Hello Ernest,

Hope all is going well! We were wondering if you have had a chance to review the revised pond layout for Pond A5. I apologize in advance if I missed your response.

Hello Ernest,

Please see the revised Pond A5 configuration for Valle Prado Unit 5 CPN 740587. I have also attached the most current version of the sheet so you can see how it changed. We made this change to avoid as much Basalt rock as possible, we have kept in line with the original volume for this pond, while increasing the surface area. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Josh Lutz
