to Purchase Finished Lots

In response to your memo dated January 6, 2004, Builders Investment Company agrees to the following deal points. This memo does not bind either party for both of the deals described herein; but is to be used as a good faith effort to construct both deals. Once the major deal points have been agreed upon, a final set of contracts will be written. With regard to earnest money on both deals, Builders Investment Company believes that because this whole deal has been done on good faith, and that there should be no earnest money requirement for either deal.

The deal shall be broken down into the following two separate agreements.

I. Rabadi to purchase 5 acres from Builders Investment Company
   A. Purchase Price: $35,000 per acre
   B. Closing: As Soon As Possible (To be clarified by Rabadi)
   C. Both parties agree to trade and record entrance easements off of Paradise. Any difference in land area shall be made up to the other party at $35,000 / acre.
   D. Rabadi to pay his pro-rata share of infrastructure costs through whatever method Ron Bohannan deems necessary. This amount is estimated to be no less than $173,916; but could be more.
   E. Closing on this transaction to take place at Albuquerque Title w/ Diana Stoneburger.
   F. The minimum amount of utilities will be brought to the new property line by Builders Investment Company in order to facilitate the development of the Rabadi subdivision. Builders Investment Company will eventually complete all of the final utilities and infrastructure as needed by our development-phasing plan for the whole tract and will not impede Rabadi's development.
   G. The lay out of this transaction is shown in the plat that is attached to this outline.
   H. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

(Builders Investment Company is willing to do the deal listed above if Mr. Rabadi is willing to do the deal listed below.)

II. Builders Investment Company to purchase all of Rabadi's finished lots
   A. Purchase Price: To be determined by appraisal for each size lot. Once a contract for these lots has been signed the deal is done even if Rabadi finds a higher price for the lots from someone else. NO
   B. Takedown Schedule: 5 takedowns on fully completed lots, 30 lots each, every 6 months. Rabadi to carry / finance each take down for purchaser with financing acceptable to Builders Investment Company. NO
   C. The lot purchase price shall increase by the prevailing floating prime rate, which will be determined at the time of takedown. NO
   D. Builders Investment Company will buy the lots less fences, walls and sidewalks except those sidewalks that are off-lot that will be required by the city. The timing of when these will be constructed will be at Builders Investment Companies discretion.
   E. Closing on each of these takedowns will take place at First American Title Company.
   F. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

To: Mr. Manuel Lujan, Jr.

From: Felix Rabadi

After discussing the sale agreement with my attorney, I outline the following items. If this is acceptable to Mr. Pickard, we will proceed.

* $40,000.00 purchase price for lots 45 by 105 sq,ft, larger lots to be priced as per sq,ft.
* 5 closings as follows:
    a. 1st closing lot 1 through 30 with no lot selection
    b. 2nd closing lot 31 through 60 six months later with no lot selection
    c. 3rd closing lot 61 through 90
    d. 4th closing lot 91 through 120
    e. 5th closing lot 121 through 150

    This will give purchaser 21/2 years to close on all lots.
* If any lots sold to builder above the cost which the purchaser paid, the difference shall be paid to seller (Felix Rabadi). If seller found a higher price for the lots by any other builder, buyer must match that price.
* The purchase price shall increase by eight percent (8%) per annum.
* Buyer shall deposit with First American Title Company the sum of One hundred and twenty thousand dollars (120,000.00) as Earnest Money. The Earnest Money shall be in favor of the Buyer until substantial completion has been agreed upon. At such time, the Earnest Money shall be released to Felix Rabadi. The Earnest Money escrow deposit is Non-Refundable. The Earnest Money shall, however, be refunded to the Buyer as a One Thousand dollar ($1,000.00) credit against the Lot Sales Price of the each on the One hundred fifty (150) lots purchased under this agreement.
* Fences, Walls, and Sidewalks are the sole responsibility of Mr.Pickard. All walls and fences are to be built prior to construction.
* Felix will purchase five (5) acres or more at $35,000 per acre and will pay his share of 173,916.00 for the infrastructure development costs. Which will be deducted from the first sale.
* All utilities will be constructed on the property and will be brought up to Felix's property line.
* Will trade land for easement from the West side to the Middle of the Property at no cost to M Pickard or M. Rabadi.
* Will enter this agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

Dear Griff:

I met with Felix Rabadi and he asked me to try one more time to see if an agreement can be worked out. The following is what should be a reasonable solution to the problem:

1- Exchange easement even.
2- BIC will sell Rabadi 5 acres at $35,000.00 each.
3- Rabadi will pay his share of infrastructure development costs.
4- Rabadi will build front wall on Paradise Blvd.
5- Rabadi will pay all cost required at front of property.
6- BIC will build the easement road.
7- BIC will bring utilities to Rabadi property line.
8- Rabadi will pay for the sign at entrance with name of subdivision.
9- Enter into an agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

I hope both parties can work it all out. I can be reached at 259-0517.

Very truly yours,

   (b) Any governmental police power not excluded by (a) above, except to the extent that a notice of the exercise thereof or a notice of a defect, lien or encumbrance resulting from a violation or alleged violation affecting the land has been recorded in the public records at Date of Policy.

4. Any claim, which arises out of the transaction vesting in the Insured the estate or interest insured by this policy, by reason of the operation of federal bankruptcy, state insolvency, or similar creditors' rights laws, that is based on:

   (a) the transaction creating the estate or interest insured by this policy being deemed a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer; or

   (ii) of such recordation to impart notice to a purchaser for value or a judgment or lien creditor.

CONDITIONS AND STIPULATIONS

1. DEFINITION OF TERMS.

The following terms when used in this policy mean:

(a) "insured": the insured named in Schedule A, and, subject to any rights or defenses the Company would have had against the named insured, those who succeed to the interest of the named insured by operation of law as distinguished from purchase including, but not limited to, heirs, distributees, devisees, survivors, personal representatives, next of kin, or corporate or fiduciary successors.

(b) "insured claimant": an insured claiming loss or damage.

(c) "knowledge" or "known": actual knowledge, not constructive knowledge or notice which may be imputed to an insured by reason of the public records as defined in this policy or any other records which impart constructive notice of matters affecting the land.

(d) "land": the land described or referred to in Schedule A, and improvements affixed thereto which by law constitute real property. The term "land" does not include any property beyond the lines of the area described or referred to in Schedule A, nor any right ; title, interest, estate or easement in abutting streets, roads, avenues, alleys, lanes, ways or waterways, but nothing herein shall modify or limit the extent to which a right of access to and from the land is insured by this policy.

(e) "mortgage": mortgage, deed of trust, trust deed, or other security instrument.

(f) "public records": records established under state statutes at Date of Policy for the purpose of imparting constructive notice of matters relating to real property to purchasers for value and without knowledge. With respect to Section 1(a) (iv) of the Exclusions From Coverage, "public records" shall also include environmental protection liens filed in the records of the clerk of the United States district court for the district in which the land is located.

(g) "unmarketability of the title": an alleged or apparent matter affecting the title to the land, not excluded or excepted from coverage, which would entitle a purchaser of the estate or interest described in Schedule A to be released from the obligation to purchase by virtue of a contractual condition requiring the delivery of marketable title.

2. CONTINUATION OF INSURANCE AFTER CONVEYANCE OF TITLE.

The coverage of this policy shall continue in force as of Date of Policy in favor of an insured only so long as the insured retains an estate or interest in the land, or holds an indebtedness secured by a purchase money mortgage given by a purchaser from the insured, or only so long as the insured shall have liability by reason of covenants of warranty made by the insured in any transfer or conveyance of the estate or interest. This policy shall not continue in force in favor of any purchaser from the insured of either (i) an estate or interest in the land, or (ii) an indebtedness secured by a purchase money mortgage given to the insured.

3. NOTICE OF CLAIM TO BE GIVEN BY INSURED CLAIMANT.

The insured shall notify the Company promptly in writing (i) in case of any litigation as set forth in Section 4(a) below, (ii) in case knowledge shall come to an insured hereunder of any claim of title or interest which is adverse to the title to the estate or interest, as insured, and which might cause loss or damage for which the Company may be liable by virtue of this policy, or (iii) if title to the estate or interest, as insured, is rejected as unmarketable. If prompt notice shall not be given to the Company, then as to the insured all liability of the Company shall terminate with regard to the matter or matters for which prompt notice is required; provided, however, that failure to notify the Company shall in no case prejudice the rights of any insured under this policy unless the Company shall be prejudiced by the failure and then only to the extent of the prejudice.

4. DEFENSE AND PROSECUTION OF ACTIONS; DUTY OF INSURED CLAIMANT TO COOPERATE.

(a) Upon written request by the insured and subject to the options contained in Section 6 of these Conditions and Stipulations, the Company, at its own cost and without unreasonable delay, shall provide for the defense of an insured in litigation in which any third party asserts a claim adverse to the title or interest as insured, but only as to those stated causes of action alleging a defect, lien or encumbrance or other matter insured against by this policy. The Company shall have the right to select counsel of its choice (subject to the right of the insured to object for reasonable cause) to represent the insured as to those stated causes of action and shall not be liable for and will not pay the fees of any other counsel. The Company will not pay any fees, costs or expenses incurred by the insured in the defense of those causes of action which allege matters not insured against by this policy.

(b) The Company shall have the right, at its own cost, to institute and prosecute any action or proceeding or to do any other act which in its opinion may be necessary or desirable to establish the title to the estate or interest as insured, or to prevent or reduce loss or damage to the insured. The Company may take any appropriate action under the terms of this policy, whether or not it shall be liable hereunder, and shall not thereby concede liability or waive any provision of this policy. If the Company shall exercise its rights under this paragraph, it shall do so diligently.

(c) Whenever the Company shall have brought an action or interposed a defense as required or permitted by the provisions of this policy, the Company may pursue any litigation to final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction and expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to appeal from any adverse judgment or order.

(d) In all cases where this policy permits or requires the Company to prosecute or provide for the defense of any action or proceeding, the insured shall secure to the Company the right to so prosecute or provide defense in the action or proceeding, and all appeals therein, and permit the Company to use, at its option, the name of the insured for this purpose. Whenever requested by the Company, the insured, at the Company's expense, shall give the Company all reasonable aid (i) in any action or proceeding, securing evidence, obtaining witnesses, prosecuting or defending the action or proceeding, or effecting settlement, and (ii) in any other lawful act which in the opinion of the Company may be necessary or desirable to establish the title to the estate or interest as insured. If the Company is prejudiced by the failure of the insured to furnish the required cooperation, the Company's obligations to the insured under the policy shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation, with regard to the matter or matters requiring such cooperation.

5. PROOF OF LOSS OR DAMAGE.

In addition to and after the notices required under Section 3 of these Conditions and Stipulations have been provided the Company, a proof of loss or damage signed and sworn to by the insured claimant shall be furnished to the Company within 90 days after the insured claimant shall ascertain the facts giving rise to the loss or damage. The proof of loss or damage shall describe the defect in, or lien or encumbrance on the title, or other matter insured against by this policy which constitutes the basis of loss or damage and shall state, to the extent possible, the basis of calculating the amount of the loss or damage. If the Company is prejudiced by the failure of the insured claimant to provide the required proof of loss or damage, the Company's obligations to the insured under the policy shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation, with regard to the matter or matters requiring such proof of loss or damage.

In addition, the insured claimant may reasonably be required to submit to examination under oath by any authorized representative of the Company and shall produce for examination, inspection and copying, at such reasonable times and places as may be designated by any authorized representative of the Company, all records, books, ledgers, checks, correspondence and memoranda, whether bearing a date before or after Date of Policy, which reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. Further, if requested by any authorized representative of the Company , the insured claimant shall grant its permission, in writing, for any authorized representative of the Company to examine , inspect and copy all records, books, ledgers, checks, correspondence and memoranda in the custody or control of a third party, which reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. All information designated as confidential by the insured claimant provided to the Company pursuant to this Section shall not be disclosed to others unless, in the reasonable judgement of the Company, it is necessary in the administration of the claim. Failure of the insured claimant to submit for examination under oath, produce other reasonably requested information or grant permission to secure reasonably necessary information from third parties as required in this paragraph shall terminate any liability of the Company under this policy as to that claim.

6. OPTIONS TO PAY OR OTHERWISE SETTLE CLAIMS; TERMINATION OF LIABILITY.

In case of a claim under this policy, the Company shall have the following options:

(a)To Pay or Tender Payment of the Amount of Insurance.

To pay or tender payment of the amount of insurance under this policy together with any costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the insured claimant, which were authorized by the Company, up to the time of payment or tender of payment and which the Company is obligated to pay.

Upon the exercise by the Company of this option, all liability and obligations to the insured under this policy, other than to make the payment required, shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation, and the policy shall be surrendered to the Company for cancellation.

(b) To Pay or Otherwise Settle With Parties Other than the Insured or With the Insured Claimant.

(i) to pay or otherwise settle with other parties for or in the name of an insured claimant any claim insured against under this policy, together with any costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the insured claimant which were authorized by the Company up to time of payment and which the Company is obligated to pay; or

(ii) to pay or otherwise settle with the insured claimant the loss or damage provided for under this policy, together with any costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the insured claimant which were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment and which the Company is obligated to pay.

Upon the exercise by the Company of either of the options provided for in paragraphs (b)(i) or (ii), the Company's obligations to the insured under this policy for the claimed loss or damage, other than the payments required to be made, shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute or continue any litigation.

7. DETERMINATION, EXTENT OF LIABILITY AND COINSURANCE.

This policy is a contract of indemnity against actual monetary loss or damage sustained or incurred by the insured claimant who has suffered loss or damage by reason of matters insured against by this policy and only to the extent herein described.

(a) The liability of the Company under this policy shall not exceed the least of:

(i) the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A; or,

(ii) the difference between the value of the insured estate or interest as insured and the value of the insured estate or interest subject to the defect, lien or encumbrance insured against by this policy.

(b) In the event the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A at the Date of Policy is less than 80 percent of the value of the insured estate or interest or the full consideration paid for the land, whichever is less, or if subsequent to the Date of Policy an improvement is erected on the land which increases the value of the insured estate or interest by at least 20 percent over the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A, then this Policy is subject to the following:

(i) where no subsequent improvement has been made, as to any partial loss, the Company shall only pay the loss pro rata in the proportion that the amount of insurance at Date of Policy bears to the total value of the insured estate or interest at Date of Policy; or

(ii) where a subsequent improvement has been made, as to any partial loss, the Company shall only pay the loss pro rata in the proportion that 120 percent of the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A bears to the sum of the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A and the amount expended for the improvement.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to costs, attorneys' fees and expenses for which the Company is liable under this policy, and shall only apply to that portion of any loss which exceeds, in the aggregate, 10 percent of the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A.

8. APPORTIONMENT.

If the land described in Schedule A consists of two or more parcels which are not used as a single site, and a loss is established affecting one or more of the parcels but not all, the loss shall be computed and settled on a pro rata basis as if the amount of insurance under this policy was divided pro rata as to the value on Date of Policy of each separate parcel to the whole, exclusive of any improvements made subsequent to Date of Policy, unless a liability or value has otherwise been agreed upon as to each parcel by the Company and the insured at the time of the issuance of this policy and shown by an express statement or by an endorsement attached to this policy.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

(a) If the Company establishes the title, or removes the alleged defect, lien or encumbrance, or cures the lack of a right of access to or from the land, or cures the claim of unmarketability of title, all as insured, in a reasonably diligent manner by any method, including litigation and the completion of any appeals therefrom, it shall have fully performed its obligations with respect to that matter and shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused thereby.

(b) In the event of any litigation, including litigation by the Company or with the Company's consent, the Company shall have no liability for loss or damage until there has been a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction, and disposition of all appeals therefrom, adverse to the title as insured.

(c) The Company shall not be liable for loss or damage to any insured for liability voluntarily assumed by the insured in settling any claim or suit without the prior written consent of the Company.

10. REDUCTION OF INSURANCE; REDUCTION OR TERMINATION OF LIABILITY.

All payments under this policy, except payments made for costs, attorneys' fees and expenses, shall reduce the amount of the insurance pro tanto.

11. LIABILITY NONCUMULATIVE

It is expressly understood that the amount of insurance under this policy shall be reduced by any amount the Company may pay under any policy insuring a mortgage to which exception is taken in Schedule B or to which the insured has agreed, assumed, or taken subject, or which is hereafter executed by an insured and which is a charge or lien on the estate or interest described or referred to in Schedule A, and the amount so paid shall be deemed a payment under this policy to the insured owner.

12. PAYMENT OF LOSS.

(a) No payment shall be made without producing this policy for endorsement of the payment unless the policy has been lost or destroyed, in which case proof of loss or destruction shall be furnished to the satisfaction of the Company.

(b) When liability and the extent of loss or damage has been definitely fixed in accordance with these Conditions and Stipulations, the loss or damage shall be payable within 30 days thereafter.

13. SUBROGATION UPON PAYMENT OR SETTLEMENT.

(a) The Company's Right of Subrogation.

Whenever the Company shall have settled and paid a claim under this policy, all right of subrogation shall vest in the Company unaffected by any act of the insured claimant.

The Company shall be subrogated to and be entitled to all rights and remedies which the insured claimant would have had against any person or property in respect to the claim had this policy not been issued. If requested by the Company, the insured claimant shall transfer to the Company all rights and remedies against any person or property necessary in order to perfect this right of subrogation. The insured claimant shall permit the Company to sue, compromise or settle in the name of the insured claimant and to use the name of the insured claimant in any transaction or litigation involving these rights or remedies.

If a payment on account of a claim does not fully cover the loss of the insured claimant, the Company shall be subrogated to these rights and remedies in the proportion which the Company's payment bears to the whole amount of the loss.

If loss should result from any act of the insured claimant, as stated above, that act shall not void this policy, but the Company, in that event, shall be required to pay only that part of any losses insured against by this policy which shall exceed the amount, if any, lost to the Company by reason of the impairment by the insured claimant of the Company's right of subrogation.

(b) The Company's Rights Against Non-insured Obligors.

The Company's right of subrogation against non-insured obligors shall exist and shall include, without limitation, the rights of the insured to indemnities, guaranties, other policies of insurance or bonds, notwithstanding any terms or conditions contained in those instruments which provide for subrogation rights by reason of this policy.

14. ARBITRATION

Unless prohibited by applicable law, either the Company or the insured may demand arbitration pursuant to the Title Insurance Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Arbitrable matters may include, but are not limited to, any controversy or claim between the Company and the insured arising out of or relating to this policy, any service of the Company in connection with its issuance or the breach of a policy provision or other obligation. All arbitrable matters when the Amount of Insurance is $1,000,000 or less shall be arbitrated at the option of either the Company or the insured. All arbitrable matters when the Amount of Insurance is in excess of $1,000,000 shall be arbitrated only when agreed to by both the Company and the insured. Arbitration pursuant to this policy and under the Rules in effect on the date the demand for arbitration is made or, at the option of the insured, the Rules in effect at Date of Policy shall be binding upon the parties. The award may include attorneys' fees only if the laws of the state in which the land is located permit a court to award attorneys' fees to a prevailing party. Judgment upon the award rendered by the Arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

The law of the situs of the land shall apply to an arbitration under the Title Insurance Arbitration Rules.

A copy of the Rules may be obtained from the Company upon request.

15. LIABILITY LIMITED TO THIS POLICY; POLICY ENTIRE CONTRACT.

(a) This policy together with all endorsements, if any, attached hereto by the Company is the entire policy and contract between the insured and the Company. In interpreting any provision of this policy, this policy shall be construed as a whole.

(b) Any claim of loss or damage, whether or not based on negligence, and which arises out of the status of the title to the estate or interest covered hereby or by any action asserting such claim, shall be restricted to this policy.

(c) No amendment of or endorsement to this policy can be made except by a writing endorsed hereon or attached hereto signed by either the President, a Vice President, the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, or validating officer or authorized signatory of the Company.

16. SEVERABILITY.

In the event any provision of the policy is held invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, the policy shall be deemed not to include that provision and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

17. NOTICES, WHERE SENT.

All notices required to be given the Company and any statement in writing required to be furnished the Company shall include the number of this policy and shall be addressed to COMMONWEALTH LAND TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY, 1700 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103.

ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING COMMISSION
OF DRB DECISION DATED JUNE 16, 2004
Project: #1–2632
04DRB-0067 (Major-Bulk Land Variance)
04DRB-00761 (Minor Preliminary and Final Plat Approval)

RESPONSE OF BUILDERS INVESTMENT COMPANY OF NEW MEXICO LTD. CO. TO THE APPEAL FILED BY FELIX RABADI

A. Introduction

This Response is made by Builders Investment Company of New Mexico, Ltd. Co., a New Mexico limited liability company to the appeal filed by Felix Rabadi of the Development Review Board ("DRB") decision, dated June 16, 2004. The Decision approved the request of BIC for a Major Bulk Land Variance and a Minor Preliminary and Final Plat Approval.

Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co. ("BIC), is the owner of approximately 122 acres of undeveloped land located on Paradise Blvd. N.W., between Lyons Blvd. N.W. and Blanda Court N.W. The land is described as Lots 1 and 2 of Paragon Resources. BIC, through its agent, Tierra West, LLC, applied for a major bulk land variance (Application No. 04DRB-00760) and for a minor preliminary and final plat approval (Application No. 04DRB-00761). On June 16, 2004, the DRB approved both applications.

Felix Rabadi ("Rabadi"), an adjacent landowner, appealed the decision of the DRB on July 1, 2004. Rabadi contends that the DRB erred in approving the plat for two reasons. First, Rabadi alleges he is the "owner" of an "equitable interest" in BIC's land. Rabadi contends that since he is not listed on the plat as an equitable owner, the plat is not in compliance with the provisions of Article 14 of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. Rabadi also contends that the plat should not have been approved because BIC had yet to reach an agreement with AMAFCA regarding drainage issues affecting the BIC land.

B. Basis of Appeal.

BIC's applications arise under Article 14, Subdivision Regulations, of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. The scope of an appeal from a decision of the DRB is set forth in § 14-14-8-3. The EPC must determine if there was either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

If neither of these three criteria exist then the EPC must affirm the DRB.

Rabadi does not allege that the DRB acted arbitrarily or capriciously or manifestly abused its discretion when it approved the plat. Rabadi alleges that the DRB improperly applied city ordinances in arriving at its decision to approve the plat. This body should thus confine its inquiry to the issue of whether the DRB erred in applying city ordinances.

C. Response to Arguments Supporting the Appeal.

(1) Rabadi Owns No Equitable Interest in the BIC Land.

Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g) of the Subdivision Regulations, requires that a preliminary plat "list all legal and equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest." Rabadi claims that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land and that since the plat did not list him the DRB erred in approving it. Rabadi further contends that the consent and warranty of title on the plat is defective because he does not approve the plat and because BIC does not own indefeasible title.

The only evidence before the DRB on this issue came, not from Rabadi, but from statements by his attorney, Larry J. Montaño of the Rodey Law Firm. Rabadi, did not produce a written purchase agreement obligating BIC to sell him the 5 acres in question. Rabadi's attorney advised the DRB that he was relying on an oral agreement. BIC disputes that any such agreement and has disputed it since at least 1998. Thus Rabadi has a mere undetermined claim that BIC is obligated to sell him a portion of the BIC land. No court has ruled on his claim. Under no theory can Rabadi be said to have any cognizable interest in the land as of this date.

The only credible evidence before the DRB on the issue of land ownership was the Land America Albuquerque title Company Title Insurance Commitment. Nevertheless, Rabadi asked the DRB to determine his interest in title to the BIC land, and in this appeal he asks this body to make the same determination. Neither this body nor the DRB has the legal authority to make such a determination and to resolve Rabadi's property claim. See, Mechem v. City of Santa Fe, 96 N.M. 668, 671-72 (1981) (holding a "City . . . has no zoning authority beyond that provided by statute," concluding a zoning authority may not regulate personal rights of property ownership rather than use of property); Tevis v. McCrary, 72 N.M. 134, 136 (1963) ("The determination of priority of water rights ... is a judicial function, not administrative."). Rabadi's appeal must, therefore, fail on this point.

Because Rabadi does not have any interest in the title to the BIC land that is legally cognizable by the DRB and this body, Rabadi is not an equitable owner of the BIC land within the meaning of §§ 14-14-3-4 and 14-14-3-5. If this body reaches a different conclusion any person wanting to stop a subdivision could come before the DRB and EPC and simply assert the existence of an unrecorded interest in land, thereby thwarting the subdivision process.

Nevertheless, it is instructive to look closely at the merits of Rabadi's claim that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land. After close scrutiny it is apparent that Rabadi has no legitimate claim of ownership.

Rabadi's claim initially arose out of a written Agreement dated September, 1996, between Rabadi, Signature J Homes, Inc. and R.J. Schaefer. At the time it was contemplated that Signature J and Schaefer would acquire the land from Paragon Resources, Inc. Pursuant to the Agreement, Schaefer and Signature J Homes agreed, that if they acquired the land, they would sell to Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land if they were able to obtain an approved subdivision plat within 18 months. Rabadi crossed out the part of the Agreement relating to the 18 month limitation. At the DRB hearing, H. Griffin Pickard, Jr., president of Signature J Homes, and R.J. Schaefer both testified that they did not agreed to the alteration of the Agreement made by Rabadi. Thus, because there was no meeting of the minds, no binding agreement came into existence in 1996. By making his acceptance conditioned on a different term, Rabadi made a counteroffer to signature J and Schaefer, which was accepted by neither of them and thus there was no real estate contract between the parties. Corr v. Brasch, 97 N.M. 279 (1981).

Rabadi knew there was no agreement in 1998 as evidenced by a letter to Griff Pickard, dated May 14, 1998, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A".

Rabadi's attorney, Larry Montaño , testified that Rabadi was not relying on the September 1996 Agreement but on a later oral agreement that ratified and affirmed the 1996 Agreement. Mr. Montaño misled the DRB concerning the alleged oral agreement. First, his description of the alleged oral agreement led the DRB to believe that the discussions leading to the oral agreement were close in time to the original 1996 Agreement. He further misled the DRB when he testified that Manual Lujan would verify that BIC has agreed to honor the 1996 Agreement and sell Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land.

The discussions with Rabadi and Mr. Lujan took place between December 2003 and June of 2004. Mr. Lujan wrote to Griff Pickard on December 23, 2003, confirming a meeting and outlining Rabadi's offer. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "B." On January 6, 2004, Rabadi expanded the terms of a proposed agreement. At copy of Rabadi's letter to Mr. Lujan, dated January 6, 2004 is attached as Exhibit "C." By letter dated January 12, 2004, BIC responded to Rabadi's offers. A copy of BIC's January 12, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "D." Rabadi rejected the terms of BIC's response as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's January 19, 2004, letter, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "E." An agreement still had not been reached. The negotiations continued into March of 2004, as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's letter to Griff Pickard dated March 30, 2004, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "F." By letter dated April 5, 2004, BIC confirmed to Mr. Lujan that no agreement had been reached. A copy of the April5, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "G." BIC's letter of April 5, 2004, clearly belies any contention that the parties had reached an agreement. To further underscore this fact, in June Rabadi asserted a claim under the 1996 Agreement. BIC responded by letter of June 18, 2004, denying any such agreement existed and confirming that there was no agreement between the parties for the purchase of the 5 acres. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "H."

It is under these circumstances that Rabadi claims to be an "equitable owner" of 5 acres of the BIC land. Before his claim can ripen into an actual interest a court must rule on the merits of his claim. Based upon the foregoing, Rabadi will almost certainly fail, as Rabadi will never be able to establish the existence of any agreement with BIC..

The Subdivision Regulations do not define the terms legal and equitable owner." Assuming that the term includes the purchaser under a purchase agreement to purchase land (as opposed to a real estate contract or conditional sale contract), Rabadi claim must fail because he has no binding purchase agreement or legally cognizable right to purchase the 5 acres..

The DRB found that BIC is the fee simple owner of the BIC land, basing its finding on a Title Insurance Commitment issued by Land America Albuquerque Title Company, dated June 8, 2004. This finding is supported by substantial evidence and should be affirmed by the EPC.

(2) The DRB Did Not Err by Making the Plat Contingent on AMAFCA Approval.

Rabadi and his attorney have overlooked the fact that BIC's applications arose, not under Part 3 of the Revised Ordinances but under the bulk land variance provisions pursuant to Part 6 of the Subdivision Regulations, § 14-14-6-1 et seq. The purpose of Part 6 is to give the Development Review Board the authority to "vary the provisions of Part 3 [Procedures and Submission Requirements for Plats] of this article, Minimum Standards for the Design of Subdivision and the Development Process Manual." Section 2 of the Development Review Manual, Subdivisions, discusses variances under the heading "Subdivision Waiver or Variance." Clearly it is the policy and procedure of the City to allow variances, especially for bulk land plats. The Development Review Manual contemplates variances from AMAFCA requirements, even in the final plat.

The plat in question is a bulk-land plat. The actual use of the BIC land will not commence prior to further subdivision of the separately platted components of the BIC land under the approved plat. The DRB made the findings necessary to support its decision to grant the bulk land variance. The AMAFCA signature on the preliminary plat was never necessary and has not been waived on the final plat. Contrary to Rabadi's assertions AMAFCA signed the plat on July 14, 2004.

Rabadi's appeal on this issue must fail.

D. Conclusion.

Rabadi does not contend that either the bulk-land variance or the bulk land plat fail to meet the criteria of the Subdivision Regulations. He does not argue that the merits of the applications are defective. It is clear to BIC, and it should be clear to this body, that Rabadi's appeal is filed solely to delay BIC's use of the BIC land in an attempt to force BIC to sell Rabadi 5 acres of land at a below market price. This is made strikingly clear by Rabadi's statement that he "will not consent [to the AMAFCA plan] until the ownership issue is resolved." Reason's For Appeal, p. 4. This body should not countenance Rabadi's misuse of the appeal process.

Rabadi has not established and cannot establish that the DRB either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

The EPC should affirm the DRB's decision.

Respectfully submitted,

This is to inform you that I am not happy with our last meeting because you have changed your mind and decided not to honor the agreement which I made with you and R. G. Schaffer.

Based on that agreement I have released PNM and I proved the sale of the property to you.

I would like to remind you when I called you two weeks prior to the expiration of the sales agreement to renew as you promised. You said nobody could do anything now anyway. So let us wait when the time comes that we be able to develope the property.

I would like to ask you to reconsider your decision and honor the agreement. Please respond in 10 working days.

Sincerely Yours,

From: Manuel Lujan, Jr.

After our meeting in Santa Fe, I contacted Felix Rabadi regarding the 5 acres he wants to buy from you. What he agrees to do is as follows:

1. He will pay you $175,000 for the 5 acres ($35.00 per acre).
2. He will pay his share ($173,916.00) of the infrastructure development costs.
3. He will give you an option to buy all or part of the developed lots at a price which is acceptable to both of you. His intention is to see what another legitimate builder in the area (such as Fuller) and give you the option to match the price. The offer to see it in parts he defines as selling 20% or 25% of the lots each time.
4. He wants assurance that the utilities that you will construct on your property be built up to his property line so he can hook up to them.
5. Felix agrees to move the easement to the middle of his property and he tells me that your son and son-in-law had agreed to pay him $100,000.00.
6. He wants to enter this agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

To: Mr. Manuel Lujan, Jr.

From: Felix Rabadi

After discussing the sale agreement with my attorney, I outline the following items. If this is acceptable to Mr. Pickard, we will proceed.

* $40,000.00 purchase price for lots 45 by 105 square foot larger lots to be priced as per square foot.
* 5 closings as follows:
  a. 1st closing lot 1 through 30 with no lot selection
  b. 2nd closing lot 31 through 60 six months later with no lot selection
  c. 3rd closing lot 61 through 90
  d. 4th closing lot 91 through 120
  e. 5th closing lot 121 through 150

  This will give purchaser 21/2 years to close on all lots.
* If any lots sold to builder above the cost which the purchaser paid, the difference shall be paid to seller (Felix Rabadi). If seller found a higher price for the lots by any other builder, buyer must match that price.
* The purchase price shall increase by eight percent (8%) per annum.
* Buyer shall deposit with First American Title Company the sum of One hundred and twenty thousand dollars (120,000.00) as Earnest Money. The Earnest Money shall be in favor of the Buyer until substantial completion has been agreed upon. At such time, the Earnest Money shall be released to Felix Rabadi. The Earnest Money escrow deposit is Non-Refundable. The Earnest Money shall, however, be refunded to the Buyer as a One Thousand dollar ($1,000.00) credit against the Lot Sales Price of the each on the One hundred fifty (150) lots purchased under this agreement.
* Fences, Walls, and Sidewalks are the sole responsibility of Mr.Pickard. All walls and fences are to be built prior to construction.
* Felix will purchase five (5) acres or more at $35,000 per acre and will pay his share of 173,916.00 for the Infrastructure development costs. Which will be deducted from the first sale.
* All utilities will be constructed on the property and will be brought up to Felix's property line.
* Will trade land for easement from the West side to the Middle of the Property at no cost to M Pickard or M. Rabadi.
* Will enter this agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

RE: 5-Acre Paragon Property Purchase & Agreement to Purchase Finished Lots

In response to your memo dated January 6, 2004, Builders Investment Company agrees to the following deal points. This memo does not bind either party for both of the deals described herein; but is to be used as a good faith effort to construct both deals. Once the major deal points have been agreed upon, a final set of contracts will be written. With regard to earnest money on both deals, Builders Investment Company believes that because this whole deal has been done on good faith, and that there should be no earnest money requirement for either deal.

The deal shall be broken down into the following two separate agreements.

I. Rabadi to purchase 5 acres from Builders Investment Company
   A. Purchase Price: $35,000 per acre
   B. Closing: As Soon As Possible (To be clarified by Rabadi)
   C. Both parties agree to trade and record entrance easements off of Paradise. Any difference in land area shall be made up to the other party at $35,000 / acre.
   D. Rabadi to pay his pro-rata share of infrastructure costs through whatever method Ron Bohanan deems necessary. This amount is estimated to be no less than $173,916; but could be more.
   E. Closing on this transaction to take place at Albuquerque Title w/ Diana Stoneburger.
   F. The minimum amount of utilities will be brought to the new property line by Builders Investment Company in order to facilitate the development of the Rabadi subdivision. Builders Investment Company will eventually complete all of the final utilities and infrastructure as needed by our development-phasing plan for the whole tract and will not impede Rabadi's development.
   G. The lay out of this transaction is shown in the plat that is attached to this outline.
   H. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

(Builders Investment Company is wiling to do the deal listed above if Mr. Rabadi is willing to do the deal listed below.)

II. Builders Investment Company to purchase all of Rabadi's finished lots
   A. Purchase Price: To be determined by appraisal for each size lot. Once a contract for these lots has been signed the deal is done even if Rabadi finds a higher price for the lots from someone else.
   B. Takedown Schedule: 5 takedowns on fully completed lots, 30 lots each, every 6 months. Rabadi to carry / finance each take down for purchaser with financing acceptable to Builders Investment Company.
   C. The lot purchase price shall increase by the prevailing floating prime rate, which will be determined at the time of takedown.
   D. Builders Investment Company will buy the lots less fences, walls and sidewalks except those sidewalks that are off-lot that will be required by the city. The timing of when these will be constructed will be at Builders Investments Companies discretion.
   E. Closing on each of these takedowns will take place at First American Title Company.
   F. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

Re: Felix Rabadi

I visited with Mr. Rabadi and he believes the best way is for each to do their own development, although he still wants the 5 acres.

1. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre plus the $173,916.00 development costs and no easement on:

2. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre and Rabadi agrees to the exchange of easements and does not pay the $173,916.00.

Let me know if either of the above are acceptable to you.

Dear Griff:

I met with Felix Rabadi and he asked me to try one more time to see if an agreement can be worked out. The following is what should be a reasonable solution to the problem:

1- Exchange easement even.
2- BIC will sell Rabadi 5 acres at $35,000.00 each.
3- Rabadi will pay his share of infrastructure development costs.
4- Rabadi will build front wall on Paradise Blvd.
5- Rabadi will pay all cost required at front of property.
6- BIC will build the easement road.
7- BIC will bring utilities to Rabadi property line.
8- Rabadi will pay for the sign at entrance with name of subdivision.
9- Enter into an agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

I hope both parties can work it all out. I can be reached at 259-0517.

RE: Paragon Property

Dear Manuel:

We appreciate your willingness, at Mr. Rabadi's request, to facilitate a mutually acceptable solution between him and us. We feel we have tried in good faith to work out multiple solutions with Mr. Rabadi over the previous year, but to no resolve.

As stated in our letter to him dated March 24, 2004, we have no choice but to continue forward with the development of our property, and that is what we are planning to do. We cannot, for both of our benefits, continue to negotiate with Mr. Rabadi. Our experience with Mr. Rabadi tells us that even if we reach an agreement in principle, it will not be finalized in the details, hence causing further delays.

Our position is simple, we do not believe Mr. Rabadi has any legal right to the 5 acres in dispute, and thus anything we would agree to would be to primarily benefit him, and in your latest memo dated March 30, 2004, we do not see anything that would be to our advantage. Any agreement would have to be to the benefit of both parties.

We, again, thank you for your time and consideration; however, at this time we believe the matter to be closed. We wish Mr. Rabadi the best for his development. He has a valuable piece of property that will make a wonderful development.

Sincerely,

H. Griffin Pickard, Jr.

Hand Delivered

Dear Mr. Rabadi:

We are in receipt of a copy of what you have represented to be a fully executed copy of an Agreement, dated September 10, 1996, wherein Signature J Homes has agreed to sell to you a portion of Tract 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. You are demanding that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co, the owner of Tract 2, perform what you contend is a binding obligation to sell you approximately 5.1683 acres of land.

Please be advised that we reject your demand. We reject your claim that the September 10, 1996, Agreement was ever properly accepted by you and Mr. Schaefer. The Agreement was tendered to you on September 10, 1996, pursuant to a letter from Signature J Homes of that date. In was tendered as an offer, with the requirement that it be executed and returned to Signature J Homes by September 13, 1996. We have no record of ever receiving a fully executed document. Even had you returned the document by September 13, the Agreement was altered by you, (not dated) and there is no record that Signature J Homes ever agreed to the altered terms. As you know, an altered document becomes a counter-offer that must be fully accepted before a binding contract comes into existence.

A couple of other issues to consider are that the purchase agreement you presented as an "Exhibit A" the Signature J Homes contract, between yourself and Jim Green is not valid. Mr. Green was never in title to the property and therefore could not execute his contract. Second, the statute of limitations has expired for a binding written contract to be enforceable. Finally, Mr. Schaefer does not believe that the contract you produced is valid.

We would like to offer any assistance we can on you procuring this approximate five acres, but it will have to be through another means besides this invalid contract.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Watson

Gentlemen:

On August 6, 2004, I delivered to you the response of my client, Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co., to Felix Rabadi's appeal of the decision of the DRB. On page three of the response, I stated that Mr. Rabadi's attorney, Larry Montaño, "misled" the DRB when he testified that Manual Lujan would verify that my client, Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co., had agreed to honor the 1996 Agreement and sell Mr. Rabadi five acres of the Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co. land.

Mr. Montaño has advised me that he took exception to my allegation and interpreted my assertion that his testimony "misled" the DRB as an accusation that he lied. I assured him that it was not my intention to accuse him of lying, and I want the Commission to know that I am not accusing Mr. Montaño of lying or of intentionally misstating any facts. For the record, in my view, there is a big difference between lying and making a misleading argument.

RESPONSE OF BUILDERS INVESTMENT COMPANY OF NEW MEXICO LTD. CO. TO THE APPEAL FILED BY FELIX RABADI

A. Introduction

This Response is made by Builders Investment Company of New Mexico, Ltd. Co., a New Mexico limited liability company to the appeal filed by Felix Rabadi of the Development Review Board ("DRB") decision, dated June 16, 2004. The Decision approved the request of BIC for a Major Bulk Land Variance and a Minor Preliminary and Final Plat Approval.

Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co. ("BIC), is the owner of approximately 122 acres of undeveloped land located on Paradise Blvd. N.W., between Lyons Blvd. N.W. and Blanda Court N.W. The land is described as Lots 1 and 2 of Paragon Resources. BIC, through its agent, Tierra West, LLC, applied for a major bulk land variance (Application No. 04DRB-00760) and for a minor preliminary and final plat approval (Application No. 04DRB-00761). On June 16, 2004, the DRB approved both applications.

Felix Rabadi ("Rabadi"), an adjacent landowner, appealed the decision of the DRB on July 1, 2004. Rabadi contends that the DRB erred in approving the plat for two reasons. First, Rabadi alleges he is the "owner" of an "equitable interest" in BIC's land. Rabadi contends that since he is not listed on the plat as an equitable owner, the plat is not in compliance with the provisions of Article 14 of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. Rabadi also contends that the plat should not have been approved because BIC had yet to reach an agreement with AMAFCA regarding drainage issues affecting the BIC land.

B. Basis of Appeal.

BIC's applications arise under Article 14, Subdivision Regulations, of the City of Albuquerque Revised Ordinances. The scope of an appeal from a decision of the DRB is set forth in § 14-14-8-3. The EPC must determine if there was either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

If neither of these three criteria exist then the EPC must affirm the DRB.

Rabadi does not allege that the DRB acted arbitrarily or capriciously or manifestly abused its discretion when it approved the plat. Rabadi alleges that the DRB improperly applied city ordinances in arriving at its decision to approve the plat. This body should thus confine its inquiry to the issue of whether the DRB erred in applying city ordinances.

C. Response to Arguments Supporting the Appeal.

(1) Rabadi Owns No Equitable Interest in the BIC Land.

Section 14-14-3-4(C)(1)(g) of the Subdivision Regulations, requires that a preliminary plat "list all legal and equitable owners of the real property in question, together with a description of their legal or equitable interest." Rabadi claims that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land and that since the plat did not list him the DRB erred in approving it. Rabadi further contends that the consent and warranty of title on the plat is defective because he does not approve the plat and because BIC does not own indefeasible title.

The only evidence before the DRB on this issue came, not from Rabadi, but from statements by his attorney, Larry J. Montaño of the Rodey Law Firm. Rabadi, did not produce a written purchase agreement obligating BIC to sell him the 5 acres in question. Rabadi's attorney advised the DRB that he was relying on an oral agreement. BIC disputes that any such agreement and has disputed it since at least 1998. Thus Rabadi has a mere undetermined claim that BIC is obligated to sell him a portion of the BIC land. No court has ruled on his claim. Under no theory can Rabadi be said to have any cognizable interest in the land as of this date.

The only credible evidence before the DRB on the issue of land ownership was the Land America Albuquerque title Company Title Insurance Commitment. Nevertheless, Rabadi asked the DRB to determine his interest in title to the BIC land, and in this appeal he asks this body to make the same determination. Neither this body nor the DRB has the legal authority to make such a determination and to resolve Rabadi's property claim. See, Mechem v. City of Santa Fe, 96 N.M. 668, 671-72 (1981) (holding a "City . . . has no zoning authority beyond that provided by statute," concluding a zoning authority may not regulate personal rights of property ownership rather than use of property); Tevis v. McCrary, 72 N.M. 134, 136 (1963) ("The determination of priority of water rights ... is a judicial function, not administrative."). Rabadi's appeal must, therefore, fail on this point.

Because Rabadi does not have any interest in the title to the BIC land that is legally cognizable by the DRB and this body, Rabadi is not an equitable owner of the BIC land within the meaning of §§ 14-14-3-4 and 14-14-3-5. If this body reaches a different conclusion any person wanting to stop a subdivision could come before the DRB and EPC and simply assert the existence of an unrecorded interest in land, thereby thwarting the subdivision process.

Nevertheless, it is instructive to look closely at the merits of Rabadi's claim that he is an equitable owner of the BIC land. After close scrutiny it is apparent that Rabadi has no legitimate claim of ownership.

Rabadi's claim initially arose out of a written Agreement dated September, 1996, between Rabadi, Signature J Homes, Inc. and R.J. Schaefer. At the time it was contemplated that Signature J and Schaefer would acquire the land from Paragon Resources, Inc. Pursuant to the Agreement, Schaefer and Signature J Homes agreed, that if they acquired the land, they would sell to Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land if they were able to obtain an approved subdivision plat within 18 months. Rabadi crossed out the part of the Agreement relating to the 18 month limitation. At the DRB hearing, H. Griffin Pickard, Jr., president of Signature J Homes, and R.J. Schaefer both testified that they did not agreed to the alteration of the Agreement made by Rabadi. Thus, because there was no meeting of the minds, no binding agreement came into existence in 1996. By making his acceptance conditioned on a different term, Rabadi made a counteroffer to signature J and Schaefer, which was accepted by neither of them and thus there was no real estate contract between the parties. Corr v. Brasch, 97 N.M. 279 (1981).

Rabadi knew there was no agreement in 1998 as evidenced by a letter to Griff Pickard, dated May 14, 1998, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A".

Rabadi's attorney, Larry Montaño , testified that Rabadi was not relying on the September 1996 Agreement but on a later oral agreement that ratified and affirmed the 1996 Agreement. Mr. Montaño misled the DRB concerning the alleged oral agreement. First, his description of the alleged oral agreement led the DRB to believe that the discussions leading to the oral agreement were close in time to the original 1996 Agreement. He further misled the DRB when he testified that Manual Lujan would verify that BIC has agreed to honor the 1996 Agreement and sell Rabadi 5 acres of the BIC land.

The discussions with Rabadi and Mr. Lujan took place between December 2003 and June of 2004. Mr. Lujan wrote to Griff Pickard on December 23, 2003, confirming a meeting and outlining Rabadi's offer. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "B." On January 6, 2004, Rabadi expanded the terms of a proposed agreement. At copy of Rabadi's letter to Mr. Lujan, dated January 6, 2004 is attached as Exhibit "C." By letter dated January 12, 2004, BIC responded to Rabadi's offers. A copy of BIC's January 12, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "D." Rabadi rejected the terms of BIC's response as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's January 19, 2004, letter, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "E." An agreement still had not been reached. The negotiations continued into March of 2004, as evidenced by Mr. Lujan's letter to Griff Pickard dated March 30, 2004, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "F." By letter dated April 5, 2004, BIC confirmed to Mr. Lujan that no agreement had been reached. A copy of the April5, 2004, letter is attached as Exhibit "G." BIC's letter of April 5, 2004, clearly belies any contention that the parties had reached an agreement. To further underscore this fact, in June Rabadi asserted a claim under the 1996 Agreement. BIC responded by letter of June 18, 2004, denying any such agreement existed and confirming that there was no agreement between the parties for the purchase of the 5 acres. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit "H."

It is under these circumstances that Rabadi claims to be an "equitable owner" of 5 acres of the BIC land. Before his claim can ripen into an actual interest a court must rule on the merits of his claim. Based upon the foregoing, Rabadi will almost certainly fail, as Rabadi will never be able to establish the existence of any agreement with BIC..

The Subdivision Regulations do not define the terms legal and equitable owner." Assuming that the term includes the purchaser under a purchase agreement to purchase land (as opposed to a real estate contract or conditional sale contract), Rabadi claim must fail because he has no binding purchase agreement or legally cognizable right to purchase the 5 acres..

The DRB found that BIC is the fee simple owner of the BIC land, basing its finding on a Title Insurance Commitment issued by Land America Albuquerque Title Company, dated June 8, 2004. This finding is supported by substantial evidence and should be affirmed by the EPC.

(2) The DRB Did Not Err by Making the Plat Contingent on AMAFCA Approval.

Rabadi and his attorney have overlooked the fact that BIC's applications arose, not under Part 3 of the Revised Ordinances but under the bulk land variance provisions pursuant to Part 6 of the Subdivision Regulations, § 14-14-6-1 et seq. The purpose of Part 6 is to give the Development Review Board the authority to "vary the provisions of Part 3 [Procedures and Submission Requirements for Plats] of this article, Minimum Standards for the Design of Subdivision and the Development Process Manual." Section 2 of the Development Review Manual, Subdivisions, discusses variances under the heading "Subdivision Waiver or Variance." Clearly it is the policy and procedure of the City to allow variances, especially for bulk land plats. The Development Review Manual contemplates variances from AMAFCA requirements, even in the final plat.

The plat in question is a bulk-land plat. The actual use of the BIC land will not commence prior to further subdivision of the separately platted components of the BIC land under the approved plat. The DRB made the findings necessary to support its decision to grant the bulk land variance. The AMAFCA signature on the preliminary plat was never necessary and has not been waived on the final plat. Contrary to Rabadi's assertions AMAFCA signed the plat on July 14, 2004.

Rabadi's appeal on this issue must fail.

D. Conclusion.

Rabadi does not contend that either the bulk-land variance or the bulk land plat fail to meet the criteria of the Subdivision Regulations. He does not argue that the merits of the applications are defective. It is clear to BIC, and it should be clear to this body, that Rabadi's appeal is filed solely to delay BIC's use of the BIC land in an attempt to force BIC to sell Rabadi 5 acres of land at a below market price. This is made strikingly clear by Rabadi's statement that he "will not consent [to the AMAFCA plan] until the ownership issue is resolved." Reason's For Appeal, p. 4. This body should not countenance Rabadi's misuse of the appeal process.

Rabadi has not established and cannot establish that the DRB either:

(A) Error in applying adopted city plans, policies and ordinances in arriving at the decision;

(B) Error in the appealed action or decision, including its stated facts; or

(C) Error in acting arbitrarily or capriciously or being manifestly abusive of discretion.

The EPC should affirm the DRB's decision.

Respectfully submitted,

This is to inform you that I am not happy with our last meeting because you have changed your mind and decided not to honor the agreement which I made with you and R. G. Schaffer.

Based on that agreement I have released PNM and I proved the sale of the property to you.

I would like to remind you when I called you two weeks prior to the expiration of the sales agreement to renew as you promised. You said nobody could do anything now anyway. So let us wait when the time comes that we be able to develope the property.

I would like to ask you to reconsider your decision and honor the agreement. Please respond in 10 working days.

Sincerely Yours,

After our meeting in Santa Fe, I contacted Felix Rabadi regarding the 5 acres he wants to buy from you. What he agrees to do is as follows:

1. He will pay you $175,000 for the 5 acres ($35.00 per acre).
2. He will pay his share ($173,916.00) of the infrastructure development costs.
3. He will give you an option to buy all or part of the developed lots at a price which is acceptable to both of you. His intention is to see what another legitimate builder in the area (such as Fuller) and give you the option to match the price. The offer to see it in parts he defines as selling 20% or 25% of the lots each time.
4. He wants assurance that the utilities that you will construct on your property be built up to his property line so he can hook up to them.
5. Felix agrees to move the easement to the middle of his property and he tells me that your son and son-in-law had agreed to pay him $100,000.00.
6. He wants to enter this agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

RE: 5-Acre Paragon Property Purchase & Agreement to Purchase Finished Lots

In response to your memo dated January 6, 2004, Builders Investment Company agrees to the following deal points. This memo does not bind either party for both of the deals described herein; but is to be used as a good faith effort to construct both deals. Once the major deal points have been agreed upon, a final set of contracts will be written. With regard to earnest money on both deals, Builders Investment Company believes that because this whole deal has been done on good faith, and that there should be no earnest money requirement for either deal.

The deal shall be broken down into the following two separate agreements.

I. Rabadi to purchase 5 acres from Builders Investment Company
   A. Purchase Price: $35,000 per acre
   B. Closing: As Soon As Possible (To be clarified by Rabadi)
   C. Both parties agree to trade and record entrance easements off of Paradise. Any difference in land area shall be made up to the other party at $35,000 / acre.
   D. Rabadi to pay his pro-rata share of infrastructure costs through whatever method Ron Bohanan deems necessary. This amount is estimated to be no less than $173,916; but could be more.
   E. Closing on this transaction to take place at Albuquerque Title w/ Diana Stoneburger.
   F. The minimum amount of utilities will be brought to the new property line by Builders Investment Company in order to facilitate the development of the Rabadi subdivision. Builders Investment Company will eventually complete all of the final utilities and infrastructure as needed by our development-phasing plan for the whole tract and will not impede Rabadi's development.
   G. The lay out of this transaction is shown in the plat that is attached to this outline.
   H. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

(Builders Investment Company is wiling to do the deal listed above if Mr. Rabadi is willing to do the deal listed below.)

II. Builders Investment Company to purchase all of Rabadi's finished lots
   A. Purchase Price: To be determined by appraisal for each size lot. Once a contract for these lots has been signed the deal is done even if Rabadi finds a higher price for the lots from someone else.
   B. Takedown Schedule: 5 takedowns on fully completed lots, 30 lots each, every 6 months. Rabadi to carry / finance each take down for purchaser with financing acceptable to Builders Investment Company.
   C. The lot purchase price shall increase by the prevailing floating prime rate, which will be determined at the time of takedown.
   D. Builders Investment Company will buy the lots less fences, walls and sidewalks except those sidewalks that are off-lot that will be required by the city. The timing of when these will be constructed will be at Builders Investments Companies discretion.
   E. Closing on each of these takedowns will take place at First American Title Company.
   F. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

Re: Felix Rabadi

I visited with Mr. Rabadi and he believes the best way is for each to do their own development, although he still wants the 5 acres.

1. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre plus the $173,916.00 development costs and no easement on:

2. Rabadi purchase the 5 acres at $35,000.00 per acre and Rabadi agrees to the exchange of easements and does not pay the $173,916.00.

Let me know if either of the above are acceptable to you.

Dear Griff:

I met with Felix Rabadi and he asked me to try one more time to see if an agreement can be worked out. The following is what should be a reasonable solution to the problem:

1- Exchange easement even.
2- BIC will sell Rabadi 5 acres at $35,000.00 each.
3- Rabadi will pay his share of infrastructure development costs.
4- Rabadi will build front wall on Paradise Blvd.
5- Rabadi will pay all cost required at front of property.
6- BIC will build the easement road.
7- BIC will bring utilities to Rabadi property line.
8- Rabadi will pay for the sign at entrance with name of subdivision.
9- Enter into an agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

I hope both parties can work it all out. I can be reached at 259-0517.

Very truly yours,

RE: Paragon Property

Dear Manuel:

We appreciate your willingness, at Mr. Rabadi's request, to facilitate a mutually acceptable solution between him and us. We feel we have tried in good faith to work out multiple solutions with Mr. Rabadi over the previous year, but to no resolve.

As stated in our letter to him dated March 24, 2004, we have no choice but to continue forward with the development of our property, and that is what we are planning to do. We cannot, for both of our benefits, continue to negotiate with Mr. Rabadi. Our experience with Mr. Rabadi tells us that even if we reach an agreement in principle, it will not be finalized in the details, hence causing further delays.

Our position is simple, we do not believe Mr. Rabadi has any legal right to the 5 acres in dispute, and thus anything we would agree to would be to primarily benefit him, and in your latest memo dated March 30, 2004, we do not see anything that would be to our advantage. Any agreement would have to be to the benefit of both parties.

We, again, thank you for your time and consideration; however, at this time we believe the matter to be closed. We wish Mr. Rabadi the best for his development. He has a valuable piece of property that will make a wonderful development.

Sincerely,

H. Griffin Pickard, Jr.

Hand Delivered

Dear Mr. Rabadi:

We are in receipt of a copy of what you have represented to be a fully executed copy of an Agreement, dated September 10, 1996, wherein Signature J Homes has agreed to sell to you a portion of Tract 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. You are demanding that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd Co, the owner of Tract 2, perform what you contend is a binding obligation to sell you approximately 5.1683 acres of land.

Please be advised that we reject your demand. We reject your claim that the September 10, 1996, Agreement was ever properly accepted by you and Mr. Schaefer. The Agreement was tendered to you on September 10, 1996, pursuant to a letter from Signature J Homes of that date. In was tendered as an offer, with the requirement that it be executed and returned to Signature J Homes by September 13, 1996. We have no record of ever receiving a fully executed document. Even had you returned the document by September 13, the Agreement was altered by you, (not dated) and there is no record that Signature J Homes ever agreed to the altered terms. As you know, an altered document becomes a counter-offer that must be fully accepted before a binding contract comes into existence.

A couple of other issues to consider are that the purchase agreement you presented as an "Exhibit A" the Signature J Homes contract, between yourself and Jim Green is not valid. Mr. Green was never in title to the property and therefore could not execute his contract. Second, the statute of limitations has expired for a binding written contract to be enforceable. Finally, Mr. Schaefer does not believe that the contract you produced is valid.

We would like to offer any assistance we can on you procuring this approximate five acres, but it will have to be through another means besides this invalid contract.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Watson

"NOTICE OF SUBDIVISION PLAT CONDITIONS"
Tracts 1 and 2
Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc.

The plat of Tracts 1 and 2 Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. has been granted a variance or waiver from certain subdivision requirements pursuant to Section 7 of the City of Albuquerque Subdivision Ordinance.

Future subdivision of lands within this plat, site development plan approvals, and development permits may be conditioned upon dedication of rights-of-way and easements, and/or upon infrastructure improvements by the owner for water, sanitary sewer, streets, drainage, grading and parks in accordance with current resolutions, ordinances and policies in effect at the time for any specific proposal.

Certain easements for access, utilities and drainage control may be modified, replaced or removed, at the option of the City of Albuquerque, pending future platting and submittals which conform to a more complete or improved routing of those facilities. The rights as granted, however, are to remain until such subsequent modification of location and purpose, if any.

By its approval of this subdivision the City makes no representation or warranties as to availability of utilities, or final approval of all requirements including (but not limited to) the following items; Water and sanitary sewer availability; future street dedications and/or improvements; park and open space requirements; drainage requirements and/or improvements; and, excavation, filling, or grading requirements. Any person intending development of lands within this subdivision is cautioned to investigate the status of these items.

At such time as all such conditions have been satisfactorily met, the City Engineer shall approve a recordable document, removing such conditions from all or from a portion of the area within the subject subdivision.

AFFIDAVIT

Robert L. Swartwout, President of New Mexico Utilities, Inc., ("NMU") formerly known as Paradise Community Services, Inc. and successor-in-interest to Paradise Services Corporation ("Paradisa Services") and Western Pacific Sanitation Co. ("Western Pacific"), in order to clarify the purpose of a Water Service Agreement dated January 20, 1961 executed by Paradise Services and a Sewer System Agreement executed by Western Pacific dated January 14, 1961, both recorded in the real property records of Bernalillo County and which impose certain obligations on developers, states upon his oath as follows:

WATER SERVICE AGREEMENT

1. NMU provides water and regulated sewage collection and disposal service to consumers living within the area generally known as Paradise Hills within Bernalillo County, New Mexico.

2. Paradise Services, a New Mexico corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Pacific, and predecessor in interest to Paradise Community Services, Inc. entered into a Water System Agreement with Horizon-Albuquerque Properties Corp. and Paradise International Corp. (sometimes referred to herein as "Developer") dated January 20, 1961 and recorded on September 20, 1961 in Book 35, page 559 of the real property records of Bernalillo County (the "Water Agreement").

3. Under the terms of the Water Agreement, Paradise Services, (sometimes referred to herein as the "Water Company") agreed to construct, operate, manage and maintain a water system for land which was being developed by Developer, its successors and assigns which land is further described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and is referred to herein as the "Property."

4. The Water Agreement obligates Developer, its successors and assigns, to (1) prohibit by deed restriction, the installation, maintenance or use of a private water system on any of the Property unless the owner constructs his own residence on a lot of 40 acres or more; (2) provide water rights and (3) provide easements, at no cost to the Water Company, for installing distribution and supply lines and pump stations

5. Most of the terms of the Water Agreement relating to the construction of a water system and the acquisition of necessary water rights have been satisfied. However, the Water Agreement continues to obligate the Developer, its successors and assigns, to provide easements, at no cost to the Water Company, to be used exclusively for the purpose of installing distribution and supply mains and pump stations and to prohibit, by proper tract or deed restriction, the installation, maintenance or use of a private water system on any of the Property except on a temporary basis with the written approval of the Water Company.

6. The obligations on Developer described in Paragraphs 3 and 4 have now been incorporated into the Water and Wastewater Agreement to be entered into by and between NMU and a developer of the Property or any other property in NMU's service territory which may be obtained at the offices of New Mexico Utilities, Inc., 4700 Irving Blvd., N.E., Suite 201, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87114.

7. NMU succeeded to the rights and obligations of Paradise Services Corporation as discussed in Paragraphs 12, 13 and 14 herein.

SEWER SERVICE AGREEMENT

8. Western Pacific, a Nevada corporation, entered into a Sewer System Agreement with Horizon-Albuquerque Properties Corp. and Paradise International Corp. dated January 14, 1961 and recorded on September 20, 1961 in Book MS35, page 527 of the real property records of Bernalillo County (the "Sewer Agreement").

9. Under the terms of the Sewer Agreement, Western Pacific (sometimes referred to herein as the "Sewer Company") agreed to design, construct, operate and maintain a complete sewer system for the use and benefit of the Property. The Sewer Agreement obligates Developer, its successors and assigns, to (1) prohibit by deed or tract restriction, the installation or use of any cesspool, septic tank, or similar disposal of sewage methods on any of the Property unless the owner constructs his own residence on a lot of 40 acres or more and desires to maintain thereon a cesspool, septic tank or similar disposal sewage method for the exclusive use of such residents; and (2) provide easements, at no cost to the Sewer Company, for installing and maintaining sewage lift stations and sewer mains, and trunk and collection lines.

10. Most of the terms of the Sewer Agreement relating to the construction of a sewer system have been satisfied. However, the Sewer Agreement continues to obligate the Developer, its successors and assigns, to provide easements, at no cost to the Sewer Company, to be used exclusively for the purpose of installing and maintaining sewage lift stations and sewer mains and to prohibit, by proper tract or deed restriction, the installation, maintenance or use of cesspools, septic tanks or similar disposal of sewage methods on any of the Property except on a temporary basis with the written approval of the Sewer Company.

11. Western Pacific was the parent company of Paradise Services Corporation. On July 1, 1961 Western Pacific by bill of sale assigned all of its right, title and interest in and to all of the facilities useful and necessary to provide water service and waste water disposal service to Paradise Services Corporation and appointed Paradise Services Corporation as operating agent of all the facilities and instructed Paradise Services Corporation to comply with the terms and conditions of the Sewer Services Agreement. Paradise Services Corporation agreed to comply.

12. On July 25, 1961, Developer agreed that the operation of the water and sewer systems should be conducted by Paradise Services Corporation. Developer further agreed that Paradise Services Corporation could exercise any of the rights, privileges, powers, or immunities contained in both the Sewer Agreement as supplemented and amended and the Water System Agreement.

13. In 1969, Paradise Services Corporation conveyed all of its assets, certifications and rights to Paradise Community Services, Inc. and on February 18, 1969, the New Mexico Public Service Commission in NMPSC Case No. 936 approved the sale.

14. On May 31, 1979, Paradise Community Services, Inc. changed its name to New Mexico Utilities, Inc.

15. The obligations of the Sewer Company have been assumed by NMU.

16. The obligations on Developer described in Paragraphs 9 and 10 have now been incorporated into the Water and Wastewater Agreement to be entered into by and between NMU and a developer of the Property or any other property in NMU's service territory which may be obtained at the offices of New Mexico Utilities, Inc., 4700 Irving Blvd., N.E., Suite 201, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87114.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

CITY STAFF PRESENT:
Kevin Curran, Assistant City Attorney

CHAIR MATSON: Should I ask that all the parties involved in Agenda Item #4 come forward so that you can be sworn in and sit up here in case you have any testimony you'd like to give. Okay, we're on Agenda #4, Project # 1002632.

MS. SENOVA: If you'd all raise your right hands, please. Do you swear and affirm to tell the truth?

ALL WERE SWORN IN

CHAIR MATSON: All I'm going to ask is that as each one of you speaks that you'll please identify yourselves. If you're an attorney, from which firm; if you're a property owner, etc., just put that into the record. Whenever you're ready, just go ahead.

MR. BOHANNAN: Madam Chair, thank you. This is a continuance of the hearing last week on a bulk land plat for Sundance Estates. We had asked for a week deferral to make some additional comments to the bulk land plat which we have done. We have also provided to the staff a copy of a Title Commitment with copies of the deeds for the property that show that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico is the sole ownership of this. I also would like to enter into the record a copy of a letter from Mr. Larry Medrano, who's our surveyor on that, indicating that he has looked at both parcels and has not found any encroachments with the adjoining parcels on this property as well. With that, we'll be more than happy to answer any questions that the staff may have.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. BOHANNAN: I'm going to provide this letter to Claire to put in the file.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, would you make copies for us, please. Now, so that we can look at it. Would you also just go over the project a little bit again so we're clear.

MR. BOHANNAN: The project is a bulk land plat project. We have created 5-parcels. Parcel tract labeled number 1 is in approximately a 5-acre tract that is adjoining to the lands that Felix Rabadi owns. That tract was created in anticipation of a land dispute, so it actually is disputed land that Felix Rabadi raised last week.

What we have then is four other parcels that roughly match the phase boundaries that we have on the property that we will begin with various tracts in further subdivisions as we move forward. We have also shown the existing public roadway easements and drainage easements of record. We have not altered those. We will alter those as we go into the development and as the final drainage solution between the overall drainage master plan and the phase developments warrant moving and modifying those easements accordingly.

We've also identified the Unser Boulevard right of way through the property, based on Long Range Major Street Plan and working with the various departments. So, we've handled that. Lastly, Tract 5 that's on the plat is the parcel that the National Park Service is anticipating acquiring for their project as well.

CHAIR MATSON: All right. Did you, I don't recall you stating what the findings were of the title company who did this.

MR. BOHANNAN: The title company has issued a Title Commitment to the property, along with copies of the deeds for the project and it is their opinion that title is insured in Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Limited.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. BOHANNAN: Which we have provided to your office and Kevin Curran, City Attorney's Office.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. We have several people here that are signed up to speak. Does anyone have a preference as to what order I take you in?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: I'll go first.

CHAIR MATSON: You want to be first. Okay. And you are?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: My name is Deacon Steve Rangel from St. Jude Thaddeus Parrish located at 5712 Paradise, and we're the property that's there and we're just concerned about the – any development around us to make sure that the Madam Chair and the board take in consideration our church in any decision that you make for the development around us, to be sensitive to that.

Some of the concerns that are, first of all, was that we weren't aware of what was going on around us. Thank God for Benson and Felix, they've been trying to get me up to speed on what their plans were. Tierra West, Benson's engineer, met with the archdiocese and myself to inform us of what their plans were because we did not have that information.

The things that we brought up that might affect our church, obviously, is the traffic. If you live on the west side, or drive on the west side, it's a major concern and unfortunately, it seems like we're growing faster than the roads are being able to be developed. So, we're asking that you keep that in consideration for the safety of, not just our parishioners, but everybody located around that.

They proposed a road to go through – to not go through Felix's property, which we are all for. If you look at the plans, it stops on his property and does not go all the way to Paradise Hills. We definitely would like to see that stay that way because of the 600 homes; I guess they're planning on building, feeding into that which is right next to our church. We have services there four times.

One on Saturday, three on Sunday and it gets jammed up now. Backed up real bad, almost all the way to Ventana Ranch, which is a nice distance from our entrance.

The other issue would be a wall around our property. I don't know what the regulations are, if they're 5-feet or 6-feet. We obviously prefer 6-feet to protect our property.

The other concern was a gate so anybody that goes to our church, our service, instead of driving their car, will have access to our service by walking.

CHAIR MATSON: You're talking about a pedestrian gate, then? Is that correct?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: Exactly, so that they could have, and hopefully reduce, some of the parking and traffic. The other issue would be decelerated lanes. I think that's the terminology used, and turning lanes into it again for safety issues, turning in and out of our church during service. So, we just ask the Board to keep that in mind on your decisions on development around our property.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: With regard to the wall, the wall in the front of the church would be limited to 3-feet, but the side and the back are limited to 6-feet now, and what you'll need to do is, if you decide to proceed with that, is to submit a wall design and have it approved and then they'll issue your wall permit for you. And we do have – there is some zone code amendments that you need to comply with in terms of the designing, etc., and we have those available upstairs at the front counter, whenever you decide you want to proceed with that.

MR. BOHANNAN: Madam Chair, if I may.

CHAIR MATSON: Yes.

MR. BOHANNAN: Could – are you – do you have any concerns with the bulk land plat as presented today?

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: No.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay. Madam Chair, all of these issues that were raised, as you are well aware, we will address appropriately when we develop that parcel immediately adjacent to the church.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, but it's good that you are here to let everybody know.

DEACON STEVE RANGEL: I was trying to keep up to speed on what's going on. Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, Mr. Rabadi. You're the next one that's signed up. If you will go over to the microphone, if you have anything you'd like to say now.

MR. RABADI: (Indicated he did not wish to speak.)

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. MONTANO: Good morning, Madam Chair and other members of the DRB. I'm Larry Montano with the Rodey Law Firm, and I'm appearing on behalf of Mr. Rabadi. I'm also appearing on behalf of Mike Vabresian and Sayid Bandi. They are not going to speak, but they are present and they do own property that's adjacent to the subject property.

One of the issues that is before the DRB is whether Mr. Pickard owns the subject property free and clear. Notwithstanding the fact that the title company has provided its opinion. In fact, Mr. Rabadi does have a property interest in, I believe it's been identified as Lot 5, which is the 5 acres that is adjacent to Mr. Rabadi's existing land. I believe that the DRB has a copy of an agreement between Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard's company, which is Signature J. Homes. If you do not have copy of that, I'd be glad to get you a copy. What this agreement says is that Mr. Rabadi is entitled to purchase the 5 acres that are in dispute once Mr. Pickard moves toward subdivision of his property.

Now, there is a condition in this agreement to the effect that Mr. Pickard must obtain or move forward with subdivision approval within 18-months and it's our understanding that Mr. Pickard and his counsel are relying upon that term to imply, to state, that Mr. Rabadi does not have a property interest. However, as I have explained to Mr. Pickard's counsel, Jack Campbell, this agreement has been modified by the verbal agreement of Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard and the nature of the verbal modification is that Mr. Pickard verbally agreed to move forward with this agreement on its conditions once he moved toward subdivision irrespective of the 18-month conditional period that exists in the written agreement.

I personally spoke with Manuel Lujan, who has had dealings with both Mr. Rabadi and with Mr. Pickard and Mr. Lujan confirmed to me that, in fact, he was present during some of these meetings, as recently as less than a year ago and that, in fact, that confirmation was made by Mr. Pickard. I also have provided to Kevin Curran, a copy of a Court of Appeals decision that is captioned, Diversified Development and Investment Incorporated v. Hill, and that is 889 P.2d. 1212, Actually, it's a Supreme Court opinion that was promulgated in 1995. What this opinion says is that notwithstanding the Statute of Frauds which some of you may be familiar with that requires that. When you are going to exchange real property, that you must document the exchange in writing.

That is a requirement of our state statutes. However, what this opinion says is, that when you have a writing that is set to expire after a term of years, that writing can be modified by oral agreement. And so, what we would ask this DRB to do is to take notice of the fact that there is, in fact, a dispute as to whether Mr. Pickard owns the 5- acres that are identified as Lot 5. That, in fact, Mr. Rabadi has a property interest in those 5-acres. It's certainly my hope. It's Mr. Rabadi's hope, that we can work something out with Mr. Pickard and with his counsel. Of course, we have been on a very short timeline to do that.

Mr. Rabadi contacted my firm late last week and we've been trying to do what we can do, but thus far we haven't been able to make any movement in that regard. The implications of Mr. Rabadi's property interest in terms of what is before the DRB and in terms of what this DRB can do are manifold. Ultimately, because Mr. Rabadi has this property interest in the 5-acres, that implicates of what Mr. Pickard can and cannot due, certainly in regard to the 5-acres at issue and then certainly in terms of the property that is adjacent to those 5-acres.

In particular, I would cite to the ordinance of, and of course there are a lot of numbers here, 14-14-3-5 (C)(2)(E)(1) and (2). When Mr. Pickard moves forward with final plat approval, he is going to have to go on the record and say unequivocally that he owns this property outright, that he has an indefeasible interest, that it's free and clear if you will, and he cannot say that. So, based on that fact alone, we believe that Mr. Pickard cannot move forward with final plat approval.

Furthermore, Mr. Rabadi, the property that he now owns without question, is subject to a C-1 approval. He has that opportunity to move forward with commercial development. Again, the implications of that are that, should Mr. Pickard move forward with the residential development, than what he is going to have to do is place a landscape buffer along his property and along Mr. Rabadi's property so as to subdivide commercial from residential. The problem with that is, is that if we were unable to resolve the dispute amongst ourselves, this will have to be litigated, in all likelihood, and what will happen then is that Mr. Rabadi will have an impairment, a physical encroachment on his property, should he be successful. Of course, one can see that if Mr. Rabadi is successful, as we believe he will be, then it will require the removal of this obstruction.

So, in terms of the property interest, in terms of the implications for this body, we think that at this time the DRB ought to deny the application. At the very least, it ought to defer. You know, the DRB meets very frequently and I think at the very least we ought to be given an opportunity to try and work this out with Mr. Pickard. In the event that we are unsuccessful, then obviously this DRB is put in the precarious position of having to take a stance as to whether Mr. Rabadi's claim to property interest in fact is sustained by the agreement based on the representation that there's been a verbal modification of the agreement and based on the implications to Mr. Pickard's application.

So we have that, we also have several other concerns that have already been expressed. One is that, in terms of the vacation of the existing roads, the property owners that own property adjacent to the subject property have all taken the stance that they are opposed to the vacation of the existing road system. I think that the people who live there certainly have a very good understanding of what it will mean to them and to the existing traffic patterns to have the existing roadways vacated in favor of some alternative arrangement. Certainly, and this is from Mr. Rabadi's perspective. It's certainly our impression that what Mr. Pickard is doing here is taking a piecemeal approach. So that initially he goes in and says all I want to do is replat. All I want to do is, you know, it's very simple, you don't have to worry about property interests. You don't have to worry about all of these other issues that have been raised. We'll address those later. The problem with addressing those problems later is that the very likely possibility is that a road will be forced upon Mr. Rabadi in the event that the exiting roadways are vacated. Where are they going to have access to this new development? What they are going to have to do, in effect, is run a road through Mr. Rabadi's property and feed into Paradise Boulevard. Well, certainly, that's a concern of ours and I think that needs to be addressed.

Finally, in terms of the lack of a grading and drainage plan, I mean, I think that alone ought to keep this body from moving forward at this point. This is going to be an issue given the magnitude of the development. The implications of not having an approved grading and drainage plan are very serious. So, for all of those reasons, we would ask that this body deny the application or, at the very least, defer.

CHAIR MATSON: Could I ask you a few questions?

MR. MONTANO: Please do.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, first of all, you were referring to Lot 5; I believe you meant Tract 1. If you look at the copy of the plat there, or Mr. Rabadi could, it was our understanding that it was Tract 1.
MR. MONTANO: I'm sorry. I stand corrected. You are right.

CHAIR MATSON: I just wanted to make sure we were talking about the same thing. Okay, this agreement that you refer to that was signed by Mr. Rabadi, Mr. Schaefer, and J Homes. There are a couple of clauses that have a line drawn through them. Do you know how that happened?

MR. MONTANO: Yes I do, Madam Chair and other members of the DRB. Mr. Rabadi has explained to me that, when the agreement was presented to him on his own, he marked the agreement. He was uncomfortable with those terms and so he marked them out and he presented that to both Mr. Schaefer and Mr. Pickard.

They did not agree to those terms and so the writing that you have before you should not include those markings. We certainly are not taking the position that as of the date the agreement was executed, that the parties agreed to terms not including the 18-month period. So, please exclude that. Notwithstanding that fact, we do have these other matters I've discussed.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. CURRAN: Madam Chair, can I interject here? Do we have a clean copy of this purchase agreement without the markings? Or is that the only one that exists?

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair, Mr. Curran, I personally do not have a clean copy of this agreement. It's my understanding that Mr. Schaefer and Mr. Pickard do.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, so notwithstanding the fact that the copy in the file is stricken through, those clauses are intended or were intended to remain in the agreement?

MR. MONTANO: That is correct, Madam Chair and I am representing to you that Mr. Rabadi has always understood that in the original agreement, Mr. Pickard and Mr. Schaefer were not agreeing to the exclusion of those terms.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, and then you mentioned Manuel Lujan. Was his interest in this whole thing just as a witness or did he have some other interest?

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair, members of the DRB, Mr. Lujan does not have a property interest in this 5-acres. He has had dealings with both Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard extensive contacts. It was just yesterday that I spoke to Mr. Lujan and that's when he informed me. Of course, Mr. Rabadi had also informed me of the same thing, but Mr. Lujan confirmed that there were these verbal modifications.

CHAIR MATSON: So if this agreement doesn't have that language crossed out, then there wasn't a timeline on this? Or actually there would have been an 18-month timeline on it.

MR. MONTANO: That is correct, Madam Chair. Once you remove those markings, what your left with is this condition that the property be subdivided within an 18-month period from the date of the agreement. So that condition does appear in the agreement in terms of the mental processes of the signators to this agreement. That was, those were the terms of the original agreement that there was this 18-month condition.

Now, in the event that there was not this subsequent oral modification then clearly on the face of it, this agreement would dictate that Mr. Rabadi does not have a property interest in Lot 1. However, once you consider the fact that there are these subsequent discussions involving a verbal modification of that term. Then, what our Supreme Court has said is that is sufficient to bring this agreement within what we commonly refer to as the Statutes of Frauds.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. You mentioned a landscape buffer. Is that what would be put on Tract 1? Is that what you were referring to that would need to be taken down later?

MR. MONTANO: Yes, Madam Chair. That is what I'm referring to.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. MONTANO: Furthermore, you know, there's going to come a point where, if Mr. Pickard moves towards final plat, as I said, he is going to have to make the representation that there's not a cloud on title and he cannot do that at this time.

CHAIR MATSON: You gave a citation in the Subdivision Ordinance. Could you repeat that for me, please?

MR. MONTANO: Yes, it is 14-14-3-5, Paragraph (C), (2), (E), (1) and then (2). One and two.

CHAIR MATSON: One and two.

MR. MONTANO: Yes.

CHAIR MATSON: All right, and then the last question that I have for you is when you were talking about a deferral, how long were you asking for or wanting considered, anyway?

MR. MONTANO: You know, I think that, if we had two weeks to actually try and work something out, that might be a sufficient amount of time. I literally have only had since Thursday of last week to try and make arrangements with Mr. Campbell, and through Mr. Campbell with Mr. Pickard.

I will say that, in talking to Mr. Campbell, he indicated that Mr. Pickard at this point is unwilling to try and resolve this amongst ourselves and I understand that may be Mr. Pickard's position and if he sticks to that position after today, then we will have to live with that, I mean, unfortunately, that's why matters are sometimes litigated. I think that at the very least, as a matter of good faith amongst ourselves, that we ought to be allowed an opportunity to articulate as fully as we can to Mr. Pickard our positions.

We've articulated them to the DRB, now obviously this is typically an administrative function ensuring, if you will, that all of the boxes can be marked as having been fulfilled. But in this particular situation where Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard have had dealings, these individuals are not strangers to one another and I think both of them are reasonable individuals and they have good reputations that there's always that possibility of being able to work something out.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, I guess the last comment I had is that the vacations are not one of the applications today, but I think you realize that also.

MR. MONTANO: I do, Madam Chair.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, Mr. Bohannan. Did you have anything you wanted to add?

MR. BOHANNAN: Yes, I would like to ask a couple of questions and then make a couple of responses. Madam Chair, if you could ask Counsel Montano if he's aware of State Statute in New Mexico that only transfer of property has to occur by plat and that actually would this would actually create the plat the parcel in question.

CHAIR MATSON: Do you have a response to that?

MR. MONTANO: I'm sorry, would you repeat the question?

MR. BOHANNAN: Under New Mexico State Statute, the only way that property can be transferred is by subdivision plat and that this action would actually create the parcel in dispute. Are you aware of that?

MR. MONTANO: What section are you referring to?

MR. BOHANNAN: I'm not really sure, I don't have that ready. But, in other words, we could not transfer a property interest in a larger piece without creating the subdivided tract.

MR. MONTANO: I'm sorry, I didn't understand the question initially. I believe I know what Mr. Bohannan is referring to and that may very well be the case, but the problem here is that, at least under this agreement that exists between Mr. Rabadi and Mr. Pickard and also because of the Supreme Court opinion, there is a cloud on this tract, on Tract 1. So notwithstanding the fact that there might be relief somewhere down the road, does not mean that Mr. Rabadi is not going to be damaged today in the event that this is approved.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. BOHANNAN: The other comments that I'd just like to make is, one is that I'd like to reiterate that we are not vacating any easements at this time. The other one is this is actually the first step in a long process of the subdivision process that we have been working. The drainage, the bulk land plat will actually facilitate the drainage improvements in this area, as well as further development in this area and is actually the very first step moving forward and that's all I'd like to say at this time.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. All right, then we'll go onto Mr. Schaefer. If you'll come up to a microphone, please. State your name please and your address and your interest.

MR. SCHAEFER: R. J. Schaefer. I'm the one that bought the property and probably should be hung. I started on this in 1994. It took me two years to get PNM to the table. The Rabadi problem came up when I was dealing with PNM. Mr. Rabadi, I guess, was talking to a Mr. Jimmy Green who was trying to buy the property before me. He claimed he had an agreement with PNM Company on 5-acres. PNM Company finally got with their attorneys and they said the title is clear on the property. I either bought it or didn't buy it. I got a title binder and the property had nothing of record in agreement with Mr. Rabadi on the 5-acres so I purchased the property. We then purchased the property and shortly thereafter Mr. Pickard joined in with me on the property.

We immediately got an offer from the City of Albuquerque to try and do a 15-acre site for a Petroglyph National Monument Visitor Center and we could not subdivide the property because the City would not allow it because of the drainage and a few other problems and PNM said the same thing that they could not break the property up if we bought it. We ought to buy it in the 81-acre tract and the 41-acre tract that exists because they couldn't do a bulk land plat to get it divided.

Mr. Rabadi had come to us and asked about the 5-acres. At the time we bought it, it was zoned I-P, industrial, and we did not know for sure what we were going to do with it. Had no idea of subdividing it into houses or anything like that. We bought it for the commercial aspect. Mr. Pickard said that if we could subdivide it, he didn't have a problem with the 5-acres to Mr. Rabadi if it could be done in a timely manner. That's how the agreement came about.

We realized after we got into it that the drainage was a very big issue and several other problems and the property could not be replatted and therefore you could not sell any property to either the City for their visitor's center, or to Mr. Rabadi for his subdivision. We are not, never had a road on the property and there's an 85-foot strip that comes out to Paradise. People keep talking about vacating a road and I've checked the title and I've never seen any road there.

Also, the property everybody's been working on it adjoining the area to try to get the drainage worked out and finally reached an agreement after many, many years and, as far as I'm concerned, the agreement had a timetable on it for a reason. It didn't work, it couldn't work, it ran out. We've had several offers on the property. The fact that we couldn't replat it was a major issue and now the drainage. So, as far as I'm concerned, in my humble opinion, the agreement is null and void. I don't know what Mr. Lujan has to do with this deal. I never seen him come up to the table and put any money up on it, but, and I don't know about all these other meetings. I've never been involved in any of those, but as far as I'm concerned, the issue of the 5-acres died when the time ran out.

Since then, Mr. Pickard has decided to replat the property and do the subdivision. I've never heard about any commercial property. I've always been referred to Mr. Rabadi's property as being zoned for R-1 for 117 houses, I believe it was and that's just my statement.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you. Yes?

MR. CURRAN: Madam Chair, I have just one question of Mr. Schaefer if that's okay. Mr. Schaefer, my name is Kevin Curran. I'm an Assistant City Attorney and counsel to the DRB. You are a principal in what entity now?

MR. SCHAEFER: I was the principal in the original entity that bought the property.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, and that was? Which company were you a principal in, that bought the property?

MR. SCHAEFER: Well, I made the offer and then I sold out to Mr. Pickard and Mr. Pickard put it in, I think, the Signature J? I'm not sure of the name, sir.

MR. CURRAN: Are you a principal in Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Limited Company or are you a principal in Signature J?

MR. SCHAEFER: I'm a principal in neither. Mr. Pickard bought me out and I'm not involved in this.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, so you were an interim titleholder. Is that correct?

MR. SCHAEFER: I was the one that started it. I signed the purchase agreement with PNM.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, do you have any involvement in Paragon?

MR. SCHAEFER: No, Paragon was owned by PNM Company and that's who I bought it from.

MR. CURRAN: Okay.

MR. SCHAEFER: PNM had bought it for a substation and a service yard out there and then they changed their plans.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, my second question is in your testimony you constantly refer to the property, the property. All right, when you say the property, are you referring to Tract 1 as shown on the plat that's under consideration today?

MR. SCHAEFER: I'm referring to the 121 acres that I bought from PNM Company, so that would consist of Tracts 2, 3, 4 and 1 through 7.

MR. CURRAN: Is it fair to say that would consist of all the property that's being, that's under consideration today then?

MR. SCHAEFER: With the exception of Mr. Rabadi's

MR. CURRAN: Okay, thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: So, it's all the property that's shown on this bulk land plat?

MR. SCHAEFER: Yes.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you.

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair?

CHAIR MATSON: Yes, Mr. Montano.

MR. MONTANO: May I ask Mr. Schaefer a question.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. MONTANO: Two questions. One, Mr. Schaefer, I'm Larry Montano. Do you have a copy, a clean copy of the agreement?

MR. SCHAEFER: I don't know. I'd be glad to look in my file.

MR. MONTANO: Okay, thank you, Mr. Schaefer, and the other question that I have is, did you originally enter an agreement with Mr. Rabadi because PNM represented to you that was required?

MR. SCHAEFER: No. The reason we entered into was because we were trying to sell the property as a whole and it really didn't make that much difference if we sold 5-acres to one person, and 116-acres to someone else. At the time, it wasn't a problem if it could be done.

MR. MONTANO: Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. We'll move on then. I assume that Vince does not want to speak at this time? (Indicated No.) Okay. Mr. Pickard? Good morning.

MR. PICKARD: Good morning.

CHAIR MATSON: Would you state your name for the record please, then your address?

MR. PICKARD: Horace Griffin Pickard, Jr., 237 Tano Road in Santa Fe, NM.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay, just proceed with whatever you'd like to tell us.

MR. PICKARD: I would just like to add that I've had numerous conversations with Mr. Rabadi and he is using this, ah, forum, as pressure to try to make me do things that he doesn't have a contract for. We have physically had that conversation and he is using AMAFCA and the DRB and it doesn't matter whether it's two weeks or two years, I think this is going to end up in another forum and we're just asking for a bulk land plat of which we have taken out the 5-acres and we're going to leave it alone and we will not attempt to further develop that tract until we have legal resolution. But he is trying to tie up 121 acres over this 5-acres and using you as a forum. Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you.

MR. CURRAN: Madam Chair, I'd like to ask Mr. Pickard one or two questions.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Sure.

MR. CURRAN: Mr. Pickard, Mr. Rabadi through counsel has alleged that you verbally extended what I'll refer to as the September 10, 1996 purchase agreement between Mr. Rabadi and Signature J. Do you have any response to that allegation?

MR. PICKARD: I do. We did not have a verbal agreement. We have numerous written proposals back and forth that covered lots of items besides just this 5-acres. Why in the world we would have had those back and forth and to have a verbal one that he is relying on baffles me.

MR. CURRAN: Okay, that's really my only question.

CHAIR MATSON: Thank you. Mr. Montano, did you have a question?

MR. MONTANO: Just one question and that is whether Mr. Pickard has a clean copy of the agreement?

MR. PICKARD: I'm not sure, but the way we came across the altered one was a fax from Mr. Rabadi to our office. It's my opinion, and I'm not an attorney, but if he's relying on the changes, it was never initialed and we don't even have the initial agreement, the illegal document.

CHAIR MATSON: Thank you. Okay, Mr. Campbell. Morning.

MR. CAMPBELL: Good morning.

CHAIR MATSON: State your name for the record, please and who you represent.

MR. CAMPBELL: John Campbell and I represent Builders Investment Company.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. CAMPBELL: I'm a lawyer here in Albuquerque.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay.

MR. CAMPBELL: And, as you can imagine, two lawyers never agree with one another and I couldn't disagree with Mr. Montano more about his analysis of what Mr. Rabadi may or may not have legally.

One thing that I am 100% certain of is Mr. Rabadi owns no interest in real property. If anything, he has a contract claim that he is asserting against Mr. Pickard's entity, Builders Investment Company of New Mexico to acquire a piece of property. It's just a naked, disputed contract claim. That claim doesn't give him any interest in real property. He has a claim that may affect, ultimately, when a court resolves it, title to this disputed 5-acres of land but as of this date he has no interest in real property.

As to the agreement, I can tell you that I have conferred with Mr. Pickard's staff trying to find an unmarked copy of the agreement. It happened in 1996 and Mr. Rabadi was not heard of for many, many years and I have no doubt that the Builders Investment and Signature J files have been purged.

I've tried to get a copy of the agreement from Mr. Schaefer, I've tried to get it from Mr. Schaefer's former counsel, John Meyers, haven't been able to successfully do so.

What I can tell you is that the way that this transaction came is that the signed, unmarked agreement was submitted to Mr. Rabadi for his signature.
He signed it with the interlined markings. I can't recall the name of the case, but the Supreme Court of New Mexico has said that when one alters a contract, as to a material term, and certainly the term of this agreement is a material term, it becomes a counter offer and it doesn't mature into a binding contract unless and until it's accepted by the parties, generally by initial. It's convenient to say that we'll just ignore these marks and we're going to assert our rights under the original 18-month contract with a verbal amendment. The truth is, and I think a court will ultimately find, that no contract came into existence because Mr. Rabadi interlined it and, in that sense, made a counter offer that was never accepted in any way that could mature into a written contract. Even had that been the case, this contract occurred in 1996.

It is also clear in New Mexico that when a contract doesn't have a term, as this contract wouldn't have had there been a verbal extension of that 18-month period, that it has to be performed within a reasonable time and I don't think that any person could conclude that 8-years, when it becomes convenient for Mr. Rabadi to do so because he perceives there to be profit in it for him, that is a reasonable time. The contract is arguably not valid on that ground. Moreover, there would have been a statute of limitations that applies to this contract and that has long since run. This dispute is a legal dispute. It shouldn't involve this Board. It is simply a bold attempt to try and deflect the arguments about the bulk plat to a legal dispute between the parties. Mr. Rabadi has no interest in this property. He may ultimately acquire an interest after a court rules, one way or another. But at the present time, he has no interest and I just would respectfully suggest that this Board shouldn't become a court to try to arbitrate or decide who's right and who's wrong.

It should act on the plat and the application that is before it, and either approve it or deny it on the merits of that application and leave the dispute of the parties to another forum. Mr. Bohannan is absolutely correct. If Mr. Rabadi wins, this land's going to have to be subdivided to convey him the 5-acres and there's no dispute that the 5-acres that's been separately platted out as, I don't recall, Tract 1 is the 5-acres that he's interested in and I can't see how approving this bulk plat. That establishes a tract that ultimately can be conveyed to him if he prevails in his legal claims against Builders Investment Company in any way prejudices him. It's a legal dispute. It's one that's hotly contested and I couldn't disagree with Mr. Montano more that Mr. Rabadi has an interest in real property. He simply has a contract claim.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you. Lastly is David Soule. Good morning. Would you please state your name for the record and what you interest is, please?

MR. SOULE: Yes, my name is David Soule. My family owns property in the area and I just want to speak out in support of this bulk land plat. I believe Tierra West and Ron Bohannan and Vince Carrica have done an excellent job and the developer is trying to accommodate the neighbors and I strongly support this approval.

CHAIR MATSON: Okay. Thank you. Mr. Bohannan, did you have any closing comments?

MR. BOHANNAN: No, other than I think that we would ask that the Board go ahead and grant the bulk land approval for this plat.

CHAIR MATSON: Thank you. Mr. Curran, did you have anything you wanted to say?

MR. CURRAN: I think I have one final question concerning this contract dispute. I guess this is addressed to everyone who has spoken, in the hope that someone can answer the question or at least address it. It seems like the 1996 purchase agreement between Signature J and Mr. Rabadi referred to an earlier 1993 purchase agreement between, I hope I've got my notes correct, Tajas 5 and Mr. Rabadi. Is there anything in that 1993 agreement that would shed some light on if and when this 1996 purchase agreement terminated? Anybody have any, shed any light on that?

MR. MONTANO: Madam Chair, if I may address that. In regard to Mr. Curran's question, the 1996 agreement does incorporate by reference the 1993 agreement. Now, naturally, the 1996 agreement to the extent that it has different terms, it would be my opinion that it would rule on those terms. However, I think that the one thing that can be gathered from the 1993 agreement and the fact that it was incorporated into the 1996 agreement is the common thread that exists here and that is that whoever owned the subject property had to deal with Mr. Rabadi and there was a reason for that and the reason is that Mr. Rabadi has always had the option to purchase that 5-acres.

CHAIR MATSON: Mr. Cambell, if you'll come up to the microphone.

MR. CAMPBELL: Yes.

CHAIR MATSON: And state your name again.

MR. CAMPBELL: Madam Chair and members of the Board, what that 1993 agreement demonstrates is that Mr. Rabadi has been trying for some time to tie up this property. I would point out that the seller in the 1993 agreement never had any title to the property. He was simply a contract purchaser that never closed, never owned the land, never acquired any interest in the land.

Mr. Rabadi has been trying to acquire the property and he's simply trying to pick and choose to his benefit the time that he's going to try to acquire the property. He's had 8-years to litigate this had he wanted to litigate it and that 1993 agreement, Mr. Curran, has no real effect at all on this dispute.

CHAIR MATSON: Did you get your answer?

MR. CURRAN: Yes, thank you. Well, I'd like to make some closing comments. I think the DRB as a quasi-judicial body is the finder of fact. I think there's substantial evidence in the record, one of the findings I believe the Board needs to make is who is the owner of Tract 1.

Now, to address some of Mr. Campbell's comments. The fact that Mr. Rabadi isn't a legal owner or a title owner of Tract 1 doesn't do the Board a whole lot of good. This Subdivision Ordinance requires all legal and equitable owners to be signatories, or at least disclosed on the plat, so if Mr. Rabadi is a contract holder to the property, he would, in my opinion, he would qualify as an equitable owner. Now, that being said, in my opinion, there's substantial evidence in the record to find either way. You've got a title commitment showing that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Limited Company is entitled to Tract 1. You've also got testimony in the record saying that in essence Mr. Rabadi has a legal contract right to purchase Tract 1. You've also got testimony refuting that from Mr. Pickard saying that there is no verbal extension agreement, which would lead to the conclusion that Builders Investment is entitled to the property. It is not an easy decision, but I believe there is evidence in the record to find either way.

CHAIR MATSON: I think the Board will take a 5-minute break.

MEETING RESUMED

CHAIR MATSON: All right, we're going to proceed with what we were originally here to do, temporarily anyway, and that is to get comments from the other Board members on the bulk land plat that is before us. So, Parks, if you'll go ahead please.

MS. SANDOVAL: Parks has no objection to the bulk land variance or platting action.

CHAIR MATSON: Hydrology?

MR. BINGHAM: I just want to state for the record that most bulk land plats don't require a grading and drainage plan. This plan does have a solution, in concept already, not necessarily agreed to formally, but the concept's been worked on with myself and AMAFCA for, oh man, probably a year's worth of back and forth dialog between the two agencies and the engineer and this plat matches what will be part of that solution.
So, but generally a bulk land plat, I mean a drainage plan is not necessarily required for bulk land plat. With that said, I did have a question for the engineer. Do you have a public drainage easement granted on Tract 6? Which agency is going to inherit that easement?

MR. BOHANNAN: That will be the surge pond that will connect the upland flows and then from there be drained down to the AMAFCA facility, and we're proposing that to be the City of Albuquerque.

MR. BINGHAM: That's going to be City ponds?

MR. BOHANNAN: Yes.

MR. BINGHAM: Okay. Can you put granted to the City of Albuquerque, then?

MR. BOHANNAN: Yes.

MR. BINGHAM: I think it could be easier to modify through this Board than through the AMAFCA Board anyway, when subsequent development comes in. So, if you could state that on the plat. I also have no objection to a bulk land variance and I would request that AMAFCA sign the plat before I do, though.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay.

CHAIR MATSON: In terms of Planning's comments, a couple of the original comments have been addressed. The zoning question is now cleared up. The vacations were originally shown on the Bulk Land Plat However, on the current one we have, those vacations have been removed to be taken care of later.

The property does lie within the Unser Boulevard Design Overlay Zone and the Northwest Mesa Escarpment Plan View Area. The Notice of Subdivision Conditions must be filed with the bulk plat and Planning must file the plat. AGIS dxf approval is required before Planning can sign, as well as we need to get past the 15-day appeal period.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay.

CHAIR MATSON: Utilities.

MR. GREEN: I have no objection to the bulk land variance or approval of the plat.

CHAIR MATSON: Transportation

MR. GALLEGOS: I think all my issues have been resolved with the granting of the 156 Easement for Unser. Internal roadways within Tracts 2, 3 and 7 will be looked at as the platting actions occur, and we're probably going to have to take a look again at some of the concerns that were raised today.

MR. BOHANNAN: Okay.

CHAIR MATSON: Is that it?

MR. BOHANNAN: That's it.

CHAIR MATSON: DRB is going to go ahead and approve the applications. So, Claire, if you're ready, we'll go through those. We'll approve the bulk land variance for waiver of infrastructure. Approval of this variance is subject to the provisions of the DPM and the Subdivision Regulations. We'll approve the preliminary and final plat and delegate final plat to Planning for approval of the AGIS dxf and the 15-day appeal period, and to City Engineer for …

MR. BINGHAM: AMAFCA'S signature.

CHAIR MATSON: The one finding we're going to have is that – in this case – the title binder shows that Builder's Investment is the legal owner of Tract 1, and I'd like to read part of that into the record. It says "the estate or interest in the land described or referred to in this commitment and covered herein is fee simple and is at the effective date hereof vested in Builder's Investment Company of New Mexico Limited Company " Corporation maybe? C-O "a New Mexico Limited Liability Company, and that the land referred to in this commitment is situated in the County of Bernalillo, State of New Mexico, and described as followed: Tract No. 1 of the Bulk Land Plat of Sundance Estates, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico."

MR. BOHANNAN: Thank you.

CHAIR MATSON: You're welcome.

THE FOLLOWING ACTION WAS TAKEN:

The Bulk Land Variance was approved subject to the Findings and Conditions of the Subdivision Ordinance as follows:

BULK LAND VARIANCE:

1. The variance will not be injurious to the public safety, health or welfare, or to adjacent property, the neighborhood or the community.

2. The variance will not conflict significantly with the goals and provisions of any City, County or AMAFCA adopted plan or policy; the applicable zoning ordinance, or any other City code or ordinance.

3. The variance will not permit, encourage or make possible undesired development in the 100-year floodplain.

4. The variance will not hinder future planning, public right-of-way acquisition, or the financing or building of public infrastructure improvements.

The preliminary and final plat were approved with final plat delegated to Planning for AGIS dxf file and the 15-day appeal period and to City Engineer for AMAFCA signature and with the following finding:

The Title Commitment issued by LandAmerica Albuquerque Title Company dated June 8, 2004 in support of the applicant's platting actions shows that Builders Investment Company of New Mexico Ltd. Co., is the fee simple owner of Tract numbered One (1) of the Bulk Land Plat of SUNDANCE ESTATES, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico.

Supreme Court of New Mexico.
DIVERSIFIED DEVELOPMENT & INVESTMENT, INC., Plaintiff-Appellant,
v.
Helga HEIL and Dorothy S. Holmberg, co-personal representatives of the Estate of Anne Pickard, deceased, and the Estate of Anne Pickard, Defendants/Third-Party-Plaintiffs-Appellees,
and
Patrick Hurley and Lee Welsh, Defendants/Third-Party-Defendants-Appellees.
No. 21320.
Jan. 25, 1995.

Holder of option to purchase real estate brought suit against vendor's estate and representatives and their agent for breach of contract, misrepresentation, and prima facie tort, for breach regarding sale of property after expiration of option's original deadline. The District Court, Bernalillo County, Gerald R. Cole, D.J., granted summary judgment for defendants before ruling on plaintiff's motion to compel discovery, and plaintiff appealed. The Supreme Court, Ransom, J., held that: (1) plaintiff preserved issue regarding propriety of summary judgment before discovery; (2) discovery regarding instructions and authority given to agent should have been granted; (3) agent did not have apparent authority to grant extension of option deadline; (4) agent was not liable for misrepresentation; (5) material issues as to whether agent had actual authority to grant extension, and whether agent had actual or apparent "speaking authority" to bind vendor on extension, precluded summary judgment; (6) material issue as to vendor's intent precluded summary judgment for vendor on tort claim; and (7) agent was not liable on tort claim.
Affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded.

RANSOM, Justice.
Diversified Development & Investment, Inc., sued the estate of Anne Pickard and its personal representatives, Helga Heil and Dorothy Holmberg, (collectively, "the Estate") for breach of contract, misrepresentation, and prima facie tort in connection with a contractual option to purchase real estate. After the Estate filed a third-party claim for indemnification and legal malpractice against its attorney, Patrick Hurley, Diversified Development filed a claim against Hurley for breach of contract, misrepresentation, and prima facie tort, and asked for punitive damages. Before ruling on a motion filed by Diversified Development to compel discovery, the district court granted summary judgments in favor of the Estate and Hurley.
Diversified Development appeals pursuant to SCRA 1986, 12- 102(A)(1) (Repl.Pamp.1992) (count sounding in contract). We find that the court erred in granting summary judgment before ruling on the motion to compel discovery. We therefore reverse the judgment in favor of the Estate on Diversified Development's claim that Hurley had actual authority to grant an extension of the purchase option. Further, we hold that the trial court should compel discovery of certain communications between the Estate and Hurley. Finally, we find that Diversified Development raised a genuine issue as to Hurley's actual or apparent authority to communicate whether the Estate agreed to an extension of the option deadline. We therefore hold that, on remand, Diversified Development may pursue its theory that Hurley's statements thus could bind the Estate.

Facts. In March 1990 Diversified Development executed an agreement with New Jersey residents Heil and Holmberg in which Diversified Development was given a six-month option to purchase approximately sixteen acres of unimproved Albuquerque real estate for $575,000. The agreement empowered Diversified Development to extend the purchase option for an additional six months upon written notification to the Estate. Diversified Development exercised this right to an extension in a letter delivered to Hurley from Diversified Development's attorney, Ray Baehr. This extension gave Diversified Development until March 31, 1991, to exercise the purchase option.

In February 1991 Diversified Development asked Lee Welsh, a real estate agent for the Estate, to determine whether the Estate would consider modifications to the agreement's financing terms. Diversified Development's president, Chester Hearn, testified that Welsh assured him he had talked to Heil and Holmberg and that they were receptive to "some modifications of the financing arrangements." Diversified Development emphasized to Welsh that it wished to retain the right to exercise the original purchase option if financing modifications could not be worked out.

In a letter sent to Welsh, Heil, Hurley, and Baehr dated March 22, 1991, Diversified Development put its financing modification request in writing. In this letter Hearn reaffirmed Diversified Development's intent to purchase the parcel of land and requested a ninety-day extension of the existing option pending execution of the modified agreement. Baehr testified that during the week of March 25 he telephoned Hurley to inquire about the status of the March 22 extension request and to set up a meeting before the March 31 option deadline to discuss whether the Estate would accept the alternative financing proposal. He testified that Hurley was not able to meet with him but assured him that "a few days one way or another [will] not make any difference" and "these 1216 *294 ladies are not going to hold [Diversified Development] to the [option deadline.]" Hurley conceded only that on March 29 he told Baehr he had talked to Heil and that the Estate "probably [would] agree to an extension--possibly more." He stated that Heil told him it would be after the March 31 deadline before she could say whether the Estate was amenable to accepting an alteration of the option. Heil insisted that Hurley had no authority to tell Baehr that the Estate "probably [would] agree to an extension" but acknowledged that Hurley did have authority to discuss an extension.

Baehr and Hurley agreed to meet on April 4. At this meeting Diversified Development and Baehr discussed the March 22 financing proposal with Hurley and Welsh and inquired whether the option would have to be exercised as written. Hearn testified that at the conclusion of the meeting he asked for a written extension but Hurley insisted that one was not necessary because Diversified Development would get an answer on the financing proposal in a few days. Hearn also stated that Hurley assured Diversified Development it could exercise the original purchase option if the Estate did not agree to financing modifications.

Between April 4 and April 25 Hurley had several conversations with Heil about the proposed modifications. Hurley did not know that the Estate would not extend the option, however, until either April 25 or May 2. On May 1 Heil and Holmberg faxed a letter directly to Baehr rejecting the proposed financing modifications and stating that the Estate was "reviewing [its] options" and would attempt to obtain a better price for the land. On May 8 Welsh told Hearn that the Estate considered the purchase option to have expired.

On May 9 Diversified Development deposited earnest money in the amount called for by the option agreement into escrow and notified Hurley, Welsh, and Heil that it was exercising the original purchase option. On May 11 the Estate instructed the escrow agent to return the earnest money to Diversified Development and to record a termination statement. Approximately three months later the Estate accepted a purchase offer for $800,000 from another buyer.

Proceedings. On February 25, 1993, following minimal pretrial discovery, Diversified Development filed a motion to compel production of memos written by Hurley detailing his conversations with Heil about the March 22 extension request. Hurley refused to produce these memos, claiming attorney-client privilege. The motion to compel also sought production of withheld portions of Heil's telephone diary detailing conversations with Welsh and Hurley. Hurley joined in Diversified Development's motion, arguing that Heil had waived the attorney-client privilege by bringing an action against him and by offering evidence of some of the communications. The court held a motion hearing on March 11 but did not rule.

The Estate and Hurley filed motions for summary judgment on February 15 and 19 respectively. On March 26 and 29 those motions were heard and on April 6 the court issued a letter decision ruling in favor of the Estate and Hurley. The court stated that it assumed Diversified Development's motion to compel discovery to be moot as a result of its ruling. The trial court found it undisputed that Hurley lacked actual or apparent authority either to make final decisions for the Estate or to grant an extension. Based on this finding, the court determined that there was no support for the contract claim. The court also determined that "Hurley made no misrepresentations for which his principals could be held liable." Finally, the court found as a matter of law that the facts of the case did not support the prima facie tort claim.
With regard to Diversified Development's claims against Hurley, the court determined that Diversified Development could not state a contract claim because Hurley was not a principal and commented that the nature of the extension was too nebulous to represent a "meeting of the minds as to what the duties and obligations of the parties were." The court also determined that recovery against Hurley for prima facie tort was not supported by the facts, and that Hurley's representations were unactionable opinions upon which Diversified Development could not reasonably 295 *1217 have relied. Finally, the court found that Hurley had no duty to disclose to Diversified Development his lack of authority to grant an extension.

The motion to compel discovery. The major issue in this case is whether Hurley had actual or apparent authority to bind the Estate to an extension of time within which Diversified Development could exercise the purchase option. Diversified Development argues that because it was denied the opportunity to discover facts defining the nature and scope of Hurley's authority, it did not have the ability to defeat summary judgment motions by the Estate and Hurley. The Estate counters that Diversified Development waived any objection to the court's decision by failing to object to the court's mootness ruling when summary judgment was granted. On the merits, the Estate claims an attorney- client privilege against discovery.

[1] --Diversified Development preserved the issue. To preserve an issue for appeal, "it must appear that a ruling or decision by the district court was fairly invoked." SCRA 1986, 12-216(A) (Repl.Pamp.1992); see also SCRA 1986, 1-046 (Repl. Pamp.1992). The purpose of requiring a party to invoke a ruling or decision by the district court is to alert the trial judge to a claim of error and give the judge an opportunity to correct any mistake. Madrid v. Roybal, 112 N.M. 354, 356, 815 P.2d 650, 652 (Ct.App.), cert. denied, 112 N.M. 308, 815 P.2d 161 (1991); see also Cockrell v. Cockrell, 117 N.M. 321, 323-24, 871 P.2d 977, 979-80 (1994) (holding that challenge to sufficiency of evidence was not brought to the attention of trial court and thus was not preserved).
In its response to the Estate's motion for summary judgment Diversified Development requested "that the Court's decision on Summary Judgment be continued pursuant to SCRA 1986, 1-056(F) [(Repl.Pamp.1992) (allowing a trial judge to deny a motion for summary judgment when it appears that the party opposing the motion needs more discovery to obtain facts supporting his position)], until such time as the Motion to Compel Discovery is decided." Diversified Development further argued, as it had done previously and more extensively in a memorandum in support of the motion to compel, that its "ability to fully demonstrate the extent of the dispute as to Hurley's authority [had] been hampered" by the Estate's claim of attorney-client privilege. Thus Diversified Development argued that a decision on summary judgment should be delayed until the motion to compel was decided.

[2] By requesting the trial judge to stay his ruling on the motions for summary judgment until he had ruled on the motion to compel, by citing Rule 1-056(F), and by incorporating its prior argument that further discovery was essential to support its claims that Hurley had authority to bind the Estate, Diversified Development presented the judge with all the information necessary to make an informed decision whether the motion to compel should be decided prior to the motions for summary judgment. Diversified Development thus preserved the discovery issue.
--Attorney-client privilege does not extend to a client's grant of actual authority. Although appellate courts generally do not address the merits of a discovery motion before the trial court has had an opportunity to do so, see Garrett v. City of San Francisco, 818 F.2d 1515, 1519 n. 4 (9th Cir.1987), for purposes of judicial economy and because the parties have briefed the issue, we will address the merits of the Estate's claim of privilege. Diversified Development and Hurley urge that no privilege existed between Hurley and the Estate. Alternatively, they urge that the Estate waived any privilege by bringing a third-party claim against Hurley. The Estate counters that communications between itself and Hurley should be exempt from discovery under the attorney-client privilege set out in SCRA 1986, 11- 503(B) (Repl.Pamp.1994).

Rule 11-503(B) states that "[a] client has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent any other person from disclosing confidential communications made for the purpose of facilitating the rendition of professional legal services to the client." Rule 11-503(A)(4) defines a "confidential communication" as one "not intended to be disclosed to third 1218 *296 persons." It follows from the unambiguous definition of confidential communications and from Rule 11-503 that the Estate may refuse to disclose only those communications made for the purpose of facilitating legal services and not intended to be disclosed to others.

[3] Diversified Development seeks to discover the instructions given to Hurley by the Estate and the nature and scope of his authority in regard to the purchase option deadline. "[C]ourts have held that the [attorney-client] privilege does not protect the instructions or authority given by the client to his attorney...." Paul R. Rice et al., Attorney-Client Privilege in the United States § 6:22, at 467-68 (1993); see id. § 6:22, at 468 n. 35 (citing cases that have held that a client's instructions to his or her attorney and the scope of the authority granted are not protected by attorney-client privilege). Explaining the reason for this rule, one federal court has stated that "the client's grant of authority to the attorney to settle [is not protected by the attorney-client privilege] since this must be communicated to the other party to the settlement." Willard C. Beach Air Brush Co. v. General Motors Corp., 118 F.Supp. 242, 244 (D.N.J.1953), aff'd 214 F.2d 664 (3d Cir.1954). Thus the attorney-client privilege does not prohibit Hurley from disclosing what the Estate authorized him to agree upon with or communicate to Diversified Development.

[4] --Incomplete discovery precluded summary judgment on actual authority claim. Generally, "a court should not grant summary judgment before a party has completed discovery, ... particularly when further factual resolution is essential to determine the central legal issues." Sun Country Sav. Bank of N.M. v. McDowell, 108 N.M. 528, 534, 775 P.2d 730, 736 (1989) (citations omitted). Diversified Development may have been able to discover material facts in Hurley's memos and in the withheld portions of Heil's telephone diary defining the nature and scope of Hurley's authority. The court should have examined those documents and allowed Diversified Development to discover those portions detailing the Estate's instructions to Hurley and the scope of his authority in connection with the extension of the option deadline. See Garrett, 818 F.2d at 1519 ("It was error for the trial court to have granted defendants' motion for summary judgment without first having determined the merits of plaintiff's pending [motion to compel discovery]."); Snook v. Trust Co. of Georgia Bank of Savannah, 859 F.2d 865, 871 (11th Cir.1988) ("By failing to rule on the motion to compel, the district court deprived the plaintiffs' of their right to utilize the discovery process to discover the facts necessary to justify their opposition to the [summary judgment] motion."). Summary judgment was therefore improper on Diversified Development's claim that Hurley had actual authority to grant an extension of the option deadline.

[5] [6] Hurley did not have apparent authority to agree upon an extension. In Romero v. Mervyn's, 109 N.M. 249, 253, 784 P.2d 992, 996 (1989), we stated that "a principal ... is responsible for the acts of the agent when the principal has clothed the agent with the appearance of authority." Apparent authority arises from manifestations by the principal to the third party "and can be created by appointing a person to a position that carries with it generally recognized duties." Id. Because the facts necessary to prove apparent authority would be known by Diversified Development without further discovery, we decide whether summary judgment was appropriate on the issue of Hurley's apparent authority to grant an extension of the option deadline.
The record establishes that the purchase agreement could be modified only in writing. The record further establishes that the Estate did not communicate directly with Diversified Development or its attorney prior to the May 1 letter rejecting the proposed financing modifications. As an attorney himself, Baehr knew or should have known that an attorney does not have implied authority to approve the modification of an agreement. See Augustus v. John Williams & Assoc., Inc., 92 N.M. 437, 438-39, 589 P.2d 1028, 1029-30 (1979) (stating rule that attorney does not have implied authority to compromise client's cause of action (quoting Nenieber v. Anzalone, 345 So.2d 822, 822-23 (Fla.Dist.Ct.App.1977))); see, e.g., 1219 *297 Torrao v. Cox, 26 Mass.App.Ct. 247, 525

N.E.2d 1349, 1353 (1988) (stating that attorney has no power, absent express authority, to bind principal by his assent to modification of principal's contract). Hurley's assertion that "these ladies are not going to hold [Diversified Development] to [the purchase option deadline]," without more, did not indicate Hurley was authorized to make the decision and did not absolve Baehr and Diversified Development of the duty to make further inquiry as to the extent of Hurley's authority. See Warren A. Seavey, Handbook of the Law of Agency § 22(B), at 44 (1964) ("Persons dealing with an agent ... cannot hold the principal liable for unauthorized acts of an agent which are not normally permitted to an agent in such a position."); Comstock v. Mitchell, 110 N.M. 131, 132, 793 P.2d 261, 262 (1990) (stating that third party has duty to "use reasonable diligence and prudence to ascertain whether the agent is acting within the scope of his powers" (quoting 3 Am.Jur.2d Agency § 82 (1986))). Therefore summary judgment on the issue of apparent authority to agree to an extension was appropriate.

[7] For similar reasons, it was unreasonable for Diversified Development to infer from Hurley's above-quoted assertion that it could place any reliance on an implied representation by Hurley that he was binding the Estate. Thus summary judgment was appropriate on Diversified Development's misrepresentation claim against Hurley.

Diversified Development may pursue whether Hurley's statements bound the Estate to an extension. Diversified Development argues that the facts it has adduced raise a question whether Hurley could bind the Estate by representing to Diversified Development that the Estate itself agreed to an extension. As we understand the facts, Hurley's authority to bind the Estate may spring from two sources. First, it may be argued that Hurley could bind the Estate because he had actual or apparent authority to perform discretionary acts on behalf of the Estate such as granting an extension of the option deadline. We have held that summary judgment on the issue of Hurley's actual authority to grant an extension was premature in light of the pending motion to compel discovery. Further, we have held that the Estate did not place Hurley in such a position that he had apparent authority to grant an extension.

[8] Second, it may be argued that Hurley had actual or apparent authority to make binding statements representing the position of the Estate. It is unclear whether Diversified Development actually argued this issue below, and consequently it is also unclear whether the trial court, as part of its grant of summary judgment, ruled that Hurley did not have speaking authority. In response to questions from this Court, the parties have supplied us with briefs on this issue. Because we have ruled that summary judgment was premature and are remanding this case for further discovery, and because we find that the trial court could not rule against Diversified Development as a matter of law on the issue of speaking authority under the facts presented here, Diversified Development would not be prohibited from claiming on remand that Hurley had speaking authority. We therefore take this opportunity to clarify the law on this issue for purposes of aiding the trial court.

[9] [10] An agent's statements may bind the principal if the agent is authorized to speak. When a principal gives a person authority (either actual or apparent) to do certain acts, those acts become binding on the principal because they are treated as the acts of the principal. Cf. Albuquerque Concrete Coring Co. v. Pan Am World Servs., Inc., 118 N.M. 140, 146, 879 P.2d 772, 778 (1994) (holding corporation liable for act of managing agent because acts of agent are acts of corporation). In the case of speaking authority, an agent who actually has been authorized to speak, or has been cloaked with the authority to speak, may bind his or her principal to perform the acts about which he or she speaks. Speaking authority differs from authority to do acts within one's discretion such as entering into a binding modification of the principal's contract with a third party. Thus an agent with speaking authority may not agree to a modification of the principal's contract but may represent the principal's position on the modification of the 1220 *298 contract and thereby bind the principal to that modification.

[11] For the statements, representations, or admissions of a purported agent to be binding on the principal, the fact of agency must first be established. 2 Floyd R. Mechem, A Treatise on the Law of Agency § 1774, at 1348 (2d ed. 1914). "[T]he unauthorized statements of an agent to the third party concerning the existence or extent of his authority cannot be relied upon to establish apparent authority." Comstock v. Mitchell, 110 N.M. 131, 134, 793 P.2d 261, 264 (1990) (Ransom, J., specially concurring). Once the principal has manifested to a third party that another individual is his or her agent, however, statements by that agent regarding the extent of authority may bear upon whether, without further inquiry of the principal, the third party reasonably relied upon a belief about the extent of the agent's authority. Even then, before the agent's extrajudicial statements concerning the extent of authority may be relied upon to excuse further inquiry, the principal first must have placed the agent in a position that would give rise to a belief in a reasonably prudent third party that the authority of the agent would extend as far as represented by the agent. Thus once agency has been established, the statements, representations, or admissions made by the agent to a third party will bind the principal only if the agent was actually or apparently authorized to make the particular statements or was actually or apparently authorized to make statements on the particular subject. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 286 (1957).

In this case Hurley's agency is not disputed. Hence the only question remaining is whether the facts presented an issue regarding the existence of actual or apparent speaking authority. Even if the trial court was to be the finder of fact, it could not have used the summary judgment procedure to resolve a disputed issue of fact. See Bergerson Plumbing & Heating, Inc. v. Poole, 111 N.M. 525, 528, 807 P.2d 223, 226 (1991) (holding that "[a] trial court should not summarily cut to a dispositive issue without trial on the merits, even when the trial court believes the ultimate disposition is foreseeable"). If Diversified Development raised facts that, if proven, might have been interpreted in such a way as to entitle it to judgment, the court must have conducted a trial on the merits. See id.

[12] [13] [14] --Actual authority to speak. Actual speaking authority may be express or implied. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 7 cmt. c (1957). Express speaking authority will exist when the principal has told the agent that he or she may make certain statements, representations, or admissions. Id. Implied speaking authority will exist when the principal appoints the agent to a position that normally carries with it the authority to make certain statements and from which position the agent reasonably believes that he is authorized to make such statements. Similarly, implied speaking authority will exist when the principal expressly authorizes the agent to do an act that necessarily requires the making of statements. See Warren A. Seavey, Handbook of the Law of Agency § 105(C), at 190 (1964) ("To the extent that statements are made as part of an authorized transaction, ... a statement is authorized if the agent has reason to believe that the principal desires him to make it.").

Heil testified that Hurley had actual authority to discuss an extension of the purchase option deadline. By informing Hurley that it would not make the decision whether to agree to the financing modifications until after the March 31 purchase option deadline, the Estate gave Hurley reason to believe that it was authorizing a "grace period" during which the original option could be exercised. On remand the factfinder thus should determine whether Hurley reasonably believed Heil and Holmberg desired him to communicate to Diversified Development a temporary extension of the option agreement. If Hurley had such a reasonable belief, the Estate would be bound by Hurley's statement that "these ladies are not going to hold [Diversified Development] to the [option deadline]" regardless of whether the Estate intended Hurley to grant an extension. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 26 cmt. a (1957) ("[T]he manifestation and not the intention of the principal is important; hence, 1221 *299 whenever the principal manifests to the agent that the agent is to act on his account, [actual] authority exists although the principal is not in fact willing that he should do so.").

[15] [16] --Apparent authority to speak. Whether an agent has apparent speaking authority is a question that must be determined by the trier of fact in light of the agent's duties and responsibilities. See Hartman v. Port of Seattle, 63 Wash.2d 879, 389 P.2d 669, 673-74 (1964); cf. Kasper v. Buffalo Bills, 42 A.D.2d 87, 345 N.Y.S.2d 244, 250-51 (1973) (adopting rule that statements made by agent will bind principal if agent had authority to speak and remanding for determination of agent's authority and responsibilities). Further, evidence of the appearance of authority as created by the actions and words of the principal is always admissible to show that the agent has authority to speak. See Restatement (Second) of Agency § 286 cmt. b (1957); see also Sigel v. Boston & M.R.R., 107 N.H. 8, 216 A.2d 794, 806-07 (1966) (finding sufficient evidence of speaking authority to create a jury question when negotiations over proposed railroad crossing repair were initiated by defendant, defendant's representatives were vice presidents in charge of purchasing, and duties of defendant's representatives included resolving matters in relation to the company negotiated with).

[17] As an attorney and negotiator for the Estate, Hurley had apparent authority to communicate the position of the Estate in terms of offer and acceptance. Further, prior to the negotiations over the extension of the option deadline, the Estate always had communicated its wishes to Diversified Development through Hurley, and, prior to the May 1 letter faxed directly to Baehr, the Estate never had communicated directly with Diversified Development. Finally, the Estate did not reject Diversified Development's proposed financing modifications or respond to Diversified Development's extension request, other than through Hurley, prior to the expiration of the option. Thus because of Hurley's position, and because of the Estate's behavior toward Diversified Development in relation to the option deadline, we conclude that there was an issue of fact whether Hurley had apparent authority to speak.

[18] Even if the evidence discloses that Hurley's representations that the Estate would not hold Diversified Development to the option deadline were not correct, his misrepresentations could still be binding on the Estate. Seavey, Handbook of the Law of Agency § 60, at 109; cf. Wallo v. Rosenberg, 331 S.W.2d 8, 13-14 (Mo.Ct.App.1960) (holding that agent's fraudulent representations about the occupancy rates and expenses of a hotel were binding on the principal in an action to rescind a real estate contract). The question is whether Hurley's statements reasonably could be understood as representations of the Estate's position. When a speaking agent makes a statement that is susceptible to more than one reasonable interpretation, the principal cannot complain that a third party relied on one reasonable interpretation over another. Thus, if the Estate placed Hurley in a position from which Diversified Development could reasonably conclude that he had authority to communicate the Estate's position on the proposed extension request, the Estate cannot complain to the third party that its agent acted contrary to its wishes.

[19] Reasonableness of interpretation is a question of fact. We have discussed the binding nature of a representation by an agent with speaking authority. We hasten to distinguish that issue from the issue whether Diversified Development reasonably interpreted Hurley's statements as representations of the Estate's extension of a grace period for exercise of this purchase option. From statements such as "a few days one way or another would not make any difference" and "[t]hese ladies are not going to hold you to the line" there is raised a genuine issue of material fact whether Diversified Development did reasonably rely on Hurley's statements as a representation of the Estate's position.

[20] Statute of frauds not a bar. As a contract for the sale of land, the contract between Diversified Development and the Estate is governed by the statute of frauds and must be in writing. See Robinson v. Black, 73 N.M. 116, 118-19, 385 P.2d 971, 973 300 *1222 (1963). The Estate argues that because the contract falls within the statute of frauds, the oral modification of the option agreement, to be enforceable, had to be in writing. We disagree and conclude that Hurley could bind the Estate to an extension of the option deadline by orally conveying the Estate's agreement to an extension.

Relying on this Court's prior decisions in Dave Zerwas Co. v. James Hamilton Construction Co., 117 N.M. 724, 876 P.2d 653 (1994), and Yrisarri v. Wallis, 76 N.M. 776, 418 P.2d 852 (1966), the Estate argues that an oral modification of the option deadline is unenforceable because of the statute of frauds. In Yrisarri this Court held that parole evidence was not admissible to "contradict, vary, modify, or add to a written agreement." 76 N.M. at 779, 418 P.2d at 854 (quoting Maine v. Garvin, 76 N.M. 546, 550-51, 417 P.2d 40, 43 (1966)). In Zerwas we stated that "a modification to an agreement within the Statute of Frauds must be in writing ... because it is, in essence, a new agreement." 117 N.M. at 726, 876 P.2d at 655.

While we believe Yrisarri and Zerwas correctly stated the general law, we must reconcile those cases with other New Mexico law. In Kingston v. Walters, 16 N.M. 59, 64, 113 P. 594, 595 (1911), we held that "a subsequent verbal modification of the time of performance fixed by a written agreement for the sale of real estate will be regarded ... as valid." This holding recognized that parties to a written contract controlled by the statute of frauds may orally modify the contract and the modification will be enforced if one of the parties materially changes its position in reasonable reliance on the subsequent oral agreement. Id. at 64-65, 113 P. at 595; see Restatement (Second) of Contracts § 150 (1979) (stating that statute of frauds does not bar enforcement of subsequent oral modification if enforcement of original terms would be unjust in view of one party's material change in position). We believe these holdings may be reconciled insofar as the extension of the option agreement in Kingston did not so alter the real estate sale agreement as to create, in effect, a new agreement. As in Kingston, the oral modification between Diversified Development and the Estate, if authorized, would be enforceable notwithstanding the statute of frauds.

[21] [22] [23] The court erred in dismissing Diversified Development's prima facie tort claim against the Estate. In recognizing prima facie tort as a cause of action in Schmitz v. Smentowski, 109 N.M. 386, 394, 785 P.2d 726, 734 (1990), we stated that the cause of action was intended to provide "a remedy for plaintiffs who have been harmed by a defendant's intentional and malicious acts" and who have no other legal remedy. For liability under this cause of action to attach, a defendant's conduct must be both wrongful and unjustifiable. Id. at 394-95, 785 P.2d at 734-35. Because the court entered judgment before ruling on the motion to compel, the evidence of intent was not fully developed. The withheld portions of Heil's telephone diary may have established the Estate's knowledge and intent; therefore dismissal of the cause of action before ruling on the motion to compel was premature. There being no genuine issue of material fact in this regard on the part of Hurley, however, summary judgment was properly granted in his favor on this issue. Conclusion. We reverse the judgments in favor of the Estate except the judgment based on Hurley's lack of apparent authority to grant an extension. We affirm the judgments in favor of Hurley. The case is remanded to the trial court for further proceedings consistent with this opinion.
IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dear Ms. Matson,

I prepared the Bulk Land plat for the referenced project. This work included performing a boundary survey on the ground and reviewing supporting documents for the subject property as well as for the adjoining properties. This plat meets the Minimum Requirements for Land Surveys as adopted by the New Mexico Board of Licensure for Engineers and Surveyors. The boundary of the survey was based on the plat of Tracts numbered One (1) and Two (2), Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc., as the same are shown and designated on the plat thereof, filed in the office of the County Clerk of Bernalillo County, New Mexico on April 28, 1989 in Volume C39, Folio 28.

I also reviewed and plotted the property described in the Quitclaim Deed from Sharif A. and Samia Rabadi to The Star Trust of which the Rabadis are the initial trustee. The deed was filed in the Office of the County Clerk on April 20, 1998, in Book 9808, Page 5684. Based on the Metes and Bounds Legal Description provided in this deed, there are no overlaps of the Rabadi property onto the subject property.

Please call me if you have any questions or if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Larry W. Medrano, PS
President

Protest Items to Project No. 1002632, Sundance Estates

04DRB-00761 Minor – Preliminary & Final Plat Approval

I, Felix Rabadi, owner of the 17-acre tract north of the subject project, protest the DRB action based on the following items:

1. Drainage – Drainage easements should not be vacated until replacement easements are provided for storm water outlets.

2. West and South Public Road – Road easements should not be vacated. They are required for access to Southern Lots and developer should build ½ street per City of Albuquerque negotiations.

3. Connecting Road/Paradise to Unser – Similar connections should be provided at Paradise & Unser as the existing easements provide before vacation.

4. Landscape Easements – Should not be vacated. It is needed as a buffer between developments (17 acres could still be commercial) [SU-1 PRD].

5. The 5-acres adjacent to the Rabadi tract is a disputed area and should not be platted until legal issues are resolved.

RE: APPLICATION FOR ZONE CHANGE

On May 24, 1994, application to change the zone on approximately 17 acres of land was filed with the City of Albuquerque. The subject land is located adjacent to Paradise Boulevard across from the County Park that is used for a storm water retention pond (see attached zone map).

Currently, the land is zoned SU-1 PRD. I have inclosed a copy of the definition of this zone as found in the City of Albuquerque Comprehensive City Zoning Code. The request for zone change is made to change the zone to R-1 (see attached definition).

The request for the zone change is made to allow for the approval of a proposed subdivision that is planned for this site. I have enclosed a copy of the proposed subdivision layout for your inspection.

We feel that the proposed subdivision will be very compatible with the surrounding developments.

If you have any questions or if a meeting would be helpful to discuss the application or the subdivision, please let me know.

    This will give purchaser 21/2 years to close on all lots.
* If any lots sold to builder above the cost which the purchaser paid, the difference shall be paid to seller (Felix Rabadi). If seller found a higher price for the lots by any other builder, buyer must match that price.

RE: 5-Acre Paragon Property Purchase & Agreement to Purchase Finished Lots

In response to your memo dated January 6, 2004, Builders Investment Company agrees to the following deal points. This memo does not bind either party for both of the deals described herein; but is to be used as a good faith effort to construct both deals. Once the major deal points have been agreed upon, a final set of contracts will be written. With regard to earnest money on both deals, Builders Investment Company believes that because this whole deal has been done on good faith, and that there should be no earnest money requirement for either deal.

The deal shall be broken down into the following two separate agreements.

I. Rabadi to purchase 5 acres from Builders Investment Company
   A. Purchase Price: $35,000 per acre
   B. Closing: As Soon As Possible (To be clarified by Rabadi)
   C. Both parties agree to trade and record entrance easements off of Paradise. Any difference in land area shall be made up to the other party at $35,000 / acre.
   D. Rabadi to pay his pro-rata share of infrastructure costs through whatever method Ron Bohanan deems necessary. This amount is estimated to be no less than $173,916; but could be more.
   E. Closing on this transaction to take place at Albuquerque Title w/ Diana Stoneburger.
   F. The minimum amount of utilities will be brought to the new property line by Builders Investment Company in order to facilitate the development of the Rabadi subdivision. Builders Investment Company will eventually complete all of the final utilities and infrastructure as needed by our development-phasing plan for the whole tract and will not impede Rabadi's development.
   G. The lay out of this transaction is shown in the plat that is attached to this outline.
   H. No Real Estate Commissions will be paid on this transaction.

(Builders Investment Company is willing to do the deal listed above if Mr. Rabadi is willing to do the deal listed below.)

II. Builders Investment Company to purchase all of Rabadi's finished lots
   A. Purchase Price: To be determined by appraisal for each size lot. Once a contract for these lots has been signed the deal is done even if Rabadi finds a higher price for the lots from someone else. NO
   B. Takedown Schedule: 5 takedowns on fully completed lots, 30 lots each, every 6 months. Rabadi to carry / finance each take down for purchaser with financing acceptable to Builders Investment Company. NO

Dear Griff:

I met with Felix Rabadi and he asked me to try one more time to see if an agreement can be worked out. The following is what should be a reasonable solution to the problem:

1- Exchange easement even.
2- BIC will sell Rabadi 5 acres at $35,000.00 each.
3- Rabadi will pay his share of infrastructure development costs.
4- Rabadi will build front wall on Paradise Blvd.
5- Rabadi will pay all cost required at front of property.
6- BIC will build the easement road.
7- BIC will bring utilities to Rabadi property line.
8- Rabadi will pay for the sign at entrance with name of subdivision.
9- Enter into an agreement before either party goes to the DRB.

I hope both parties can work it all out. I can be reached at 259-0517.

Very truly yours,

Manuel Lujan Jr.

Re: Portions of Tract 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Rabadi:

Robert J. Schaefer has relinquished to Signature "J" Homes, Inc. ("Signature "J"), his rights to purchase Tracts 1 and 2, Lands of Paragon Resources, Inc. A new contract has been signed by Paragon Resources, Inc. and Signature "J".

We are aware that you had entered into an agreement with the prior contract purchaser of the Paragon property, Tejas 5 Partnership, to purchase a portion of Tract 2. Within the last few days, R. J. Schaefer presented to you a proposal whereby we would honor that prior agreement subject to certain modifications. It is my understanding that you found that proposal unacceptable.

Enclosed is a revised agreement which responds to some, but not all of your suggested changes. If the terms of this revised agreement are acceptable to you, please sign it and return it to this office on or before the end of the business day on Friday, September 13, 1996. If we have not received an executed copy of the Agreement by that date, then any offer that Signature "J" or Schaefer have made to sell the property to you is withdrawn.

Please understand that we are of the opinion that we have no legal obligation to negotiate with you or to sell you this property. We are doing so simply as an accommodation to you in light of the efforts that you have into your project.

Sincerely,

SIGNATURE "J" HOMES, INC., a New Mexico corporation

EXCLUSIONS FROM COVERAGE

The following matters are expressly excluded from the coverage of this policy and the Company will not pay loss or damage, costs, attorneys' fees or expenses which arise by reason of:

1. (a) Any law, ordinance or governmental regulation (including but not limited to building and zoning laws, ordinances, or regulations) restricting, regulating, prohibiting or relating to (i) the occupancy, use, or enjoyment of the land; (ii) the character, dimensions or location of any improvement now or hereafter erected on the land; (iii) a separation in ownership or a change in the dimensions or area of the land or any parcel of which the land is or was a part; or (iv) environmental protection, or the affect of any violation of these laws, ordinances or governmental regulations, except to the extent that a notice of the enforcement thereof or a notice of a defect, lien or encumbrance resulting from a violation or alleged violation affecting the land has been recorded in the public records at Date of Policy.

   (b) Any governmental police power not excluded by (a) above, except to the extent that a notice of the exercise thereof or a notice of a defect, lien or encumbrance resulting from a violation or alleged violation affecting the land has been recorded in the public records at Date of Policy.
2. Rights of eminent domain unless notice of the exercise thereof has been recorded in the public records at Date of Policy, but not excluding from coverage any taking which has occurred prior to Date of Policy which would be binding on the rights of a purchaser for value without knowledge.
3. Defects, liens, encumbrances, adverse claims or other matters:

   (a) created, suffered, assumed or agreed to by the insured claimant;

   (b) not known to the Company, not recorded in the public records at Date of Policy, but known to the insured claimant and not disclosed in writing to the Company by the insured claimant prior to the date the insured claimant became an insured under this policy;

   (c) resulting in no loss or damage to the insured claimant;

   (d) attaching or created subsequent to Date of Policy; or

   (e) resulting in loss or damage which would not have been sustained if the insured claimant had paid value for the estate or interest insured by this policy.
4. Any claim, which arises out of the transaction vesting in the Insured the estate or interest insured by this policy, by reason of the operation of federal bankruptcy, state insolvency, or similar creditors' rights laws, that is based on:

   (a) the transaction creating the estate or interest insured by this policy being deemed a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer; or

   (b) the transaction creating the estate or interest insured by this policy being deemed a preferential transfer except where the preferential transfer results from the failure:

      (i) to timely record the instrument of transfer; or

      (ii) of such recordation to impart notice to a purchaser for value or a judgment or lien creditor.

CONDITIONS AND STIPULATIONS

1. DEFINITION OF TERMS.

The following terms when used in this policy mean:

(a) "insured": the insured named in Schedule A, and, subject to any rights or defenses the Company would have had against the named insured, those who succeed to the interest of the named insured by operation of law as distinguished from purchase including, but not limited to, heirs, distributees, devisees, survivors, personal representatives, next of kin, or corporate or fiduciary successors.

(b) "insured claimant": an insured claiming loss or damage.

(c) "knowledge" or "known": actual knowledge, not constructive knowledge or notice which may be imputed to an insured by reason of the public records as defined in this policy or any other records which impart constructive notice of matters affecting the land.

(d) "land": the land described or referred to in Schedule A, and improvements affixed thereto which by law constitute real property. The term "land" does not include any property beyond the lines of the area described or referred to in Schedule A, nor any right , title, interest, estate or easement in abutting streets, roads, avenues, alleys, lanes, ways or waterways, but nothing herein shall modify or limit the extent to which a right of access to and from the land is insured by this policy.

(e) "mortgage": mortgage, deed of trust, trust deed, or other security instrument.

(f) "public records": records established under state statutes at Date of Policy for the purpose of imparting constructive notice of matters relating to real property to purchasers for value and without knowledge. With respect to Section 1(a) (iv) of the Exclusions From Coverage, "public records" shall also include environmental protection liens filed in the records of the clerk of the United States district court for the district in which the land is located.

(g) "unmarketability of the title": an alleged or apparent matter affecting the title to the land, not excluded or excepted from coverage, which would entitle a purchaser of the estate or interest described in Schedule A to be released from the obligation to purchase by virtue of a contractual condition requiring the delivery of marketable title.

2. CONTINUATION OF INSURANCE AFTER CONVEYANCE OF TITLE.

The coverage of this policy shall continue in force as of Date of Policy in favor of an insured only so long as the insured retains an estate or interest in the land, or holds an indebtedness secured by a purchase money mortgage given by a purchaser from the insured, or only so long as the insured shall have liability by reason of covenants of warranty made by the insured in any transfer or conveyance of the estate or interest. This policy shall not continue in force in favor of any purchaser from the insured of either (i) an estate or interest in the land, or (ii) an indebtedness secured by a purchase money mortgage given to the insured.

3. NOTICE OF CLAIM TO BE GIVEN BY INSURED CLAIMANT.

The insured shall notify the Company promptly in writing (i) in case of any litigation as set forth in Section 4(a) below, (ii) in case knowledge shall come to an insured hereunder of any claim of title or interest which is adverse to the title to the estate or interest, as insured, and which might cause loss or damage for which the Company may be liable by virtue of this policy, or (iii) if title to the estate or interest, as insured, is rejected as unmarketable. If prompt notice shall not be given to the Company, then as to the insured all liability of the Company shall terminate with regard to the matter or matters for which prompt notice is required; provided, however, that failure to notify the Company shall in no case prejudice the rights of any insured under this policy unless the Company shall be prejudiced by the failure and then only to the extent of the prejudice.

4. DEFENSE AND PROSECUTION OF ACTIONS; DUTY OF INSURED CLAIMANT TO COOPERATE.

(a) Upon written request by the insured and subject to the options contained in Section 6 of these Conditions and Stipulations, the Company, at its own cost and without unreasonable delay, shall provide for the defense of an insured in litigation in which any third party asserts a claim adverse to the title or interest as insured, but only as to those stated causes of action alleging a defect, lien or encumbrance or other matter insured against by this policy. The Company shall have the right to select counsel of its choice (subject to the right of the insured to object for reasonable cause) to represent the insured as to those stated causes of action and shall not be liable for and will not pay the fees of any other counsel. The Company will not pay any fees, costs or expenses incurred by the insured in the defense of those causes of action which allege matters not insured against by this policy.

(b) The Company shall have the right, at its own cost, to institute and prosecute any action or proceeding or to do any other act which in its opinion may be necessary or desirable to establish the title to the estate or interest, as insured, or to prevent or reduce loss or damage to the insured. The Company may take any appropriate action under the terms of this policy, whether or not it shall be liable hereunder, and shall not thereby concede liability or waive any provision of this policy. If the Company shall exercise its rights under this paragraph, it shall do so diligently.

(c) Whenever the Company shall have brought an action or interposed a defense as required or permitted by the provisions of this policy, the Company may pursue any litigation to final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction and expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to appeal from any adverse judgment or order.

(d) In all cases where this policy permits or requires the Company to prosecute or provide for the defense of any action or proceeding, the insured shall secure to the Company the right to so prosecute or provide defense in the action or proceeding, and all appeals therein, and permit the Company to use, at its option, the name of the insured for this purpose. Whenever requested by the Company, the insured, at the Company's expense, shall give the Company all reasonable aid (i) in any action or proceeding, securing evidence, obtaining witnesses, prosecuting or defending the action or proceeding, or effecting settlement, and (ii) in any other lawful act which in the opinion of the Company may be necessary or desirable to establish the title to the estate or interest as insured. If the Company is prejudiced by the failure of the insured to furnish the required cooperation, the Company's obligations to the insured under the policy shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation, with regard to the matter or matters requiring such cooperation.

5. PROOF OF LOSS OR DAMAGE.

In addition to and after the notices required under Section 3 of these Conditions and Stipulations have been provided the Company, a proof of loss or damage signed and sworn to by the insured claimant shall be furnished to the Company within 90 days after the insured claimant shall ascertain the facts giving rise to the loss or damage. The proof of loss or damage shall describe the defect in, or lien or encumbrance on the title, or other matter insured against by this policy which constitutes the basis of loss or damage and shall state, to the extent possible, the basis of calculating the amount of the loss or damage. If the Company is prejudiced by the failure of the insured claimant to provide the required proof of loss or damage, the Company's obligations to the insured under the policy shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation, with regard to the matter or matters requiring such proof of loss or damage.

In addition, the insured claimant may reasonably be required to submit to examination under oath by any authorized representative of the Company and shall produce for examination, inspection and copying, at such reasonable times and places as may be designated by any authorized representative of the Company, all records, books, ledgers, checks, correspondence and memoranda, whether bearing a date before or after Date of Policy, which reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. Further, if requested by any authorized representative of the Company , the insured claimant shall grant its permission, in writing, for any authorized representative of the Company to examine , inspect and copy all records, books, ledgers, checks, correspondence and memoranda in the custody or control of a third party, which reasonably pertain to the loss or damage. All information designated as confidential by the insured claimant provided to the Company pursuant to this Section shall not be disclosed to others unless, in the reasonable judgement of the Company, it is necessary in the administration of the claim. Failure of the insured claimant to submit for examination under oath, produce other reasonably requested information or grant permission to secure reasonably necessary information from third parties as required in this paragraph shall terminate any liability of the Company under this policy as to that claim.

6. OPTIONS TO PAY OR OTHERWISE SETTLE CLAIMS; TERMINATION OF LIABILITY.

In case of a claim under this policy, the Company shall have the following options:

(a)To Pay or Tender Payment of the Amount of Insurance.

To pay or tender payment of the amount of insurance under this policy together with any costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the insured claimant, which were authorized by the Company, up to the time of payment or tender of payment and which the Company is obligated to pay.

Upon the exercise by the Company of this option, all liability and obligations to the insured under this policy, other than to make the payment required, shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute, or continue any litigation, and the policy shall be surrendered to the Company for cancellation.

(b) To Pay or Otherwise Settle With Parties Other than the Insured or With the Insured Claimant.

(i) to pay or otherwise settle with other parties for or in the name of an insured claimant any claim insured against under this policy, together with any costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the insured claimant which were authorized by the Company up to time of payment and which the Company is obligated to pay; or

(ii) to pay or otherwise settle with the insured claimant the loss or damage provided for under this policy, together with any costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the insured claimant which were authorized by the Company up to the time of payment and which the Company is obligated to pay.

Upon the exercise by the Company of either of the options provided for in paragraphs (b)(i) or (ii), the Company's obligations to the insured under this policy for the claimed loss or damage, other than the payments required to be made, shall terminate, including any liability or obligation to defend, prosecute or continue any litigation.

7. DETERMINATION, EXTENT OF LIABILITY AND COINSURANCE.

This policy is a contract of indemnity against actual monetary loss or damage sustained or incurred by the insured claimant who has suffered loss or damage by reason of matters insured against by this policy and only to the extent herein described.

(a) The liability of the Company under this policy shall not exceed the least of:

(i) the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A; or,

(ii) the difference between the value of the insured estate or interest as insured and the value of the insured estate or interest subject to the defect, lien or encumbrance insured against by this policy.

(b) In the event the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A at the Date of Policy is less than 80 percent of the value of the insured estate or interest or the full consideration paid for the land, whichever is less, or if subsequent to the Date of Policy an improvement is erected on the land which increases the value of the insured estate or interest by at least 20 percent over the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A, then this Policy is subject to the following:

(i) where no subsequent improvement has been made, as to any partial loss, the Company shall only pay the loss pro rata in the proportion that the amount of insurance at Date of Policy bears to the total value of the insured estate or interest at Date of Policy; or

(ii) where a subsequent improvement has been made, as to any partial loss, the Company shall only pay the loss pro rata in the proportion that 120 percent of the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A bears to the sum of the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A and the amount expended for the improvement.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to costs, attorneys' fees and expenses for which the Company is liable under this policy, and shall only apply to that portion of any loss which exceeds, in the aggregate, 10 percent of the Amount of Insurance stated in Schedule A.

(c) The Company will pay only those costs, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in accordance with Section 4 of these Conditions and Stipulations.

8. APPORTIONMENT.

If the land described in Schedule A consists of two or more parcels which are not used as a single site, and a loss is established affecting one or more of the parcels but not all, the loss shall be computed and settled on a pro rata basis as if the amount of insurance under this policy was divided pro rata as to the value on Date of Policy of each separate parcel to the whole, exclusive of any improvements made subsequent to Date of Policy, unless a liability or value has otherwise been agreed upon as to each parcel by the Company and the insured at the time of the issuance of this policy and shown by an express statement or by an endorsement attached to this policy.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

(a) If the Company establishes the title, or removes the alleged defect, lien or encumbrance, or cures the lack of a right of access to or from the land, or cures the claim of unmarketability of title, all as insured, in a reasonably diligent manner by any method, including litigation and the completion of any appeals therefrom, it shall have fully performed its obligations with respect to that matter and shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused thereby.

(b) In the event of any litigation, including litigation by the Company or with the Company's consent, the Company shall have no liability for loss or damage until there has been a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction, and disposition of all appeals therefrom, adverse to the title as insured.

(c) The Company shall not be liable for loss or damage to any insured for liability voluntarily assumed by the insured in settling any claim or suit without the prior written consent of the Company.

10. REDUCTION OF INSURANCE; REDUCTION OR TERMINATION OF LIABILITY.

All payments under this policy, except payments made for costs, attorneys' fees and expenses, shall reduce the amount of the insurance pro tanto.

11. LIABILITY NONCUMULATIVE

It is expressly understood that the amount of insurance under this policy shall be reduced by any amount the Company may pay under any policy insuring a mortgage to which exception is taken in Schedule B or to which the insured has agreed, assumed, or taken subject, or which is hereafter executed by an insured and which is a charge or lien on the estate or interest described or referred to in Schedule A, and the amount so paid shall be deemed a payment under this policy to the insured owner.

12. PAYMENT OF LOSS.

(a) No payment shall be made without producing this policy for endorsement of the payment unless the policy has been lost or destroyed, in which case proof of loss or destruction shall be furnished to the satisfaction of the Company.

(b) When liability and the extent of loss or damage has been definitely fixed in accordance with these Conditions and Stipulations, the loss or damage shall be payable within 30 days thereafter.

13. SUBROGATION UPON PAYMENT OR SETTLEMENT.

(a) The Company's Right of Subrogation.

Whenever the Company shall have settled and paid a claim under this policy, all right of subrogation shall vest in the Company unaffected by any act of the insured claimant.

The Company shall be subrogated to and be entitled to all rights and remedies which the insured claimant would have had against any person or property in respect to the claim had this policy not been issued. If requested by the Company, the insured claimant shall transfer to the Company all rights and remedies against any person or property necessary in order to perfect this right of subrogation. The insured claimant shall permit the Company to sue, compromise or settle in the name of the insured claimant and to use the name of the insured claimant in any transaction or litigation involving these rights or remedies.

If a payment on account of a claim does not fully cover the loss of the insured claimant, the Company shall be subrogated to these rights and remedies in the proportion which the Company's payment bears to the whole amount of the loss.

If loss should result from any act of the insured claimant, as stated above, that act shall not void this policy, but the Company, in that event, shall be required to pay only that part of any losses insured against by this policy which shall exceed the amount, if any, lost to the Company by reason of the impairment by the insured claimant of the Company's right of subrogation.

(b) The Company's Rights Against Non-insured Obligors.

The Company's right of subrogation against non-insured obligors shall exist and shall include, without limitation, the rights of the insured to indemnities, guaranties, other policies of insurance or bonds, notwithstanding any terms or conditions contained in those instruments which provide for subrogation rights by reason of this policy.

14. ARBITRATION

Unless prohibited by applicable law, either the Company or the insured may demand arbitration pursuant to the Title Insurance Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Arbitrable matters may include, but are not limited to, any controversy or claim between the Company and the insured arising out of or relating to this policy, any service of the Company in connection with its issuance or the breach of a policy provision or other obligation. All arbitrable matters when the Amount of Insurance is $1,000,000 or less shall be arbitrated at the option of either the Company or the insured. All arbitrable matters when the Amount of Insurance is in excess of $1,000,000 shall be arbitrated only when agreed to by both the Company and the insured. Arbitration pursuant to this policy and under the Rules in effect on the date the demand for arbitration is made or, at the option of the insured, the Rules in effect at Date of Policy shall be binding upon the parties. The award may include attorneys' fees only if the laws of the state in which the land is located permit a court to award attorneys' fees to a prevailing party. Judgment upon the award rendered by the Arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

The law of the situs of the land shall apply to an arbitration under the Title Insurance Arbitration Rules.

15. LIABILITY LIMITED TO THIS POLICY; POLICY ENTIRE CONTRACT.

(a) This policy together with all endorsements, if any, attached hereto by the Company is the entire policy and contract between the insured and the Company. In interpreting any provision of this policy, this policy shall be construed as a whole.

(b) Any claim of loss or damage, whether or not based on negligence, and which arises out of the status of the title to the estate or interest covered hereby or by any action asserting such claim, shall be restricted to this policy.

(c) No amendment of or endorsement to this policy can be made except by a writing endorsed hereon or attached hereto signed by either the President, a Vice President, the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, or validating officer or authorized signatory of the Company.

16. SEVERABILITY.

In the event any provision of the policy is held invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, the policy shall be deemed not to include that provision and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

17. NOTICES, WHERE SENT.

All notices required to be given the Company and any statement in writing required to be furnished the Company shall include the number of this policy and shall be addressed to COMMONWEALTH LAND TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY, 1700 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103.
