Dear Susanna Padilla,

The Development Review Board received your recent email. You expressed concern about the DRB holding meetings to review development applications in a remote setting.

We wish to inform you that the City's 'Seventh Declaration of Local Emergency Due to Novel Coronavirus COVID-19' signed July 13, 2020 includes the following statement which authorizes the DRB to conduct a virtual meeting via teleconference or videoconference:

9. Pursuant to the need for responsive and well-informed government continuity during the current emergency, all public boards, commissions, and committees subject to the Public Boards and Commissions Ordinance, § 2-6-1-1 et seq., are hereby authorized to conduct virtual meetings via teleconference or videoconference for the duration of this Order; and

The DRB will make every effort to help the public wanting to participate in a DRB meeting to do so successfully. You have both an opportunity to speak or to ask questions of the applicant (cross examination). Please refer to the attachment for instructions in using the Zoom platform which is the videoconference software currently in use by the DRB.

This is the link to the agenda:

Subject: Zoom Meeting scheduled for July 22, 2020

I feel it is not wise to hold a Zoom meeting on July 22nd and need too reschedule this when we can have an OPEN Public meeting. Critical decisions are being made that affect the community and THE homeowners Property. We as homeowners NEED to be involved in important decisions that affect us here and around our community. Thank you for your reconsideration in this important matter. Susanna Padilla.
